Noted Vocalist Sings In Comedy
Frances Langford's rendition of four new popular songs, is an outstanding highlight of Universal's "Cowboy in Manhattan" musical romantic musical, now at the Empire Theatre. Robert Paige, appearing opposite Miss Langford, sings two numbers. Others in the interesting cast include Leon Errol, Walter Catlett and Jennifer Holt.

Melodrama Has Moving Locale
Designed as a "Grand Hotel" of a railroad train, Universal's "Half Way to Shanghai," now holding the screen at the Capitol Theatre, required construction of only three small sets. They were a compartment car, baggage car and diner. "Half Way to Shanghai" is located aboard the line running from Lashio, Burma Road terminus, to Rangoon. The entire action in the story takes place in a time elapse of 18 hours.

scrap and fat. I am waiting for a call to work in an airplane factory and, like my husband, buying war bonds. We have cousins fighting on both battle fronts. I wonder if Hitler thinks he can whip a country with families like ours?
MRS. H. F.

ANSWER—If he does the Nazi dictator has guessed wrong. And there are, thank God, plenty of families like yours. You have a right to be proud of your record.

"DEAR MISS DIX—My sister, in her twenties, was engaged for three years to a young man who begged her to marry him before he went to camp. She refused as she wanted to wait until he returned. Later she received word that he married a girl he met at a camp dance. But the problem is this: He gave my sister a diamond ring and $100 to keep for him until they were married so as to furnish their home. Now he writes, asking her to please send him the money. She wants to know what I would do if it were me. When I said I would return the ring and money she became angry. Now my sister says she will not give him back either. What is your view of this matter?
SISTER.

ANSWER—Good taste and even common honesty requires her to return both the ring and the money.
