

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Between 40 and 50 colts and aged horses are being trained at the Charlottetown track. Yesterday morning we had the pleasure of touring it in company with President H. J. Kennedy. The oval is fast as lightning and I remarked that if the horses were in condition they could easily step in 2.10 over it. "H.J." is taking a great interest in everything and believes that this year will break all records for attendance at Old Home Week. He is also very enthusiastic about the night racing program and believes when Rankin McLaughlin has the new gate in action the public are in for a lot of thrills.

The annual meeting of the Prince Edward Island Harness Racing Club of which George A. Calibek, Summerside, is President, will be held in the City Hall, Charlottetown, Tuesday evening, May 25th, at eight o'clock. All track owners, horsemen and breeders should attend this meeting and take a very interesting interest in the Association as it exists for the betterment of everything in connection with harness horses.

Night along we have been expecting to hear from Lloyd O'Brien who is now located at the New Glasgow race track and as we were wending our way to the post office last evening the thought came— I wonder if there is a letter from Lloyd, and sure enough there was. Here it is: "We have had very backward weather here all Spring and consequently miles around three minutes are still the order of the day. Billy Hood is nicely situated here with nine head, as follows: Jerry Lee Vol 2.10, owned by R. Jabbie; Argot Pointer 2.14 2-5, Whitaway 2.10 2-5, Bona Bell, two-year-old trotter, Bona Beau's brother, green trotter. These four are owned by Harry Breen, Halifax, and the two latter are full sister and brother to Bona Beau 2.10. For Frank Adams he is training Millie Martin, three years and Lela Baldwin, all three green pacers by Abner T. Clegg 2.04 1-2, formerly owned by Alderman Adams, and last but not least Jackson Dale, owned by Billy himself. Jackson is a two-year-old by Worthy Boy 2.02 1-4, premier sire at Castleton Farm, Lexington, Ky., and by the way he is learning to trot it looks as though Hoodie has another potential Watchin' 2.06.

"Oleyton MacLeod has the Walnut Abbe 2.06, Free Trade 2.10, Japs Henley 2.11 2-5 and Miss Margerie Hal 2.16, owned by Ross Marshall. Harry Oliver has the five-year-old Simm H. by Simcoe Harvester 2.04 1-4, dam, June Peters, that shows a lot of promise. Jack Clyde 2.14 1-4 is being jogged daily by Alden Young, and he is considering changing him to the trot. That completes the roster at Union Track.

"Last week I visited Bill Stewart's stable and saw the three-year-old Silver Sls by Abner T. Clegg, and his former star Pat Abbe 2.09 1-4. Bill has also Roxie Direct, a yearling by Billy Direct 1.55, dam, Belle of Brooklyn 2.12. She was foaled at Hanover Shoe Farms and is one of the most perfect foals I have ever seen and that is the opinion of everyone that looks her over.

"At Blue Acres race track Welly Carroll has Nelda Hanover and her three-year-old colt by Gay Song 1.59 1-2, called Blue Song; also Baltimore and a three-year-old owned by David Nelma who also owns Morgandale Ace 2.22 1-4 and The Great G. 2.02 1-2. All are training nicely. For Dr. MacLean, Welly has Skippy Budlong, that is showing up nicely. Sister Henley, owned by Colie McKenzie, Antigonish, is also a member of Carroll's stable.

"In my own stable I have Wilkin 2.06, owned by R. Jabbie; Moneymaker 2.08, owned by the Duddy Patch Club; Cassie Hanover, owned by Eddie McCarron of The Coffee Pot; Sunny B. and Senator Charles, both owned by Dr. Donahue, Truro; Baron 2.11, owned by John MacLeod, Yarmouth; Mac Fingo 2.15, owned by John Ferguson, Oxford; Random Harvest, owned by Ray O'Brien, and Money Musk, owned by myself. I believe the above list includes all the horses training in New Glasgow district and I hope I have not missed any. Please give my kindest regards to all friends at home." Thanks, Lloyd, and don't forget to write us again when the horses commence to step along a bit.

We were greatly pleased to hear from our good friend S. Thane Belyea, Fredericton, who writes that plans are under way now for the erection of new bleachers, the building of thirty more race stalls with additions to another large barn used for race horses, and to paint up the plant and have everything in apple pie order for Fredericton's Centennial in July and the Exhibition. "Dr. J. C. McCoy has not announced his classes yet but plans call for four classes each day with two dashes per class. We are mighty glad to have Alex Long, St. John trainer, here. He has Starlight Direct, owned by H. W. S. Avingham of Gagetown, the initial pacer E. L., owned by Gilbert Harth, St. John, and Beryl Brooke, owned by Lloyd S. McKinney of Gagetown; also the two-year-old Tony Fingo, owned by Frank L. Noble, Fredericton, that has just arrived at the track and is to be broken and galloped. E. B. Savage, Fredericton, has sent his pacer Allen Dale 2.06 to Chatham, where he will be trained by Wilbur Jardine." Thanks, Thane, we are glad that things are looking up again at Canada's fastest track.

For some time parties in Maine have been angling for the stallion Simcoe Harvester 2.04 1-4, but they were just a trifle too late and he is now owned and at the home of R. S. McKay, Dundas. Mr. McKay was the former owner of Red Money 2.09 1-2, now in the stud at Montague. We are glad that Mr. McKay has secured this well-bred and extremely fast horse that has been in the stable of Harry O'Brien at Alberton, the last two or three years. Simcoe Harvester was meant for a better than two-minute pacer. The fact that he paced the Quebec track in 2.04 1-4—which is still the record there—is evidence of the fact. His career was notable for the number of wins he made and the distances he travelled. His get are just coming along nicely and in a few years many of them should make the headlines.

Cedric Campbell, Cape Traverse, P. E. I., was gladdened last week by the arrival of a foal by Pagiaci 2.09 1-4, dam, Teenie Aubrey by Captain Aubrey 2.07 1-2, dam, Margaret Gratian 2nd. Horsemen friends think it is the best of the six foals which Teenie has given birth to in five years, (she had twins last year). Congratulations, Cedric, that should be a great cross.

We had the pleasure of a short visit from J. P. Kehoe, Cape Traverse, a few days ago and our talk went back to the good old days when Jack Irving was the top reinsman of the Maritimes. Mr. Kehoe has bred some good ones including Major Bowes 2.10 1-4 and Paddy Aubrey 2.15 1-2, that had all the requirements of a 2.10 pacer. His sire was the sensational Coloney Aubrey that the writer marked in 2.10 1-4 and won several races with.

Some time ago in these notes we mentioned the passing of John P. Marchbanks, formerly a native of Marchbanks Mills, Prince County, and yesterday we had a talk with Seymour Knight, a well-known druggist of Georgetown, P. E. I. Seymour has had an adventurous career. At the age of eighteen he shipped on a three-masted schooner from Georgetown and voyaged to China, Japan and the Far East. A few years afterwards the lure of the Yukon and the gold bonanza strikes there led him to trek with three companions the long and dangerous journey to Dawson City. There he met Mr. Marchbanks and they formed a friendship. Marchbanks claimed that he was the only one-legged man that had made the Yukon during the gold rush. Later they both left there and trekked back to civilization, Mr. Knight to Georgetown and Marchbanks to California. They lost contact and it was not until our item appeared in the death of Mr. Marchbanks and the fact that he had sold a race track for over a million dollars, that Mr. Knight learned what had become of his friend.

We are pleased to hear that the services of Abner T. Clegg 2.04 1-2, recently loaned by owner Arthur B. McOee, Augusta, Maine, are in excellent demand. George Call-

With practically the same band of players who went to the finals last year again ready to don playing logs and with half dozen others seeking places on the squad, Freddie Whalen's Northend Rowers will not want for man power when the City Baseball League swings into action on May 30th. That was plainly evident Thursday night when a record number of players turned out for the first workout and it may be that the manager will have a tough job naming his starting lineup.

Players such as Harold Hennessey, "Baldy" Williams, "Fat" Connors, a trio with City League experience behind them are bound to make things tough for the players whose position they will be trying to take while young Dolron, one of the junior ranks will bear plenty of watching in the outfield. Cyril Smith who had some experience in City League play is bound to add strength to the pitching staff.

So it can already be taken for granted that the northend crowd, always strong contenders for City League titles since away back in the days when Nels Whitlock was guiding the destinies of the first "Rowers" team, will be right in the thick of the hunt again this season. They will likely have the hardest hitting outfit in the league and if their defence can stand up to the tests that lie ahead, they should be plenty tough to head.

Little is known as yet of Ivy McKinnon's Eastern Stars, but old dame rumor has it that the players McKinnon will field will be right up on a par with the other two entrants. Come next week all three squads will knuckle down to serious training with the wedding process being carried out and once that process is completed one will be able to ascertain the strength of the squads more clearly.

Bunny McCloskey's punching power again asserted itself in Thursday night's bout at the Sporting Club and as a result the youngster who is starting up the comeback trail came through with a quick knockout that not only surprised the fans but left many of them wondering whether everything was on the up and up. Well as far as this writer is concerned it was a clean kyo all the way. Smyth's misdirection was wide open as the "Ace" pinned him in a neutral corner and the left hook carried all the authenticity in the world.

So McCloskey's victory marks another upward step for him. In the near future he is hoping to be pitted against Whynnot, Wadsworth, Ross, etc. That is the "Ace's" main ambition, to come through with victories over the above-mentioned ranking middleweights and if he can come through his ability will again have asserted itself.

Once again, as they have done so often in the past Tiger Steele and Bud Lund stole the show with the six round battle they staged. It has been a long while since two so evenly-matched scrappers have been witnessed in action. Several times last season they carried on a feud with neither being able to gain any distinct advantage and it appears, judging from Thursday night's setto that such is going to be the case again.

Both boys have plenty of class and heart. Neither carries what one would call a knockout punch; if they did each time they met one would be bound to end up in a horizontal position but their lack of punching power detracts not one whit from their performances and every time they meet until either one proves superior they can be sure of having a large crowd watching them. That is how pleasing their performances have been.

Junior Recce Practice
All members of Junior Recce Baseball team are asked to attend practice at the old Park diamond at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. A fall turnout is requested.

WOLFVILLE, N.S., May 14—(CP)—A well-balanced Acadia University track and field team walked off with top honors in a rain-swept Maritime intercollegiate track and field meet on its home grounds here today. Throwing the lead to the winds, Acadia amassed 77 points to leave runner-up University of New Brunswick of Fredericton, far behind with 47 points. U. N. B. was defending champion.

Mount Allison University of Sackville, N.B., was third with 31 points, while Nova Scotia Technical College of Halifax trailed the field with five points. Premier J. Walter Jones of Prince Edward Island, a graduate and former track and field star at Acadia, presented the Halifax Herald and Mail team trophy to Ritchey Love of New Glasgow, N. S., captain of the winning team. The Premier was welcomed by another Acadia teammate of his days, Professor Joe Howe, now on the faculty of Acadia University, who holds two records for the meet established in 1904.

Oscar Walker of Portland, Me., team captain when Acadia won the meet in 1932, made the trip especially to see his alma mater capture the championship for the 18th time in 14 days under the coaching of Fred Kelly. Not only did the winning collegians chalk up eight firsts in the 16 events, but they had the satisfaction of seeing Love, their distance star, clip a full two seconds off the mark for the 880-yard run.

Streaking over the cinders in a cool wind, Love was clocked in 2 minutes 1 1/2 seconds as he beat last year's winner, U. N. B.'s Dave Boswell of Victoria, P.E.I., by 10 yards. The old record was 2 minutes 3 1/2 seconds, set here by Joe Feindel of Acadia in 1933. No other records were established. In addition, Love captured individual scoring honors with 12 1/2 points. He romped to an easy 100-yard win in the mile run in 4:45 2-8 over a heavy track and was also a member of the relay team which took the mile relay after winning the 880-yard relay in a photo finish.

U.N.B.'s Barry King, holder of the 100-yard dash mark, failed to equal his time for the distance when he edged out Acadia's Gordon Kerr of Alberton, P.E.I. The Fredericton sprinter gave an impressive display as he was top man for coach Johnny Vay's team with 11 1/2 points.

Vayden MacMorris, a dusky flash from Jamaica, led the Mount Allison team with 9 1/2 points. He gave the Mounties their only first by winning the 120-yard high hurdles.

UNUSUAL ROLE-IN-ONE
DES MOINES, Ia., May 14—(AP)—A one-armed golfer, Bob Sandler, scored a hole-in-one on the 186-yard seventh hole at the Hyperion Club Thursday. He used a No. 4 iron.

HUNTERS' CORNER

With the month of May creeping close to the halfway mark the tempo of trout fishing has increased accordingly. No fresh runs of sea trout are expected until the last of the month or the first of June although some fair sized schools are hovering around our seaward bridges. Some nice species men have been hooked and landed but angling for sea trout at this season is somewhat of a gamble.

Several of our larger mill dams are producing well and this type of fishing is the most patronized at present. This scribe broke his long fishing fast on Tuesday afternoon, May 11th. There was a time when I'd be out at the crack of dawn hopefully angling a hook baited with a piece of red worm through a hole in the ice. In those days the season opened on April 1st and fishing through the ice was not prohibited.

Of late years I prefer to wait for the warmer weather. This has its advantages. If the trout are not biting one can sit back and enjoy a healthful sunbath. As usual, if I want to make sure of a mess of trout, as sure as one can be in the fishing game, I fall back on a beaver dam. At present there are seven or eight of such dams in southern Queens and Northwest Kings. Beaver dams are usually built in some quiet remote sector and there is always a wealth of wildlife to be found in and around one of these dams.

Thus it was on Tuesday I gambled on a beaver dam and it didn't let me down. I caught a nice string of trout ranging from eight inches (the size limit is six inches this year) to several crowding the pound mark closely. I tried them out with bait on the first round but after I was assured of a good fry I switched to flies. I got a pleasant surprise. They rose to a Parmachenee Bell with real bang.

I found that I took larger trout on the fly and they fought a lot harder. I could have taken more on the fly but a big wallop hit me like a ton of brick. I had a glimpse of a big square tail showing briefly in a welter of foam—and then the line went slack. I had made the mistake of striking just as the big fellow turned away from me. I felt one vicious tug and the line broke just above the cast. I hated to lose him but it didn't really matter. I had enough trout for the family and a couple of my friends. The best time for beaver dam trout is between May 24th and June 16th. Once the really hot weather sets in a sort of soum forms on the water and it becomes warm. The trout also become soft in texture and lose their fine flavour.

So long as the water stays cold and clear the trout remain fat with well rounded sides and the flavour is second to none. I found that out on Wednesday morning. I like to hear that crispy ZUNCH the fork makes when I reach out and spear a steaming browned trout from off the platter. There are times when I have a real boarding house axn.

Time or space at present not allow for a full report on how the Bob-White Quail are faring, but I can assure the president of Island Pheasants Unlimited that he will eventually be made acquainted with all the information I have regarding this recently introduced game bird. Meanwhile, for the information of Pheasants Unlimited and all other interested I pass along a report received from Mr. Harry Wood of Sumbury: Sixteen Quail were liberated not far from Mr. Wood's premises on Friday morning, April 23rd. Incidentally Mr. Wood told me he had passed the same information on to Mr. Acorn, Secretary of Island Pheasants Unlimited.

Mr. Wood's account is condensed as follows: "On Saturday morning I went out to the barn to milk. I saw 6 Quail huddled in the manure shed. They appeared stupid and dazed. I tried to herd them out of a small opening at the rear of the shed. After some difficulty I got them to the opening but they didn't want to go outside. Just then our cat sprang on one and made off with it. I couldn't get through the hole in the door in time to catch her. The Quail, the 5 that were

Athletics Stopped By Yanks After 10 Victories In Row

Queen Square School Baseball League Started

Queen Square School's pupils, who have been City baseball winners for the past two years, again started their League this year. When the Yankees and the Red Sox met yesterday with the Yanks winning out by a score of 4-1. The game was played amidst a cold and raw wind which hampered both infielders and outfielders when they attempted to field fly balls.

In this year's edition of the League are three teams, namely: the Yankees under Arnold McCullum and Wendall Gillis; the Red Sox under Jack McCormack and Charlie Cannon; and the Dodgers under Gerald MacDonald and Joe Coyle.

Yesterday's game produced the lowest hit game ever played in the League since its founding in 1946, as only one hit was given up by the pitcher Jack Burke and Wendall Gillis. The game was only a five inning tilt due to the cold weather and shortage of time.

Poochie Burke hurled no-hit ball for the five innings but was wild as he walked three and hit three, he also struck out nine batters. Gump Gillis allowed one hit, a single by Burke, walked three and struck out three.

The Red Sox went into the lead in the last half of the first inning with a single run by virtue of walk, an infield out, and an error. The Yanks came back in the second inning to score three runs as two hit batters, a walk, an error and an infield out combined for the tallies. The winners added their last marker in the fourth inning when they combined two walks and an error for the run.

The game was capably handled by Mr. Croken who umpired at the plate and by Mr. Callaghan and Joe Coyle on the bases.

Score By Innings:
Team 123 45- R H E
Yanks 030 10-4 0 0 2
Red Sox 100 00-1 1 2
Gillis and McCormack; Burke and MacCormack.

Johnny Greco To Meet Winner Of Pyle-Palmer Bout

VANCOUVER, May 14—(CP)—Fight promoter Gil Martin said tonight Canadian welterweight champion Johnny Greco of Montreal will meet the winner of Monday night's Joey Pyle-Palmer bout in a title match in Montreal or Vancouver.

Martin said Monday's match will be a semi-final for the Canadian welterweight boxing championship. Pyle, from New Waterford, N. S., last November knocked out Frank Vigeant, a Connecticut boy who in December went 10 rounds against Beau Jack and dropped a close decision.

The 22-year-old Negro has won 35 of 39 fights, 31 via the K.O. route. Palmer, a localite, recently campaigned in New York State as a Madison Square Garden preliminary fighter.

PLAN BOUT AT CHATHAM
CHATHAM, N. B., May 14—(CP)—Gordie Snodgrass will meet Coote O'Began of Fredericton in a 10-round boxing match here May 24 in a fight billed as for the New Brunswick light heavyweight crown. The title is not held at present.
