For Everybody's Christmas

All the world is Broadway now! Every farm kitchen is a box at the opera. Every little city apartment is a grandstand seat for a hundred great events. Christmas this year will mean more than Christmas ever meant before! People everywhere will be tuning in on the action of the world-listening in to the theatres—the colleges—the churches—the big events happening— the big games being played. Some like the fun. Some like the music. Some the lectures. Everybody wants it all—loud and clear—tuned in at the turn of a knob—real as being on the spot. With a Radiola.
