Rheumatism cannot exist when the kidneys are in perfect working order for then they take out of the blood all the Uric Acid, which alone causes the Rheumatism.

Father Morriscy's "No. 7" Tablets

act directly on the kidneys, toning them up and helping them to clear the blood of the Uric Acid. If the Rheumatism is of long standing it may take some time to clear out all the poison, but almost from the first "No. 7" Tablets relieve the pain, and if used faithfully they rarely fail to cure.

THE GUARDIAN END SERMON

Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, your father's dying charge. And you Pastor of Plymouth church preached will hear this testimony, and thus recently on the following text taken alone: "My son my daughter, thou from the Book of Joshua: "Behold I am going the way of all the earth, but looking back to those days when I crossed the mountain and threaded the forest, and braved the desert, I know that God's pillar of cloud guided my way, that His hand supported me, for of all the good things He ever promised me, not one word failed, nor did God ever betray my faith."

But there is another book in the library of history, from whose pages you may glean wisdom and argument for confidence. It is the book of autobiography. The central figure in that book is yourself. It is a wondrous volume, because God wrote it, and everything that God does is full of romance, and pathos, and wisdom, is full of laughter and tears and mystery. What a chapter is that of your happy childhood, up to the day when you saw your father or sister's face touched into silence and peace by the messenger of death! Another scene is that associated with the great days in the same little house—the days of Thanksgiving festival and of Christmas peace! Days in school and academy. Later came periods of temptation and peril. Other chapters there are, big with destiny and large with peril. Do you not recall that hour when a dark shadow wrapped your household about, and asked for the life of a child companion? Is there no mother here who remembers days when the child broke away and there seemed no hope of recovery? And the morrow set every joy in the night time with a black wing of sorrow, and with tears, and cried out to God, and the clouds parted, and the child, in penitence and tears, returned to seek forgiveness, after that all days were sunshine and all the nights were peace. And what business man here but has had his chapter of peril. The world made is like the topic sea; full of unsuspected storms. Any day may bring its cataclysm.

Slowly industry creates, and swiftly enemies destroy all competence. Perhaps the merchant made some unholy alliance; perhaps he erred in measuring his partner's gift; but the time of peril came, temptations a rose, enemies seemed all powerful, and the merchant was on the edge of a precipice. But some unseen Power stretched out an arm everlasting, and drew him back to safety, and kept his feet upon the rock. For the wardings away of danger unsuspected, are more wonderful than the deliverances that are known. But your wanderings surpassed those of Ulysses, your spiritual lattes and victories are the story of the shock of arms in the Iliad; the story of your kept Eden and your return to the garden of peace make as nothing Milton's Paradise Lost and Regained. Surely your book of autobiography, have this testimony written on every page that you, not one word ever failed.

And every word that God hath spoken concerning the folly of sin has been fulfilled. Sometimes when the little child has refused a warning of the older brother and stumbled of out the fender, the older child lends a hand sharper than the cut itself by saying, "I told you so!" But when Nature, experience and memory reaffirm their warning, their voice never holds a vindictive note. For these laws of God, obeyed, bring blessings upon the fruit of man's body, and the fruit of his field, and the fruit of his thought, and the fruit of his ambition. But when man rebels against nature and her laws of food and drink and pleasure, and fire and steam, then Nature turns and rebukes him. These ten "Thou shalt not's" are older than the Constitution, older than the religions, older than the mountains and the hills—yea, they began with God Himself.

"Bronchitis"

Is generally the result of a cold caused by exposure to wet and inclement weather, and is a very dangerous inflammatory affection of the bronchial tubes.

The Symptoms are tightness across the chest, sharp pains and a difficulty in breathing, and a secretion of thick phlegm, at first white, but later of a greenish or yellowish color.

Neglected Bronchitis is one of the most general causes of Consumption.

Cure it at once by the use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

Mrs. D. D. Miller, Allandale, Ont., writes: "My husband got a bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for my little girl who had Bronchitis. She wheezed so badly you could hear her from one room to the other, but it was not long until we could see the effect your medicine had on her. That was last winter when we lived in Toronto."

"She had a bad cold this winter, but instead of getting another bottle of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, I tried a home made receipt which I got from a neighbor but found that her cold lasted about two weeks as long. My husband highly praises 'Dr. Wood's' and says he will see that a bottle of it is always kept in the house."

It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark, the price 25 cts. Be sure and accept none of the many substitutes.
