To Drive His Engines in Safety

but neglects to provide a "clear track" upon which his personal affairs can run!

He drives his engine with a steady hand on the throttle because he knows the roadbed under him is kept in good shape by the section-men. His engine has been carefully checked over and the operators along the line are making sure he has a "clear track."

Someday—sooner or later—he will retire. And to make that day more pleasant—and his family's future more secure—he would be well advised to turn over the management of his investments to experienced men. The Eastern Trust officers make it their business to preserve and safeguard personal estates—both large and small. The cost of the service is moderate.

SYDNEY, Australia — (CP)— Golfers at the country town of Narromine are packing shotguns in their bags to shoot flocks of crows which swoop on their golf balls. Gunfire is the only thing which will repel the marauders.
