On Saturday evening the Lorne Valley Y. P. S. presented their three act play entitled "Oh Aunt Jerusha" in Lorne Valley Hall before a large and enthusiastic house.

The hearty applause of the audience spoke the appreciation which they must have felt for the fine acting, the lovely singing and for the unique announcing of Reverend Owen Hughes who acted as master of ceremonies. Following is a brief sketch of the cast of characters—

Miss Jerusha Jebbs, a maiden lady of Tinkertown, was played by Miss Isabelle McLeod who did an excellent job of the most difficult part giving the men to understand that she would not be ruled by them and their fancies. Uncle Billy Babcock—hated old bachelor living next door kept the audience in peals of laughter with his outbursts of ideas and comic sayings and was well played by Mr. Neil McCannell.

Barbara Jebbs—Miss Jerusha's niece, was played by Miss Margaret Doherty who did an excellent job of this part, not only trying to console her Aunt, who was always in a bluster but watching Susie Babcock know as the Brak and live next door with Uncle Billy. This part was played by Miss Dorothy Leard who certainly acted the part well and looked so sweet with her long ringlets and mischievous smile. Ray Babcock—Susie's brother also lived with Uncle Billy and had his difficulties trying to please not only his uncle, but Barbara, with whom he was seriously in love. This part was filled to perfection in every way by Mr. Charles McLeod. Hello-trope—Miss Jerusha's darky cook, was perfectly done by Miss Anna McCannell. Mrs. Tweedie—President of the Ladies' Guild, was well taken by Mrs. Earl McDonald. Mrs. Sniffin, her shadow, and also member of the town club, was well played by Miss Theresa McLeod. Harry Hatfield the town druggist and a favorite of Uncle Billy was excellently taken by Mr. Francis McIntyre. Another favorite of Billy's was Tom Doalittle, pool-room owner in Tinkertown, well played by Mr. Hugh McLeod. Dr. Pullen—a town dentist was filled to perfection in every way by Mr. William Hatton, who was to be pitied more than laughed at when he was obliged to extract a tooth for the very nervous and excitable Aunt Jerusha. Reverend Smiggs—Pastor in Tinkertown—who united Aunt Jerusha and Uncle Billy after thirty years of squabbling and sometimes even fist fighting played by Mr. George McCannell. Between acts one and two the audience enjoyed instrumental music by Mr. Jack Webster and Mr. Alvin Burke also violin solo by little George Webster eight year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Webster, who was heartily encored by the large audience. Between acts two and three—Mr. Joseph Morrison favoured the audience with an exhibition of tap dancing and received hearty applause. During second act of the play a concert took place on the lawn of Miss Jerusha's and Uncle Billy's homes. It was a following very sly took part. Mr. Earl McDonald—vocal solo—

"Home on the Isle" accompanied by Mrs. McDonald at the organ. Old time Band Music—by the lady members of the cast individual Mrs. Mimmie McSwain who also entertained the audience with vocal solos. As the close of the programme Reverend Owen Hughes pastor of the church expressed his gratitude to all who assisted in any way to make this entertainment a success. A great deal of credit for the success is due to Mr. Neil McCannell who was in charge of the cast. It would be quite impossible to single out any member of the cast for special comment as each individual did full justice to his or her particular roll. The concert was brought to a close by all joining in singing the National Anthem. Luncheon were then sold and tea served by the ladies. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly wiled away in dancing to the music rendered by Webster's Orchestra.
