SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS.—The rate-payers of Park Corner School District, New London, North, are to be congratulated on the improvements made in the school. A splendid hardwood floor has been laid and the job reflects much credit on the contractors Messrs W. McKenzis and Frank Pidgeon. In putting in a durable hardwood floor in the place of the old-fashioned one, the people have certainly showed their wisdom and they will receive the appreciation of both teacher and pupils—incidentally the school inspector will be pleased also.—L.

STRANGE VISITOR.—On Monday evening a rather strange character was conveyed into Mt. Stewart by Mr. Lloyd Jay, one of the section men. He was the centre of a great deal of interest and some alarm. Whether he is demented or not it is hard to say, but he refuses to give his name. Finally he wrote his name as McRae from Wood Islands, but on inquiry by telephone, it was learned, that no one of that name was known in that community. Evidently he has been sleeping outside for the past few nights at least, and looks rather haggard and poorly clad. He is a young man, not tall, clean shaven and of fair complexion. At time of writing the citizens had not decided what action to take. They could get no information whatever from the stranger.—L.

A TIN SHOWER.—A number of their friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Edward Arsenault at their home on Bishop street last night with a tin shower in celebration of their recent marriage. Among the articles presented were utensils of all kinds, useful as well as ornamental. The visit was a very pleasant one, and an enjoyable evening was spent in music, games, etc.

MacINNIS-LEWIS.—An interesting event took place at St. Peter's Bay on the morning of the 24th inst., when Mr. Norrid J. Macinnis and Miss Adeline Lewis, both of this place, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The marriage was solemnised in the R.C. Church at St. Peter's by the Rev. A. MacAulay, parish priest, in the presence of a number of the friends of the contracting parties. The groom was supported by his brother, Mr. R. J. Macinnis, and the bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Annie Cummings. The bride, who lived for years in Boston, and is one of the most popular ladies of St. Peter's, was beautifully dressed in prune velvet, trimmed with mouton fur, with hat to match. The bridesmaid was prettily attired in pearl grey, with hat to match. After the marriage ceremony, dinner was served at the home of the bride to about 60 or 65 guests, who remained and greatly enjoyed themselves throughout the afternoon, returning home at a few hours later, after exchanging hearty congratulations to the happy couple and with many complimentary remarks for the unbounded kindness of their hostess, Mrs. Robert Lewis. In the evening, the happy couple went to the groom's home, where a sumptuous supper was served to a company of their friends. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, an evidence of the esteem in which she is held in the community. The groom is one of the most enterprising and respected young men of St. Peter's. As a tradesman, he has won the respect and confidence of the community for his courtesy and efficiency, and in social circles both he and his bride are very popular. The Guardian joins with the host of friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Macinnis a long and happy life of uninterrupted prosperity.

ISLAND PRIEST.—The Rev. Austin D. McInnis, who was ordained at Vancouver, B. C., on Sunday, September 6, by His Grace Archbishop Casey, celebrated his first solemn High Mass at St. Catherine's Church, Burlington, Cal., one week later, on the 13th, says the Catholic Register. Assisting at the Mass were the Rev. James A. Grant (a Nova Scotian), pastor of St. Catherine's Church, deacon; the Rev. J. Bernard Praeger (P. E. I.), pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Alameda, sub-deacon, and the Rev. Donald J. McKinnon (P. E. I.), pastor of St. Catherine's Church, Morgan Hill, assistant priest. Father McInnis is a son of the late Augustine McInnis, a native of Earncliffe, P. E. I., who studied at St. Dunstan's College, Charlottetown, and was four years at Laval University, Quebec, where he did two years of philosophy and two of theology. His health failing, he went to California about two years ago, and finished his studies in St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park.

Arsenault, Rev. Father Baudouin officiated. At the close of the ceremony the happy couple and their attendants, Mr. Francis Poirier and Miss Delina Arsenault, sister of the bride proceeded to Mr. Joseph H. Arsenault's father of the bride, where they partook of a wedding repast. In the afternoon the bridal party completed their journey and happily arrived at the home of the groom where a well provisioned table was set and supper was served until an extraordinary late hour receiving many ready patrons. The newly married couple were the recipients of many and useful presents. The evening was spent in a most enjoyable and appropriate way during which all sorts of enjoyments were at the reach of each and everyone. At a reasonable late hour the assemblance dispersed and each one returned home to repeat in the pleasant dreams. Their friends join hands and hearts in wishing them a long and happy married life.—R.

Roberts, Vesingo, Sask., on Nov. 3rd, at 6.30 p.m., when their daughter, Hazel Lilian, was united in marriage with Mr. Walter Adams Dickson, of Beulah, Man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. V. C. Murdoch, brother-in-law of the bride, assisted by Rev. W. M. Kale, of Alaska. The bride, beautifully attired in a gown of ivory messaline, trimmed with silk embroidered net and pearls and wearing a veil of chiffon caught up with pearls, looked like a vision of the valley, as she entered on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Mrs. M. T. Roberts. After the ceremony the guests sat down to a sumptuous dinner, when toasts were proposed, to which the room responded in a happy manner. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold chain and pendant set with amethysts and pearls. The bride travelled in a brown tailored costume with hat and furs to match. Mr. and Mrs. Dickson, after spending their honeymoon in Saskatchewan and Regina, will make their home at Beulah, Manitoba. The presents to the bride were costly and numerous and go to show the popularity of the bride and groom.

THE WESTERN CROPS.—An old timer living in Western Canada, in speaking of the weather and crop prospects here says that in October and November the total snow fall averaged three feet and that the weather averaged this month eight below zero. He predicts that this assures the next seasons crops will be a heavy one even if a dry season intervened at the ground moisture is secure, fertility with the big demand than ever for the grain of the West the prospects are most reassuring.

WEDDING BELLS.—The residence of Mr. Allan Rogerson, New Haven, was brilliantly illuminated on the night of Nov. 18th, when his daughter, Miss Ada May, was united in marriage to Mr. Arthur A. Pollard, of the same place. The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. MacLean in the presence of a number of the immediate friends. At the conclusion of the ceremony all repaired to the dining room where a rich repast had been provided by Mrs. Rogerson. Needless to say, all did ample justice to the rich viands with which the table was covered. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent and all departed about midnight wishing the young and popular bride and groom a very happy and prosperous journey through life. The Guardian joins with the numerous friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Pollard a very pleasant and prosperous wedded life.

HIGH TEA AND BAZAAR.—The annual High Tea and Bazaar of St. Joseph's Convent was held in the hall of that institution last evening and was attended with great success. This is the fourth anniversary of the high tea, and it must be gratifying to the lady friends of the Sodality and others interested to have their efforts crowned with such meritorious success. From 7 p.m. until almost 7 o'clock the obliging waitresses attended the wants of the large crowd and served a menu that was satisfying to the most delicate taste. The departmental booths of the bazaar conducted by winsome young ladies were attended with unusually good success, as were also the other amusements provided. An added round to the pleasure was the excellent music discoursed by the solo of the Cross Band, with the addition of piano solos by Mr. James Curran, a member of the band.

The new line extends from Newport to Launching, a distance of nine miles, and connects with the Telcelone Company's line at Woodville Mills. The installation of this new line, through one of the most prosperous sections in the province is due to the energetic efforts of Rev. D. J. G. WHITE AS A GHOST
PALE OR SALLOW CHEEKS ONE
OF THE FIRST SIGNS OF ANAEMIA.

Pale and sallow cheeks, with blanched lips and gums, and dark circles under the eyes, are the first signs that anaemia has begun its deadly progress. This first warning is followed by great weariness and breathlessness after any exertion. You grow melancholy, have frequent headaches, chills, awake in the morning feeling tired. You become morbid and nervous, starting at the slightest noise, and your heart palpitates violently even on going up-stairs. Most girls from fourteen to twenty suffer from anaemia. Neglect to supply new blood to the languishing, bloodless body, means a life of misery—indeed it is an open invitation to that most hopeless of all diseases, constipation.

The new, rich blood that cures anaemia and gives new health and strength is readily created by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. That is why these pills have cured more cases of bloodlessness and blood disorders than any other medicine. They have made thousands of girls and women strong, well and rosy, with bright eyes and new energy, just because they nourish the body with the new, rich, red blood of health. Here is a typical instance. Miss Laura Dempsey, Auburn, N. Y., says: "For several months I was in a very bad state of health, with many of the symptoms that accompany anaemia. I was pale and bloodless, had terrible headaches, would be breathless at the least exertion. Having tried a number of medicines without relief I naturally became discouraged and began to fear that I was doomed to continued illness. At this stage a friend who had herself been benefited by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills urged me to try them. I did so and thanks to the pills I am now enjoying the best of health, and feel that I cannot recommend this splendid medicine too highly."

Other weak and ailing girls can also obtain new health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. You can get these pills through any medicine dealer, or they will be sent by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
