WOMEN'S INSTITUTES.—A large and interesting meeting of the Harrington Winslow Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Blanche Saunders, Winslow Road, on the afternoon of the 27th of May. Miss Helena C. Macdonald, Assistant Supervisor of the work gave an intensely interesting and instructive demonstration on the renovating of old hats, making and covering of wire frames and many hints useful to the home milliner, leaving with her audience a printed slip of valuable information regarding the points taken up in her demonstration which were very much appreciated by the members. Mrs. Dunbrack met the ladies for the purpose of making arrangements for the Convention and future work of the Institute and took up many matters of importance with them. The ladies were entertained by Miss Saunders who served delicious refreshments at the tea hour. The next meeting of the Institute will be held at Mrs. Cepha Nunn's home on the afternoon of the 24th of June when the subject of gardening will be taken up.
