I. O. O. F. DECORATION OF GRAVES.

"Let's talk of graves of worms, and epitaphs. And nothing can we call our own but death. And that small model of the barren earth Which serves as paste and cover to our bones."

One pathetic and solemn yet inspiring feature of the Home Week program was the Decoration of graves, which has been the yearly custom of the I. O. O. F. of this town. Prince Edward Lodge, No. 22, with a number of visiting members of the Order, and headed by the 82nd Regt. Band, paraded to the People's Cemetery where they paid a tribute to their departed brethren by way of marking their graves with nature's prettiest and most lasting service was conducted by Bro. Rev. Josiah Webb of O'Leary. There was a large turnout of members and the parade was a most imposing one.

The following are the names of the deceased brethren and one member of the Daughters of Rebekah, whose graves were decked with flowers:— James A. McMurtry, Alex. Raynor, Capt. Donald McArthur, Chas. E. McDonald, Reuben Stavert, Dr. D. G. McKay, Samuel Farrant, Dr. C. A. McPaul.

Mrs. W. K. McKay.
