Patterson's physical make-up was the envy of all present last evening. At the conclusion of the workout, Patterson, although being forced by Scantlebury to the limit did not seem to mind the pace. He thanked those present for their co-operation and support and laid stress on the assurance that he would do his best to uphold the traditions of a champion; adding that if faithful training and condition counted for anything his chances are the best for a win on the 28th. Patterson's sojourn in our midst has been a most agreeable one. His clean-cut and manly demeanor has impressed all those with whom he came in contact, therefore the large following which attended his final training appearance last night was a glowing tribute to a popular champion. Patterson will now indulge in light work, tapering off on the afternoon prior to his match.

FIGHT BROADCAST—Several thousand people, men and women crowded Great George Street from wall to wall last evening listening to the splendid broadcast of the Dempsey-Tunney Bout. The Island Radio Co., headquarters were using a Berwick model of the Royal series with an external loud speaker which could be distinctly heard for a block on either side. Excellent order prevailed so that the clear announcing of Graham McNamee brought out by this magnificent receiver, was heard in every detail.
TRAFFIC STILL CONTINUES.—Traffic on the Atlantic region of the Canadian National Railways is keeping up very well and the seasonal increase is beginning to show although it is a little early for it. R. J. Weatherston, general freight agent, said here this morning, says the Moncton Transcript. Bad crop conditions may result in a curtailment of the movement of potatoes. Mr. Weatherston added, but reports from Prince Edward Island are that there will be a heavy movement from the province. Shippers who conferred with the railway here a day or so ago state that more will be marketed this year than last, although digging has not been started in earnest as yet.

Mr. Quentin, whose book "From Opium Field to Preacher," attracted wide attention to his evangelistic labors in central and Western China, has spent 30 years among the Chinese people. Mr. Bridgeman has had experience of Chinese village and rural life and has taken an active part in campaigns against opium raising and the opium traffic. He is taking charge of the Exhibit of missionary and other work. Rev. Mr. Ridout has toured Canada from coast to coast and has exceptional opportunity to familiarize himself with home mission work and workers. He brings a striking collection of lantern slides illustrating important phases of work in pioneer sections of the Dominion.

TUNNEY RETAINS HIS TITLE OF HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION

Dempsey Almost Out On His Feet In Last Round After Putting Tunney Down For The Count Of Nine In The Seventh. Greatest Prize Fight In Years. One Hundred And Fifty Thousand Highly Excited Fans Witness Bout.

(Canadian Press)
SOLDIER'S FIELD, Chicago, Sept. 22. Gene Tunney successfully defended the world's heavyweight championship tonight against Jack Dempsey, when he carried off a Judges' decision in a ten round match before a record breaking crowd of 150,000 that paid $2,800,000 to see the battle. Tunney came back to win a brilliant rally in the last two rounds after being knocked down for a count of nine in the seventh round by a smashing right to the jaw, followed by a left. Dempsey seemed to have the title in his grasp at this point, as the slashing attacks had Tunney in retreat, but the champion, backing to the defensive, weathered the storm until his head cleared. There was much dispute about the ringside over the length of the count on Tunney's knockdown. Some claimed it was slow starting and that the champion actually was on the floor as long as 12 seconds.
ROUND ONE
 Dempsey missed a left lunge, Jack piled in again with two left hooks to the ribs. In the clinch that followed he clipped Tunney four times with a right on the back of the head. They sparred cautiously, Dempsey preferring to feint for openings while Tunney lay back. Gene slapped a left to Dempsey's chin and followed with a solid right smash to the chin. Jack fell into a clinch, taking another right to the head as he came in. Jack dropped a left to Tunney's body. Jack backed away while the champion followed him across the ring with a volley of left and right hooks to the head close to the ropes. Gene missed an overhand right as the bell sounded.

ROUND TWO
 Dempsey was fighting cautiously, apparently seeking to evade the disastrous first round at Philadelphia last fall. He came out boxing and Gene shot a left and right to the chin. They were dancing boxing high. Gene dropped an overhand right on Dempsey's chin after chasing him to a corner. Another right missed and Dempsey smashed a left to the body and three lefts to the chin before Tunney could tie him up. Hands high, Jack dodged away from a right. There was little action as they sparred carefully. In the center, Tunney's left was short but Dempsey merely fell into a clinch. Gene missed two more lefts while Jack clipped two short left hooks to the body as he slipped. Tunney missed again but managed to catch him and flick two soft lefts to Jack's face as the round ended.

ROUND THREE
 Again they boxed carefully slowly in the centre of the ring. As Dempsey was apparently trying to neutralize Tunney into leading and making an open fight of it, Tunney sneaked over a pretty left jab but took half a dozen on the back of the neck. Gene took the offensive, driving Dempsey into the ropes, where Jack tied him up tight. As they both led in the center of the ring, Tunney led and fell into Dempsey's straight right smash to the body. Gene hung on while Jack clouted to the mid-section. A right smash to the head drove Tunney back. As they riddled about Dempsey wove in again to cuff the back of Tunney's head with his right and dig his left twice to the champion's ribs.
ROUND FOUR
 Dempsey took the offensive but

ROUND FIVE
 Dempsey's handlers worked furiously on him during the intermission while Tunney's handlers claimed that stimulants were unnecessary. Tunney missed a right and fell into a clinch. Jack came in close bounding to the body when Tunney overran him, missed again. Jack backed away now falling into the ropes as Tunney took to the attack when Jack tied him up. They sparred out to the centre of the ring. Dempsey bobbed out of three left jabs. He sent Tunney's head back with a stiff straight left. A right hand on the temple shook Dempsey badly. The champion backed away, however, content to jab and wait. In another clinch, rapped again to the back of Tunney's neck. Gene dug two nice lefts into Dempsey's body at the bell.
ROUND SIX
 They boxed carefully several seconds before coming together for a flurry of body punches. Tunney crowd howled as Dempsey's right hand, "Old Iron Mike," smashed under Tunney's heart. The champion came back rapping both hands to the chin, Dempsey, tiring, fell into a clinch, after the blows, bobbing in through a stiff attack. Jack turned the champion around, with a hook to the head. Tunney came back strong, two more left hooks and a straight right stung the champion. Missing a long left Jack took a right under the heart as they fell again into a clinch.
ROUND SEVEN
 Dempsey's handlers pleaded with him to keep his chin down. As he came out bobbing, weaving under Tunney's right, Jack slapped a soft right to the chin. A volley of right and left hooks to the head floored Tunney for the count of nine. Dempsey was on him like a wildcat as Gene sped backwards. Dempsey was in close with a smashing body attack. Wobbly and dazed, Tunney only could jump and flounder backwards. Dempsey cornered him at the ropes, he smashed a left to the right body. Gene came back weakly jabbing a left to the head. Dempsey laughed and urged Gene to come in and fight, losing his temper. Jack smashed Tunney a left and right swing to the head. Gene dazed grabbed Dempsey with both hands and still holding fiercely at the bell.
Round Eight
 Dempsey came out in a crouch. Apparently somewhat recovered Gene stabbed with his left and clinched. As Tunney backed away furiously Dempsey made no effort to catch him, merely walking a few paces and taunting him to fight. Tunney did fight, whipping a left and right uppercut to Jack's chin. As he missed rights, Dempsey lifted his left to the jaw in a clinch Jack again cuffed Tunney's head. A smashing left to the body drove Tunney back and a right to the heart made him drag Jack. As Dempsey dodged a right he slipped to one knee. No count. Gaining courage Tunney flew at Dempsey pumping both hands to the head. Again Tunney nailed Jack with both hands to the chin as the former champion bounced on the ropes. They were boxing cautiously, both tired, waiting for openings as the round ended.
Round Nine
 Tunney's retreating tactics drew boos from the crowd between rounds. Jack jabbed the champion and smashed him a half dozen times on the back of the neck. They both had slowed up from the fierce attack. Tunney standing in the centre of the ring held Jack off for a few moments with three straight left jabs but Jack bore right to close quarters, coming to Gene's right opening a cut over Dempsey's right eye. The champion went after the wound fiercely snapping out both hands high to the head. Jack tried to box, but two solid rights bounded off his jaw. Dempsey was wobbly but as he coked his right Gene ran away. The champion came back and rocked Jack again with swinging smashes to the head. Dempsey came to his corner a bit wobbly as the gong sounded.
Round Ten
 They shook hands in the centre of the ring. Jack floored Tunney again with a left and right to the chin. Gene was up before the timer could start counting. Jack's right smashed into Gene's head again and the water from Jack's hair splashed over the ringside writers. Jack, the tiger again whaled in with both hands but Tunney tied him up in a clinch. They paused and as Dempsey dropped his hands, Tunney whipped left and right hooks into the Manassa Mauler's face. Gene came in to the attack, rapping both hands to the head while Dempsey appeared to tire. Gene nailed him on the ropes but the champion's two handed attack was a bit wild. Dempsey gave several rights to the body. Gene countered with a left. Badly staggered, Dempsey wobbled about the ring as the bell sounded. The former champion still groggy, sparred.

The fight was scheduled to start at a quarter to eleven Atlantic Standard time. Big Boy Petterson of Bloxi, Mississippi, won the first preliminary on points over Johnny Russell of New York. Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis heavyweight and Tunney's sparring partner won a decision over Jimmy Byrne of Louisville in the second preliminary. Mr. Bentley brought up some very interesting facts concerning the way in which stone was taken as a medium for the expression of sanctity and duty from the earliest times down through the ages. At the conclusion of the address the meeting was closed by the singing of the National Anthem.
