FEW SEALS KILLED.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11—The fur sealing season in the Behring Sea has closed with the smallest killing of seals in many years and a total absence of pelagic sealing, according to reports to the the Department of Commerce and Labor. The result has been, it is declared, a considerable increase in the number of seals which were threatened with extinction by the wanton slaughter of pelagic sealers.

The total number killed off the Pribilof Islands, during the season was 3,764 considerably less than the average in the past. These were killed by American Government agents and the skins will be sold in London in January, the proceeds to be distributed among the United States, Great Britain, Russia and Japan, in accordance with the terms of the treaty signed by those powers for the preservation of the seal herds.

A few days ago a prominent fox rancher took the trouble to call on James Callaghan, tailor to inform him that the clothes he made for him were the best cut and tailored garments that he had ever purchased on P. E. I. Now gentlemen if Mr. Callaghan can supply such foxy men as the above there is no reason why he cannot give you the best to be had in the city. He has a full supply of the very latest fall goods of every description and the latest from J. Mitechell's fashions, the foremost publisher of men's fashions in America and the most up-to-date workmen. His prices are moderate and if you favor him with your order you will be sure to get good fit, good workmanship, good goods and good trimmings. Mr. Callaghan also does the work of cleaning and pressing suits and overcoats— prices from 75c to $1.00. James Callaghan, 178 Queen St., Charlottetown. 10-2MWfmEwfmtf.

ADDITIONS TO RIDEAU.

OTTAWA, Oct. 11—Rideau Hall continues to expand. When his Royal Highness the Governor General returns he will find that advantage has been taken of his absence to add a magnificent lean-to to his official Canadian residence. It is eighty feet long, twenty feet wide and one storey in height. The addition is designed to increase the convenience of Government House regardless of what it does to the exterior appearance. It is held that nothing can be done which will further detract from the architectural aspect of the hall. The lean-to is to be used as a setting out parlor when big functions are given by the Governor General. As the ball room is on one side of Rideau Hall and the new sitting out parlor on the other, guests will have the opportunity of making a thorough inspection of the building in going to the new wing.

W. W. ASTOR SECLUDES HIMSELF.

LONDON, Oct. 14—William Waldon Astor, expatriated American, is drifting further and further away from active life and is now leading a very retired existence, so it is disclosed to the public by the sale of the Pall Mail Gazette.

Mr. Astor established the paper several years ago and for a time he took the liveliest interest in it, having an editorial sanctum there. But it has been some years since he contributed to the journal from his own pen.

It is said to have lost ground after to six pence. The paper was edited he reduced the price from a shilling until 1900 by Lord Frederick Hamilton, brother of the Duke of Abercorn. Iliffe & Sons, a rising firm of publishers, are the new owners of the Pall Mall Gazette and they will assume charge with the January issue.

It will be recalled that Mr. Astor, for sentimental reasons, on the death of his wife, discontinued his weekly journal, the Pall Mall Budget, though it was financially the most successful of his three publications.

Mr. Astor divides his time between his Tudor mansion in Kent, called Hever Castle, and his Italian villa at Sorrento, near the end of the South-the promontory on the Bay of Naples.

BLIZZARD CLAIMS TWO.

MOOSEJAW, Sask., Oct. 11—Douglas Hood, was found dead on the shore of Lake Johnson yesterday, and his companion, Fred Williams is dying. They left here Monday for Williams' Ranch, for several days' duck shooting. They were on the Lake, when a blizzard came up and in the darkness lost their way. Hood complained of the cold and Williams gave him his coat and took charge of the canoe, but when he managed to reach the shore, he found Hood was dead. Suffering from exhaustation, he tried to reach the little shack, in which the party had camped and was found there, unconscious, in the morning.

TO WAGE HOT REFORM WAR.

(Toronto Telegram.)

If all the changes in the Dominion criminal code are granted by the government a warmer social reform and moral war will be waged. The moral reformers of Canada have decided to ask for the following amendments:—

1.—"So amending section 213, which makes the seduction by an employer or man in authority of female employes under 21 years of age, in shops and factories, a crime, so as to protect all girls and women of the age specified in whatever employment engaged."

2.—Adding to section 225 three subsections:—

(a) Making it an offence for anyone, male or female, to be found in any bawdy-house unless able to give a satisfactory reason for being there, such as physician or mechanic on duty.

(b) Making it sufficient in order to establish the reputation of any premises as a common bawdy-house, to offer the evidence of at least two persons, one of whom is a police officer.

(c) Making more clear the criminal responsibility of owners or other persons controlling premises which they permit to be used for purposes of vice, and increasing the penalty therefor.

3. To prohibit the practice of lewd cohabitation or adultery.

4. To give right to search in bawdy-houses as in other disorderly houses.

5. Making it impossible for offenders against the law prohibiting the business of vice to escape punishment by appealing from the magistrate's conviction, furnishing "straw bail," thus regaining liberty, and then not proceeding with the appeal, but returning to their criminal life of fleeing from justice.

6. Authorizing police officers on reasonable grounds for suspicion, to search premises for obscene literature, cards or pictues, and making the possession of such, without lawful justification, or excuse, in itself a crime.

Dr. Moore in his report states:—

"The chance to gamble is round the corner of any down-town square. He takes his chance. He wins, and he—loses. Then he himself is lost. The descent to the Police Court and the prison is easy; sometimes the course is swift; always the end is hard."

During the last year 50,515,765 gallons of intoxicating liquors was consumed in Canada. The cost of this aggregated $81,392,979.10.

"It will be found that the actual per capita expenditure was $11.30."

The tobacco consumption for the year is:—

Cigars—252,718,249.

Cigarettes—782,663,841.

Tobacco consumed—21,000,000 lbs.

Tobacco consumed per capita—3.01 lbs.

H. L. Chipman, Manager for the Plant Line Steamship Co., at Halifax, writes from England, where he is at present superintending the outfitting of the Evangeline, the new steamer for his line, that of the for mile trial trip which she made a few weeks ago, he was impressed with her steadiness, and sea-going qualities. He also speaks of her handsome appearance. The Evangeline has been delayed beyond her set time or sailing from England, because of extra work to be done to her interior fittings.

Some excitement was caused on Saturday evening by a report that three young men belonging to the city were drowned. Fortunately the report proved incorrect although the mishap which gave rise to it almost justified the fear. James Gass, one of the teachers in the U. C. C., Harold Richie and Chester VanIderstine went up East River in a motor boat early in the afternoon on a wild goose hunt in which they succeeded in bagging one goose. When returning a little before dark, a fierce gale blowing and the seas threatening to overwhelm their little craft, the engine balked and they were at the mercy of the storm. They finally succeeded in persuading the engine to resume operations and again they steered for home. When off Railway wharf the engine again refused duty and the raging sea once more beckoned to them. Mr. Gass who is blessed with more than ordinary stature, rather than take any further chances with the brine, pluckily leaped overboard and waded ashore. He gave the alarm and a life boat was sent to the rescue of the two men adrift. In the meantime the merciful wind and tide brought the derelict sufficiently near the shore to permit its occupants to wade to land. They also managed to bring the goose ashore. The life boat returned later.

SUCCESS IN LIFE.

Failure is often God's own tool for carving out some of the finest outlines, in the character of His children. And even as to this life, bitter and almost crushing failures have often in them happiness. Some of us have found it so.

I would answer, that indomitable perseverance and capacity for work stand first—good ability I would place second, and good temper third. With indomitable perseverance and capacity for work a man may overcome all difficulties, and make good all deficiencies of education, even though his intellect may not be above the average.

But, of course, good brain-power, and a natural aptitude for the business to be followed, contribute greatly to success. Good temper is also extremely important, for without it a man is apt to throw away his advantages, and lose the aid of friends. Bad temper, in fact, is a constant impediment to success, and ften a fatal one.

THE W. S. HARKINS PLAYERS.

Manager Crabbe Promises a Strong Aggregation of Players and Successful Plays at Popular Prices.

The announcement that Manager S. W. Crabbe has secured the services of the well and favorably known Harkins Stock Company, which for many years has been coming to Charlottetown, will undoubtedly win general approval from the theatre goers of Charlottetown and vicinity. It assures the finest and latest plays obtainable by the foremost England and American playwrights and complete productions played by actors of established reputations. Other stock companies have played here but they could not claim in the fullest sense of the word, what the term stock really means. In the W. S. Harkins players Charlottetown will see a company of which it can be proud, the opening bill on Monday night, October 21st, will be Miss Grace George's extraordinary successful play "A Woman's Way" which holds a record of remarkable success, it is a comedy in every sense of the word and the play rippled along with a sparkle and zest and every now and then suggests a pool of sincere feeling, and so leaves in one's taste a smack of refreshing wholesomeness as well as of exhilaration. It is a performance, delightful in every respect. On Tuesday, October 22nd, Porter Emerson Brown's famous society comedy drama "The Spendthrift" will be shown. This play had a run in New York City of over one year, and 10 months in London, which speaks for itself. Wednesday, October 23rd, "A Gentleman of Leisure" a comedy drama by George Broashurst author of The Man from Home, Bought and Paid For; etc., and on Thursday, October 24th, The Walls of Jherico, a play that has never failed to attract capacity audiences, or to give entire satisfaction. The W. S. Harkins Players is headed by the old favorite Miss Sue Van Duzer and Harry Stubbs the celebrated comedian. The balance of the company, includes such well known people as Jack Rigney, considered one of the best men in his line of stock, Thomas Swem, John Waller, H. Orris Holland, A. J. Price, L. O. Lewis, Mona Ryan, Clara La Mar, Adele Vaughn, etc., so theatre goers can feel assured of excellent performances.

A BOY'S ESSAY ON GIRLS.

"Girls isn't good for much except for the storekeepers to sell fine ra-ment to, an' to bring trouble on their little bruthers an' other men. They have to be given up to all their lives, or else, if they're little they cry git mad at nothin' an' say they won't marry you! never, never!

Sister Sue done Bob Layton that way an' he's the best feller I know—brings me sweets an' gives me a tim-ner most every time he comes if I'll go across the street and play with Jimmy Perkins two hours.

"Girls is crule an' heartless; they wear lots of false things to make men think they are prettier than they reelly are, an' then they trample on 'em. When they see a nice onnerable man like Bob Layton sailin' acrost the see to fite for his country with a broken heart, they'll be sorry, an' so will I, an' it'll serve 'em rite.

"Girls is no good till they got to be your mother, an' then you bet they are all rite."

FOUND KIN AND RICHESS THROUGH KINDNESS.

Coming up from Los Angeles on a crowded boat, Harry G. Raymond of San Francisco offered to share his stateroom with an elderly gentleman, and thereby introduced himself to an uncle and a fortune.. Samuel Harrison, Raymond's guest turned out to be his mother's brother. Harrison told Raymond that another uncle, Henry Harrison, had died leaving a fortune of about $500,000 to Raymond's mother, who has died since Raymond and Harrison are now on their way to Alberta, where Raymond will receive his inheritance. The Harrison brothers left England in their youth, and made their fortune in the Canadian northwest.

BRITISH AVIATOR'S GREAT PLAN

From London to India is the latest project in European aviation, and substantial monetary support there for is already forthcoming, both here and in India, where wealthy princes and potentates, including the Maharajahs of Jodhpur and Bikanir, have offered prizes of 3,000 and 4,000 rupees, respectively, and the Begum of Bhopal 3,000 rupees.

The Royal Geographical Society has interested itself in the project and has laid out a route for the aviators. The route planned is as follows:

London to Calias to Brussels to Cologne, then following the Rhine to Frankfort, where a deversion to Ratisbon is to be made: thence following the north bank of the Danube to Belgrade and along the soutg bank of the Danube to Rustchuk, deviating from the river at that point in a southeasterly direction to Varna, on the Black Sea; following the coast southward to Constantinople, crossing the Bosphiros; from that point starting diagonally across Asia Minor to Adana via Koneih: thence within sight of the northeasternmost part of the Mediterrancan to Alexandretta thence due east for more than a hundred miles to the Euphrates, following its course for five hundred miles, then deviating east to Bagdad, on the Tigris, then along the Tigris to Bassorah, near the Persian Gulf.

The aircraft to be used will be fitted with water planes, and it is probable that the aviators (if there are any surviving to reach Persia) will proceed by water through the Persian Gulf and along the Arabian seacost to Kurraehee, India.

The total estimated distance is 4,800 miles, and thus, assuming a progress of 400 miles a day, the trip should be completed in twelve days.

No attempt will be made to create time records, the idea being thoroughly to test the capabilities of the machines and the practicability of the route. Offers of machines have been received by the committee, but no definite arrangement has yet been made.

RICH HARVEST FOR OTTAWA LAWYERS.

OTTAWA, Oct. 11.—The second great typhoid epidemic which so far this year aggregated 1,200 cases and seventy-two deaths promises to prove almost as good a harvest for the lawyers as it has been for the doctors.

The City Solicitor has given an opinion to the City Council that the city, on the ground of negligence in protesting the purity of the water supply, is liable for damages to the typhoid sufferers.

Based on the standard figures published in economic losses by disease, the total collectable damages for loss from deaths, from wage loss, doctors' bills, etc., will aggregate about $420,000.

Several of the sufferers have already instituted action for recovery of damages against the city, one widow claiming 15,000.

Now comes another almost humorous sequel to the said story of Ottawa's waterwork mismanagement Bills are beginning to come in to the city for money spent by taxpayers for fuel for boiling the water, in order to make it immune. The opportunity for lawyers in prosecuting actions for gas bills, etc., may be imagined.

TOOK CARE OF IT.

A nice, new mackintosh was little Bessie's birthday present from her father, and the seven-year-old was very proud of it.

That very morning, as she set out for school proudly attired in the mac, mother called after her:—

"You'll be very careful of that nice cloak, won't you?"

"Yes, mother," said Bessie dutifully.

On coming out of school, Bessie started in horror. It was pouring hard; great, big drops of rain that spluttered on the pavement. Hastily rolling up the nice, new mackintosh, she thrust it under her little pinafore, and started for home.

"Why, dearie, you're drenched!" cried her mother in surprise. "Why didn't you put on your mackintosh?"

Bessie eyed her in sorrowful anger.

"You—you told me to—to take ca-care of it!" she sobbed indignantly.

MENTAL DEVELOPMENT.

Man was never meant to live only on one line, to grow only in one direction; his life may be rich and full, valuable and happy, if he but understand the laws of his being, and feed his higher nature as sedulously as he does his physical. As the wise health-seeker remembers to fill his lungs with pure and fresh air, so men must let their minds and hearts ever draw in the mental and spiritual atmosphere which they need for their best evelopment and their highest in-

STOMACH SOUR? GOT INDIGESTION ALSO?

'Pape's Diapepsin" makes upset stomachs feel fine in five minutes.

If what you ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache—this is indigestion.

A full case of Pape's Diapepsin costs only fifty cents and will thoroughly cure your out-of order stomach, and leave sufficient about the house in case some one else in the family may suffer from stomach trouble or indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases, then you will understand why dyspepric trouble of all kinds must go, and why they usually relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or digestion in five minutes. Diapepsin is harmless and tastes like candy, though each dose contains power sufficient to digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many Diapepsin cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be cranky about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever try a little for indigestion or gastritis or any other stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and forever rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion.
