Summerside and Western Guardian

—IT PAYS to buy in this province.

—PURCHASED BUSINESS.—It is understood that Mr. C. B. Morris Summerside, has purchased the stock of merchandise, lobster fishing gear, etc., of the Tignish Trading Co.

—REG'LAR FELLERS.—A free for all fight took place in Holman's Horse shed Summerside, Saturday evening which caused quite a lot of excitement. It seems that the two chaps got into an argument the night before and scheduled to have it finished the following night. In the third round an upper cut landed one of the combatants on his back in a mud puddle and the fight was called off for a future date.

—EMERALD ENTERTAINMENT.—The annual St. Patrick's entertainment, under the auspices of the Benevolent Irish Society on Emerald on the evening of the 17th inst. Although the roads were not good the attendance was large, the hall being comfortably filled by an appreciative audience. The comedy-drama "Down in Maine," was staged by the Emerald Dramatic Club, under the leadership of Mr. G. F. Dolron, and the attention of the large audience throughout the whole performance. The following were the casts of characters: Zeph Cummings, of Hardscrabble Farm—C. F. Dolron; Ralph, his brother, a New York millionaire—John J. White; Neil Wentworth, a young inventor—Arthur Lyons; Dingle, the old fisherman—Arthur Vatcher; Temp's, the hired man—Russel Deighan; Mr. Holan, the lawyer—Russel Kelly; Mose Goslin, a stuttering lover—Frank Murphy; Susie Cummings, Ralph's daughter—Alice Deighan; Mrs. Cummings, Zeph's wife—Mary White; Keziah "forty-three and desperate"—Leonora Clarke; Betty Temp's—Katie Mulligan. The address delivered by Rev. Wm. Monaghan was attentively listened to and highly spoken of by all present. The musical part of the programme was in the hands of Messrs. McDonald and Nolan of St. Dunstan's University, with Mrs. P. A. McMahon presiding at the organ. The St. Dunstan's boys will be welcomed back at some future time. The vocal solos by Mrs. F. J. Flood of Kelly's Cross, and Mr. J. Mulligan and Miss Johnston of Klukora, were excellently rendered and highly appreciated. These popular singers will be always accorded a warm reception by an Emerald audience. On the whole the entertainment was a grand success and all who attended speak in the highest terms of every member on the programme, which reflected credit on the management.

FOREST HILL NOTES.—A most enjoyable concert and picnic was held at Forest Hill on March 17th quite a number being present as the roads were good. The local talent was ably assisted by the talented entertainer, Mr. Walter Burdette, of Strattona, who by his rendition of song and verse kept the audience in peals of laughter. This hall, begun by the young people of Forest Hill last Spring is nearly completed and in time will prove a credit to them.—Mr. Ronald McKinnon of Salt Lake City, Utah, is visiting relatives and friends in Southampton and Forest Hill. Their many friends are glad to hear he and his brother Frank have purchased a home and intend residing here.—Mr. Garfield McLeod has sold his driving horse "Jack" to parties in Cornwall and has since bought a beautiful black horse in the eastern part of the Island. There has been a number of the horse shipped from here this Spring and there are still others in the market, favorably under the skilled management of Miss Marion Macdonald. Mr. Norman Matheson was on a business trip to Charlottetown recently.—Mr. Dan Matheson intends returning to Charlottetown soon to resume work on Dredge

In Memoriam

MRS. ROBERT E. ELLIS

On March 15th Mrs. Robert Ellis passed from this life at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Hardy, Montrose, with whom she resided since the death of her husband in 1917.

After services at the Montrose home, conducted by Rev. William MacLeod, the remains were escorted by relatives and friends to the Alberton railroad station, and borne to the Port Hill Parish in Ellerslie to the English Church, where services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Soddine taking as a text for his touching discourse, the 5th chapter of Sec. Cor. The interment was in the English cemetery beside that of her husband, a large number of relatives and former friends attending. Messrs. Colin MacKay, Luther Williams, Melvin Ellis, Shelton Sharp, Thomas MacCall and Thomas Phillips officiating as pall bearers.

The deceased, formerly Miss Malinda Rogers, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Robert Ellis in 1846. She was the last surviving member of a family of nine children from the old Rogers home situated in Lot 16.

Mrs. Ellis attained the ripe age of
