Hen Mothers Kitten In Brood With Chicks

ATLANTIC CITY, Nov. 12. — Margate City is marvelling over the mothering spirit exhibited by a hen in the flock of Mrs. Alberta Rogers in adopting a homeless kitten as her "family."

Biddy raised a brood of seven chicks this year and they have long since reached the broiler stage. Mrs. Rogers feeding her poultry, noticed that this particular hen clucked and fussed about as if calling her chicks and was astonished to see a small black kitten slip out from under her right wing on the "signal." The kitten refused to leave the hen and the foster mother is perfectly contented to house the kitten under her wings.

At a prayer meeting held in an isolated community, testimonies were requested and a very old woman tottered to her feet. "I want ter tell this blessed company," her voice quavered, "that I have rheumatiz in my back and rheumatiz in my shoulders, and rheumatiz in my legs and rheumatize in my arms, but I have been upheld and comforted by the beautiful Bible verse, 'Grin and bear it'."

LETTER OF SYMPATHY

Mrs. Darrach Woodside, Clinton.

Dear Sister.—We the members ofthe W. M. S. of the Margate Church desire to express to you and family our sincere sympathy in the great sorrow you have been called to bear in the death of your beloved husband and father.

We know that mere words of ours at this time would fail to comfort you in this great trial, so we commend you to the Heavenly Father who has promised to be a husband to the widow and a father to the fatherless.

Sooner or later to all comes the call to enter into rest, and what a blessed hope we have of meeting in that land where sorrow nor parting never comes. Look forward herefore to a happy re-union in that Heavenly home, and while here below, just lean on the arm of the Heavenly Father who will never leave you nor forsake you.

If Back Hurts Use Salts For Kidneys

EAT LESS MEAT IF KIDNEYS FEEL LIKE LEAD OR BLADDER BOTHERS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithiawater drink that everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

Grandma Never Let Her Hair Get Gray

She Kept Her Locks Dark and Glossy with Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done no naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is mussy and troublesome. At little cost, you can buy at any drugstore the ready-to-use preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound". You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and after another application or two you hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age and, as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound look years younger.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. JAMES P. SOMERS

The home of James P. Somers, Kensington, was saddened on Tuesday morning, Nov. 1st, when the kind wife was called away to meet her reward. Mrs. Somers had been in poor health for about a year and the best medical treatment failed to prolong her life. The deceased was a daughter of the late Joseph Currie of Clifton, and was deservedly respected by a host of friends. Mrs Somers will be greatly missed by her husband. She possessed in a remarkable degree the qualities that distinguish a truly christian woman. Her funeral was held in the Presbyterian Church, Kensington of which she was a full member. The funeral services at the church was conducted by her pastor, Rev. T. W. Goodwill and Rev. Mr. Ives, who spoke very effectively to a large congregation. Mrs. Hugh Morrison sang with much feeling "There'll be no dark Valley when Jesus Comes", and the choir assisted in several hymns. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn three sisters and two brothers, John Currie, Clifton; Albert of Summerside. The sisters are Mrs. Daniel Dunning, Summerside; Mrs. Thomas Somers, Kensington, and Mrs. Thomas Cole, Clifton.

The pall bearers were her four step-sons, Hartle Somers, Bruce Somers, Cleveland Somers and Walter Somers. The interment took place in the cemetery at Kensington.

Rest on dear sister, thy task is o'er,
Thy willing hands shall toil no more.

MR. EDWARD McISAAC

The death took place at his residence, St. Ann's Hope River, on Oct. 4th of Edward McIsaac, at the age of 58 years. Nearly two years ago he contracted a severe cold which later developed to pleurisy, but all expected he would soon be restored to his former health, but such was not to be. He gradually declined, despite the efforts of good medical treatment and kind nursing until the end came.

He was frequently visited during his last illness by his zealous pastor, Rev. W. V. McDonald, who administered to him the last Sacrements of the church.

Mr. McIsaac was a farmer by profession and being a progressive and successful farmer himself, he always took an active part in any movement that had for its object the betterment of the farming community in general.

His funeral took place on Oct. 6th, from his late residence to St. Ann's Church, where a solemn High Mass of Requiem was celebrated by Rev. Father McDonald, who also performed the funeral service at the grave. There, in St. Ann's Cemetery was laid to rest the remains of a loving husband and father, an obliging neighbor, an upright citizen and a sincere Christian.

The pall bearers were Joseph McAleer, Peter McElmeel, Bertrand Walsh, Thomas Bolger John Flemming and John P. Bradley.

A sorrowing widow and one son at home and one brother in Pennsylvania, are left to mourn. R. I. P.

RECEPTION AT WILTSHIRE

A large crowd of people of North Wiltshire and vicinity congregated at the home of Mrs. Duncan, on Tuesday evening, November 8th. inst. to bid her farewell and to wish her godspeed as she intends leaving in the near future on an extended visit to Boston.

As Mrs. Duncan is not only one of Wiltshire's most highly respected citizens, but also one of her oldest inhabitants, having lived in Wiltshire nearly all her life time being only seven years old when her father and mother emigrated to Canada in 1842.it was deemed an opportune time to show her in some public way the high esteem that her neighbours and many friends held for her.

Mr. Edison Easter was appointed chairman, was after giving a short but appropriate address called on Miss Florence McLean, to read the following address after which Miss Mayme McDonald, presented a well filled purse.

The rest of the evening was spent in singing songs, playing games etc., and this enjoyable time was brought to a close by the singing of the old song, "Should old acquaintance be forgot."

Mrs. William Duncan,

Dear Friend:—

According to custom of late we are assembled once more to tender a farewell to another good neighbor.

This time while we expect that it is only a transitory farewell we nevertheless feel that it is very fitting to meet here to convey to you our best wishes for a pleasant journey with the earnest hope that the early spring will see your return.

We should have no regrets at seeing you leave to enjoy a well earned holiday with your family as we know it will be a pleasure for both yourself and them to spend the winter together.

At the same time we feel that your departure even for a short while will be keenly felt not only by your frinds and neighbors here but by the travelling public as well, to whom you have catered so long.

In times of sickness and death you were always ready to help and to comfort and your hand was ever open to every good cause.

In conclusion we ask you to accept this gift not for its intrinsic value but as a token of the good will and esteem in which you are held by your friends and neighbors in North Wiltshire.

Signed on behalf of your many friends.

John McLean, Louis Jenkins, Amos Monaghan, Earnest Campbell, Mrs. Elmer Clow, Mrs. William Clow, Florence McLean, Mae McDonald.
