OUR baby pictures—like all portraits but we make—are natural in pose, properly lighted and beautifully finished.
 Fast lenses, high class equipment and fireless fact are the reasons for our remarkable success in baby portraiture.
 Come in some morning and let us get acquainted with the baby.

THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN
 Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.
 John Wage, Hunter River, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Miss Edith Moore of Charlottetown is visiting W. A. and Mrs. Russell, Shediac, N. B.

Rev. E. McDougall will preach in Dundas on Wednesday, the 24th, and not the 17th as previously announced.

The Ottawa Citizen of Aug 11th, contains a photo of Rev. Dr. A. E. Burke, Toronto, formerly of Abberton, P. E. I.

Miss Maude Waterman, City, has resigned her position as organist of Zion Church. She is leaving in a short time for the West.

To accommodate the public tickets for the grand stand for the sports will be on sale today at Hugges, The Two Macs, and The Best Drug Store.

Ralph A. March, Hampton, N. B., the well known commercial traveller, has purchased a new forty-foot house motor boat which is giving perfect satisfaction.

A picnic will be held at Hampshire on Wednesday, the 17th inst., on the beautiful farm of Thomas Easton. A table for strangers. All should come. If weather unfavorable, picnic will be held on 18th.

Alderman Homes M. McKay and family of Medicine Hat, Alberta, are visiting his sister Mrs. Harry Stetson, 190 King Street, and his mother Mrs. Corbett, Hillborough St. It is twenty-one years since Mr. McKay has been in this Province and he sees many changes.

One of the least attractive parts of this City at the present time is the landing at the west end of Richmond Street where a lot of stones and refuse has recently been dumped, utterly destroying the former landing place for boats and leaving an unwholesome blotch on an otherwise nicely kept street.

Rev. A. McLean Sinclair well known in this City, occupied St. John's Church pulpit in Stellarton, N. S., last Sabbath. After the morning service he gave a short address in Gaelic which was which was appreciated by those in the audience who understood that beautiful language.

Lady visitors to Charlottetown who during the past two or three weeks have availed themselves of the limited opportunities afforded by the Park bathing houses, are loud in their desire that more accommodation should be provided, so that women as well as men might enjoy the splendid sea-bathing.

In this issue appears the ad re Notre Dame Convent conducted by the Sisters of the Congregation of Notre Dame at Rustico. Young ladies desirous of obtaining a superior education can be accommodated very reasonably. All information will be promptly given by the Mother Superior as will be seen by ad.

The Telephone Co's ad in this issue is a short talk on "line busy." It shows the folly and false economy of any store using a party line. It is a satisfactory to either party or the customers. If the telephone is necessary in any business house, and every business man recognizes in the phone a partner in business—an irresistible megaphone that attracts trade and forms in the public mind a favorable impression towards the store with the best telephone service—it pays to have the best service. See ad. in this issue.

The Guardian's representative who visited Keith's Theatre, Boston, for the week of Aug. 8th, was simply delighted with the excellent program, which he says, was fun from beginning to end and every actor a star. The program opened with a charming overture, including a selection from St. Friedland's "Three Million Dollars" and Bryan and Gumble's "I won't be back till August." Then came comedy sketches, band and smoke pictures, and short sketches. The Girls from Kentucky, followed by the European sensation, Alexandroff troupe of Russian singers and dancers. These were followed throughout by a bright and witty bunch of stars who sang, danced, juggled, and talked themselves into instant favor. The Kinograph pictures were surpassingly good and the exit march splendidly rendered.

Har Pina Soap—(Medicated) for the bath, hair, complexion and toilet. Specially adapted for shampooing purposes, being used in connection with Hays' Fair Health, and made by the same people. There's nothing better for the hair in the line of soap. 25c a cake. E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside. Successor to A. W. Reddin.

IT'S DRINKING TIME

Don't wait until you are thirsty. Thirst isn't necessary for the enjoyment of our soda. Extra good soda is good any time. There's satisfaction in its deliciousness. Our soda isn't the ordinary soda—it isn't made from ordinary materials. It's the kind of soda that requires the best grade of fountain supplies, abundance of ice, skill and conscience in the making. It's the kind that affords little profit and makes friends.
