Rescued From Precarious Position

BOSTON, Feb. 13.—For 10 long minutes a window washer dangled six floors above a downtown street today, held in midair by a single strand of a broken safety belt, until a daring policeman, lowered head foremost, rescued him.

The washer, Alfred Lefleur, 30, fainted as he was pulled back through the window. The policeman, Chester C. Lucas, raced from a nearby traffic post when notified of Lefleur's plight.

Held Service Last Night At People's Church

After announcing in the press he would preach at the People's Church, Charlottetown, last night, Rev. Ewen MacDougall, Macdonald minister, again kept his word and defied the edict of the Central Kirk Session. He claims the People's Church, under a special Act of the Provincial Legislature, belongs to the Church of Scotland, and his people have a right to worship there until the Act is changed. He reorganized his presbytery and plans to carry on.

Last Sunday Mr. MacDougall preached at Bangor and announced yesterday under a Church of Scotland notice he would preach at Cape Traverse Friday and at Summerside next Sunday. He leads 10 congregations in the island.

Neither side to the dispute will issue official statements. They declare the matter is in the hands of their attorneys, but no legal action has yet been begun.

Warns Against Prejudicing Negotiations

Public Discussion of Tariff Rates "Untimely and Inadvisable" at Present Juncture.

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) OTTAWA, Feb. 13.—A warning against disrupting negotiations between Ottawa and Washington for a reciprocity treaty was sounded in the House of Commons today by Finance Minister E. N. Rhodes. He said public discussion of tariff rates affecting the Canadian Agricultural industry was "untimely and inadvisable" and might prejudice negotiations with the United States.

Hon. Charles Stewart, former minister of the interior, prompted the finance minister's warning when he moved to lower tariffs on farm implements, but he fell in line and adjourned debate rather than take a chance on disturbing the trade agreement.

This was no time, said the finance minister, for a general argument on agricultural tariffs because it might destroy the opportunity to draft a treaty with Washington affecting the tariff items under review.

The former Interior Minister who sold farm implements all over the West 20 years ago argued the 25 percent tariffs against implements must be removed to give Canadian farmers a chance to obtain machinery at lower prices. Because of the existing relations between implement companies all over the continent, this might not be all that was necessary to reduce prices but at least it would be a step, he said.

DESCRIBES

Other witnesses said this man was Dalley. He and Florentino Edquiba, Filipino mess attendant, were the only ones lost.

"In order to arrive at the base before visibility became bad," said Wiley, "all engines were run at standard cruising speed, 63 knots. Two or three minutes after passing Point Sur, a short jar was felt and upon inquiry of the elevator man (controlling the rudder which guided the ship upward or downward) I was informed that the wheel had slipped out of his hands.

"The ship began to take a bow-up inclination and rose. Apparently the elevator man did not have control. Immediately I received a report from the aft that number 1 engine big helium gas chamber near the rudder unit was gone."

SHIP RAN WILD

In spite of everything Wiley and his crew could do, the ship ran wild through the skies, although Wiley for a time expected to regain control. Her nose pointed upward sharply and she rose to 4,000 feet above sea. Then she dropped 1,500 feet, and from that point began falling, entirely out of control except for the steering-way which Wiley was able to give her by manipulating her eight motors. From the 3,000-foot level she fell at the rate of 300 feet a minute.

The sudden lurch occurred shortly after five p. m. P.S.T. in the space of eight minutes the sky cruiser reared upward more than 3,000 feet and downward a rain to 3,000-foot level. At that point, 508 p. m. (P.S.T.) Wiley sent the SOS call, saying the ship was falling.

At 1,000 feet," said Wiley, "the order was given to stand by to abandon ship.

WENT DOWN BY STERN

"The stern hit the water with a jar and I told everyone to get out of the control car and jump before the control car submerged."

By that time several fighting ships with which the Macon had been manoeuvring were well on their way to the scene. The rubber men were found in their rubber lifeboats and taken aboard three cruisers.

Wiley said the ship hit the water stern first and went down by the stern. Slowly she settled, with the bow-up inclination increasing until she was only a giant cone above the waves. Little by little the cone disappeared. She hit the water at 5:25 p. m. and 20 minutes later the tip of the cone disappeared from sight.

2.00 p. m. Model School Talk, Grades 1-7.

IS AGAINST

2.—Germany will negotiate an air pact if her relations with Soviet Russia are fully considered, and if England, France, Belgium and Italy agree to consult with each other before any action is taken under it.

(The air alliance, as envisaged at London, would obligate each signatory to go to the immediate aid of another in case of attack by still another signatory.)

3.—The Reich will agree not to interfere with Austria if the Austrian people are allowed to have their say as to "whether they want to join Germany or to remain independent."

(The London proposal was that Germany adhere to the Italo-French Central European non-interference pact drafted at Rome which would guarantee all signatories against another's interference. This document contemplated no Australian plebiscite.)

4.—An Eastern European security pact is not acceptable when based on mutual assistance.

(France's "Eastern Locarno," which she herself would guarantee, would bind the several adhering nations to aid another whose borders were invaded.)

5.—The general question of disarmament is allied with the air pact and must be settled at the same time.

(The French and British proposed that all existing western European problems likely to menace peace—Germany's return to Geneva, the air pact, the armaments question and the eastern and central pact—be settled simultaneously.)

RENOVATING COMPLETED—The ladies department on the second floor of S. A. MacDonald's has just been completely redecorated and presents a very bright, pleasing appearance. ENJOYABLE EVENING—The Willing Circle of the King's Daughters of Trinity United Church spent a delightful social evening at the home of Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie, Brighton, on Monday last. Dr. Harry Thomson gave a very interesting talk on dental hygiene which was much appreciated by the members. This was followed by a splendid vocal solo by Mrs. Hugh Miller and a humorous reading by Mrs. Arthur Henry; both these numbers were much enjoyed by all present. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered the artists. Delightful refreshments were served, bringing to a close a most enjoyable evening.

The plane stopped at Rockford, Maine, and St. John, New Brunswick, on the way here yesterday. Mr. Curran, Peakes Station, who is 28 years old, entered the Provincial Sanitarium on January 11 for treatment. His sister Alice, who is a nurse, is returning with him. She said, "It is advisable that my brother take treatment in a Boston hospital and a plane is the best way to transport him there."

P.W.C. Hockey

On Wednesday afternoon, the Commercial accepted the challenge of the re-organized Third Years and nosed out a victory by the score of 4-3. The brand of hockey played was exceptionally fast, both teams making some nice plays. Hornby in the commercial net, proved to be a stone wall to the many attacks of Shea and McDonald, the stars of the Third Years. For the Commercial, goals were earned by Clarkin, Birtwistle, Johnson, and Yeo, while McDonald, Forsyth and Peake scored for the Third Years. The Third Years were fortunate in gaining the services of Shea, fast skater of the Second Years, for this game.

The lineup were: Commercial—Goal, Hornby; defence, Foster and A. Gaudet; forwards, K. Birtwistle, A. Clarkin, "Rosie" McKenzie, C. Johnson, A. Yeo, R. Nicholson.

Third Year — Goal, L. Woolner; defence, H. Forsyth, D. McDonald; forwards, A. Peake, N. McLeod, R. Froil, E. Bernier, T. Shea.

Referee—H. Campbell.

DIVISION FOUR WINNERS

Wide open hockey was the feature of a bruising tilt between Division Three and Division Four of first year, the latter winning by the overwhelming score of 13-6. All players of Division Four figure in the scoring except Keefe their rookie goalie who turned in a sparkling performance between the pipes. Hogg, McEachern and Black were outstanding for the losers while Mellish on defence had one of the best goals to the first Division Four forwards.
