RICH FURS ARRIVED FOR AUCTION

MONTREAL, Jan. 26.—Skins approximating in value $1,750,000, and coming from various parts of the world, but principally the Dominion, will be offered for sale at the Montreal Royal Hotel, probably in the ballroom or the adjoining banquet hall.

The New York fur auction opened yesterday and it was reported here that good prices had been realized for white fox, marten and stone marten, and this demand is regarded in Montreal as an indication of the demand which will be strongest at the local sale.

The Canadian Skins.

The fine furs which will be in demand here are represented in the local catalogue by 21,450 mink, all Canadian skins; white fox from Alaska, red fox from Eastern and Western Canada, wonderful well selected skins from Alaska and Western Canada, beaver, marten and stone marten from Canadian sources, Russian sables and fisher from Eastern Canada.

Of This Season's Catch. 75 per cent. of the furs are of Canadian origin and are this season's catch, being from territory adjacent to railway lines.

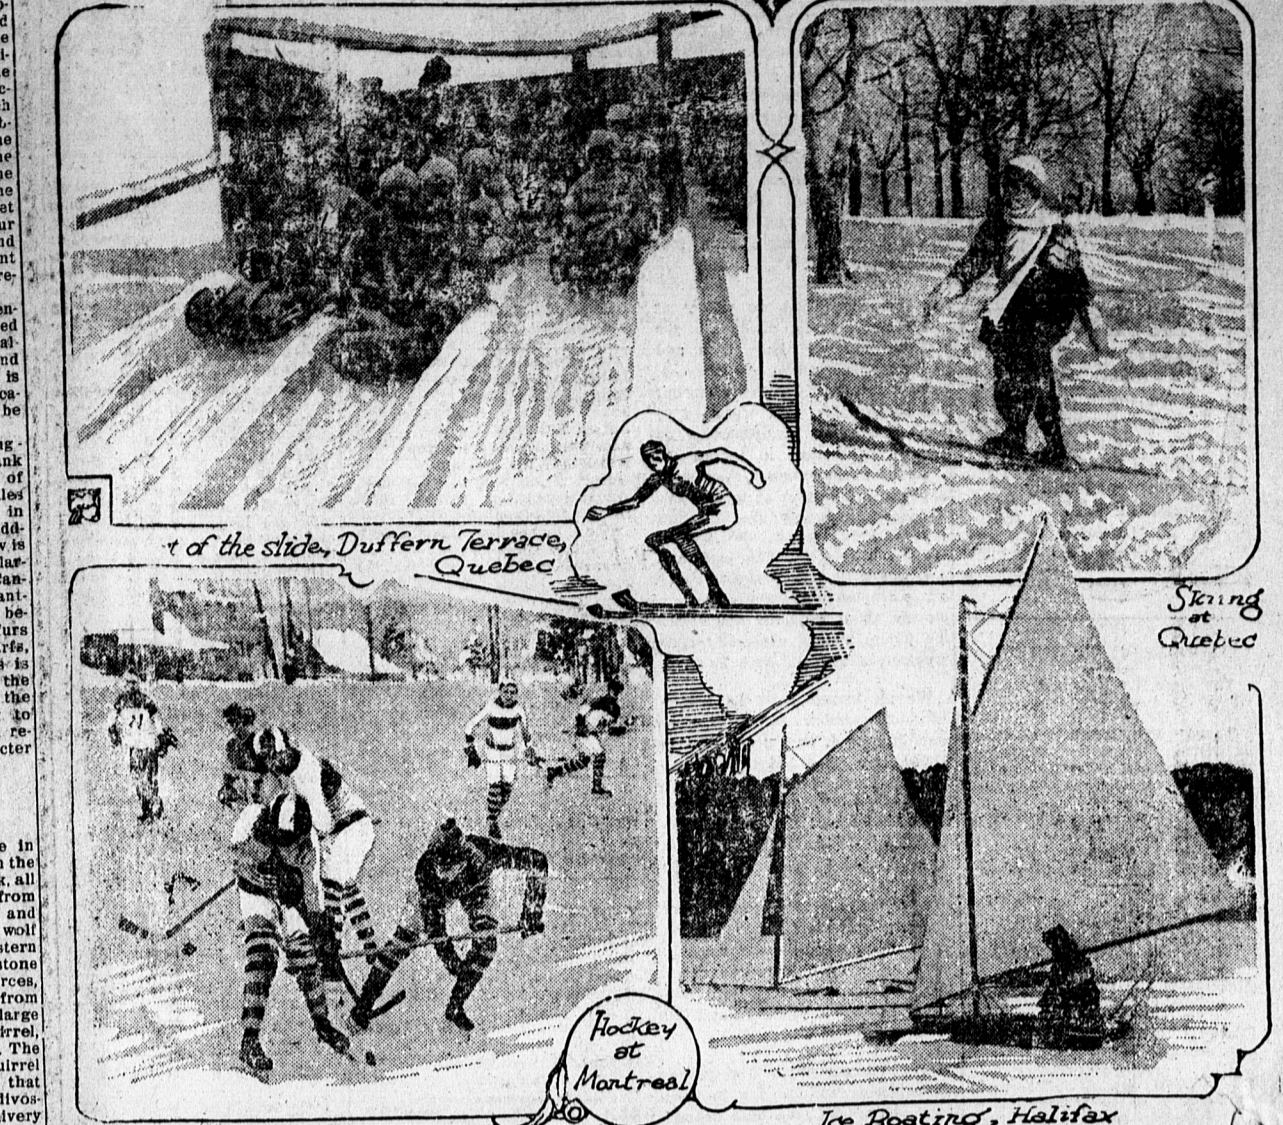

ON HISTORIC SPOT. The historic spot in the world war where the Germans surrendered on November 11, 1918, in the big forest near Compiegne, France, is marked by two weather-beaten posters, nailed against trees.

MONTEAL IS TO BE A GREAT YEAR FOR winter sports in Canada. During the war winter sports were neglected; there were other things called for the doing and since the war has ended the return to popularity of Canada's outdoor games has been rapid.

WHEN WINTER COMES TO CANADA

Montreal is also coming to the front as a centre of winter sports. The gentle slopes of Mount Royal are a natural playground for skiers, snowshoers and tobogganers, and like the rest of the Province, Quebec, Montreal is blessed with ideal winter climate, with perfect snow and bright sunshine, and not enough cold in the air to make winter uninteresting.
