Bruce Love, a native of this Province, in partnership with his brother is establishing a machine shop at Prince Rupert, B.C. Recently Bruce Stewart & Co., Ltd., city, received a wire from them to ship two "Imperial" engines from coast to coast, making a second order this season from that firm. The Loves are calling their machine shop after Bruce Stewart & Co's, Ltd., engine, The Imperial, and will handle this motor exclusively in Prince Rupert where there is a good field.

The first meeting of the Quarterly Official Board of the Pownal Circuit was held in the Pownal Church on Monday evening, the pastor, Rev. E. B. Styles, presiding. The inclusion estimate for ministerial support for the present year is $825. The income for the first quarter of the new year was regarded as satisfactory. When all the collectors shall have reported (three had not done so at the meeting) it is expected that the income will equal the liability. James Farquharson of Lunenburg was elected to attend the Financial District Meeting to be held at Souris on Aug. 29th. The Board adjourned to meet again on Thursday, Dec. 7th.

The people of Scotch Fort were shocked recently to learn of the sudden death of Joseph Macdonald. While at work in his field he stopped to speak to some men who were cutting grain but before he uttered two words he fell dead. Mr. Macdonald was one of the best known men in that section and highly respected by all who knew him on account of his hospitable and generous nature. His death occurred on Monday. Yesterday morning his remains were followed to their last resting place by the largest concourse of people and teams ever seen here. At the Mass of St. Bonaventure a High Mass of Requiem was sung by Rev. Father Smith of St. Dunstan's College. After mass all that was mortal of this honorable, upright man was interred in the cemetery close by. The pall-bearers were: John S. McDonald, Allan McDonald, A. J. Duggan, Tracadie Gross, John McKenzie, Scotch Fort; Mr. Feehan, Savage Harbor, and George McDonald, Charlottetown.

At the M. P. A. A. Championships this year which will be held at New Glasgow on the 30th, the following is the team from the Abegweit Club: J. P.
