MR. JOHN W. SNEGROVE—Many attended the funeral of John W. Snegrove this afternoon. The service was conducted in the chapel at Tuttle Brothers' funeral home by Rev. Dr. J. A. Ramsay, of St. John's United church. Assisting Dr. Ramsay were members of the choir of the church who sang the hymns "Abide With Me," and "Some Day We'll Understand." Numerous floral tributes testified as to the great esteem in which the late Mr. Snegrove was held. The pall-bearers were W. J. McNairn, Lawrence McNairn, Chalmers McNairn and Fraser McNairn, brothers-in-law, Aid. J. McNairn Speer and Henry Mitton. Following the service at the chapel interment was made in Elmwood cemetery.—Moncton Transcript.

Craswell - Clark Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Clark, Cavendish on the evening of Nov. 4th, when their daughter, Frances Adelaide, was united in marriage to Charles William Craswell of South Rustico.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Paterson, B.D. of Cavendish United Church in the presence of immediate relatives of both parties. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Wilbur Clark, of Summerside.

The bride, attired very becomingly in a Coronation Blue Crepe gown and carrying a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and pink roses was given in marriage by her father. The groom's gift to the bride was a white gold necklace set with gems.

A very sumptuous wedding supper was enjoyed by all and many good wishes expressed to the bride and groom.

IN MEMORIAM

MISS MacDONALD, R. N. The death of the Charlottetown Hospital on Sept. 21, 1936, of Miss Mae MacDonald, R.N., filled the hearts of her relatives, fellow nurses and many friends with loneliness and sorrow.

Born at Pisquid on May 22, 1911, she was the daughter of Ronald and the late Mrs. MacDonald. After receiving the rudiments of her education in her own district school she entered the Union Commercial College from where she carried off a well earned diploma. Prompted by her strong ambition and her zeal for humanity's good she entered the training school of the Charlottetown Hospital where she labored zealously for three years winning the love and esteem of her fellow workers and teachers, and above all the devotion and love of the sick and afflicted who were privileged to receive her kindly ministrations. Her greatness of character was reflected in the strict and timely discharge of her duties and her loyalty to her Alma Mater and to her associates.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go. The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

she continued the noble work of caring for the sick and her faithful loyal service was given with a willingness that was edifying to all. Her short life was filled with unwritten good deeds and the serenity with which she bore her last illness and met death told of peace within. We feel confident that on the shores of Eternity she has heard from the lips of her Maker and Judge the words of the motto of her training school, "Minimis Mihi". "To the least even unto Me," which were ever before her when carrying on the great work of her profession.

love, Will have its reward in My Home above. "For whatever you do to the least of Mine you do it unto Me." On Sept. 25th her requiem mass was chanted at St. Andrew's by Reverend George McOormac. In the Sanctuary were her devoted Pastor, Rev. A. P. McLellan, Rev. Dr. B. Gillis, Rev. Dr. W. V. MacDonald, and Rev. Fr. McCordie. The Sisters and nurses of the Charlottetown Hospital attended the funeral in a body, her six class mates acting as honorary pall bearers. The church was filled with lily, many of whom she nursed back to health. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. Geo. McOormac.
