JAMES E. McDonald, M. L. A. of Charlottetown, P. E. I. died in Boston, on Saturday morning. Prince Edward Islanders, and indeed, all who knew him, will deeply regret the death of Mr. McDonald, who was one of the most estimable gentlemen in the public and business life of the Island.—Sydney Post.

The marriage of George Aitken Irving, Seal River and Mrs. Lois MacQueen took place at Orwell Wednesday night the Rev. A. J. MacNeill officiating. The bride was dressed in a suit of brown broad cloth, hat and gloves to match. Miss Lizzie MacRae, niece of the bride was bridesmaid, dressed in blue nun's veiling, while Arthur Irving supported the groom. After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the bride's sister Mrs. A. M. McRae to supper then to Seal River their future home.

The Maritime Farmer in its introduction of a lengthy and excellent account of our Provincial Fair says:—A year ago it was our pleasure to attend the Provincial exhibition of our sister province under highly favorable conditions and we were able to report a measure of progress which must have been as highly gratifying to their people as it was to us. During the present season equally elaborate preparations have been made and there has been carried through a show which must rank as, in its way, by far the most successful ever held on the Island. In this we mean that the present was purely a provincial attempt, practically nothing being taken from the mainland. When this is remembered, those who passed down the lines of well filled pens and carefully arranged tables, will be only too willing to acknowledge that there is owing to Secretary Smallwood and his executive, a meed of praise which need not be stinted. They have good grounds and they have a management which seems capable of almost anything in the way of accomplishment. This year, however, they encountered the Fredericton exhibition on the same date. This was one blow so far as largeness of entry goes. It, however, need not have altered the case had it only been fatal that good weather should attend the show. On Thursday, as it was, a heavy downpour of rain set in about half-past ten in the morning and continued throughout the day so as to utterly ruin the prospects for attendance on that the best of the whole four days, and to induce a serious shrinkage in the receipts.

TYNE VALLEY AND VICINITY.—Miss R. B. Grant of the firm of J. W. Brown, Tyne Valley after attending the millinery openings in St. John spent a pleasant fortnight visiting friends in northern New Brunswick and returned to the Valley by Saturday night's express.—It is pleasing to report that the Principal of the Tyne Valley School Miss Marie Munroe has entirely recovered from her recent illness and on Monday last resumed the duties of her department. During her absence Miss McNeill of the primary department presided over both and it is pleasing to find that her increased duties has not in the least impaired her physical condition.—Hubert Phillips, Merchant Tailor, Tyne Valley, has purchased from the Managers of the Richmond Bay East Congregation (Presbyterian) the McIntosh homestead in the church reserving the dwelling house and five acres of land for a maone and globe. Mr. Phillips is to be congratulated on securing such a fine property in such a progressive settlement as Lot 14, so charmingly situated fronting on the Port Hill road and gradually sloping seaward towards the rising sun till it touches the limpid waters of Richmond Bay with its beautiful Island's nestling in its bosom presenting a view of fine scenery rarely to be enjoyed. The following members of Burns Division S of T at their last regular meeting were elected to the following offices.

An Absolute Necessity.
So I think At Least One Traveling Man.
I would as soon think of starting out without my mileage books and grip as to start out on a trip without a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in my valise, said a traveling man who represents a St. Louis hardware house. Why? Because I have to put up at all kinds of hotels and boarding houses. I have to eat good, bad and indifferent food; at all hours of the day and night and I don't believe any man's stomach will stand that sort of thing without protest, anyway I know mine won't. It has to have something to break the fall and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the crutch I fall back on.
My friends often "josh" me about it, tell me I'm an easy mark for patent medicine fakery, that advertised medicines are humbugs, etc., but I notice that they are nearly always complaining of their aches and pains and poor digestion, while I can stand most any old kind of fare and feel good and ready for my work when it needs me, and I believe I owe my good digestion and sound health to the daily, regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, year in and year out, and all the "joshing" in the world will never convince me to the contrary.
I used to have heartburn about three times a day and a headache about three or four times a week and after standing for this four or five years I began to look around for a crutch and found it when my doctor told me the best investment I could make would be a fifty cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I have invested about fifty cents a month for them ever since and when I stop to think that that is what I spend every day for cigars, I feel like shaking hands with myself for I can keep my stomach and digestion in first class order for fifty cents a month. I don't care for any better life insurance.
My druggist tells me they are the most popular of all stomach medicines and that they have maintained their popularity and success because they do as advertised. They bring results, and results are what count in patent medicine as much as in selling barbwire.
