WORLDINESS AND TRUST.

Matt. 6:19-34.

GOLDEN TEXT.

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Matt. 6:33 (A.V.).

POINTED SUGGESTIONS.

By Rev. D. W. Snider.

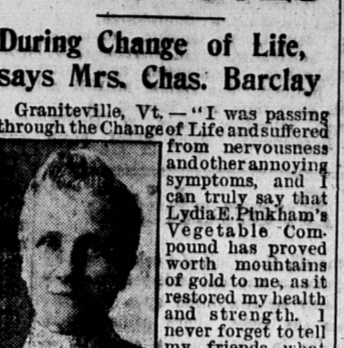

It is the heart which fashions the treasure. There is no treasure where there is no heart. When that sad thing is said of anyone, "His heart is broken," or "He has had the heart taken out of him," or "He has no heart for anything," it is known, at once, that such a person has no treasure. It has gone. What ever it was—money, or wife, or child or fame—it has gone, and his heart went with it. "Where your treasure is there will your heart be also," they go together.

The Lord's anxiety, therefore, for men is about their hearts. He sees and tells us that it is not well with us if they fasten to the perishable, or portable, or corrodent. When one is fretted by the necessity of caution, and worried because his caution may not avail to save his treasure from the destructive or corroding, or purloining reach of moth or rust, or thief, he has set his heart on the wrong thing in the wrong place. Only the heart, which is lifted to heavenly things, and which can find satisfaction in the investments which belong to, and are payable in, heaven, can rectify the colossal blunder. When the hands or the feet are to be used the eyes must give direction if the axeman has good eyesight, and it is definitely intent upon his job, each stroke will be landed as accurately as though every muscle of his swaying body and swinging arms and clasping fingers were an eye. His whole body is full of light. In like manner the pure and unmixt motive—the heart's right and holy intention—clarifies the judgment and brings the whole of the activities of

WORTHY MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the perilous change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

the life into the revealing light of God's testimonies.

Two masters, which represent divided authority, cannot both be obeyed and served. No one ever heard of a man being the slave of two masters, at the same time. And it must be the disciple of the lesser, when the disciple of the greater, that the relation which Lord is that of the father to His son. He has placed no storehouse and no "pletest" subjection to His will, or His service is not received." My son, give me thine heart." He will have all or He will have nothing.

A great mistake is made when it is supposed that God does not care for the needs and comforts of our bodies, and the way of mammon is the way of supply. That is a denial of Providence. That is the manufacture of the case out of God's hands.

But God does care and provide for the bodily wants of men. The evidence of it is a thousand-fold. The evidence is on every hand. Look where you will. Go no farther than the lawn, where "ilka blade o' grass keeps its ane drop o' dew," or the sight of the birds which fly above it and sing their joy and freedom that all may hear. Can it be possible that God has provided for their growth and raiment and food and perennial beauty and happiness, and that for women no storehouse and no "pletest" subjection to His will, or His service is not received." My son, give me thine heart." He will have all or He will have nothing.

Had Given Up All Hope of Living.

Heart Trouble Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

Mrs. Andrew Savoy, Grafton, N.B., writes:—"In the year 1905, I was taken sick and did not think I could live any length of time. My trouble was with my heart and people told me that nothing could be done for a case like mine. I consulted the very best doctors, but they could do me no good. For seven weeks I could hardly cross the floor. I had no sleep and was as weak as nobody in the world can believe how I felt. I had given up all hopes of living and had given my little girl to my sister-in-law.

"One day a friend came to see me, and calling me by name, said, 'Lizzie, if I were you I would try a dose of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills as they are good for heart trouble.' My husband got me a box, but for two days I was not feeling any better, but on the fourth day my husband said, 'I believe those pills are doing you good.' I was able to say, 'Yes, I feel a good deal better this morning.' He said, 'Well, I will get you another box right away.' I took two boxes and three doses out of the third one, and I was perfectly well and have not been sick since then.

"I will never be without them in my home for God knows if it had not been for Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I would not have been alive now."

Price, 50 cents per box, 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
