TRINITY UNITED CHURCH SUMMERSIDE

The annual meeting of the Trinity United Church Summerside was held in Epworth Hall on Wednesday evening and was presided over by the chairman, Rev. K. G. Sullivan, who gave a detailed outline of the various activities of the past year. He mentioned in particular the fact that the church offerings this year were greater than during any in the church history. Also the Missionary Maintenance Fund was higher than any previous year. Rev. Sullivan complimented the various church organizations for the excellent work they had accomplished.

The following reports were submitted by the various chairmen: Sunday School, Mrs. Albany Palmer.

Session Report, L. R. Allen. Afternoon Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society, Mrs. Arthur Allen.

Evening Auxiliary by Miss Mary Geldhart. Ladies Social Club, Mrs. R. L. Mollison.

Women's Association by Mrs. Samuel Beaton. Junior C.G.I.T. by Doris Heckbert.

Senior C.G.I.T. by Betty Sharpe. Trail Rangers by Louis Bezeal. Explorers by Rev. K. G. Sullivan on behalf of Ronnie Leonard.

Mr. and Mrs. Club by Mr. Jock Hopkirk. Trustee Report, Wm. Strong. Building Fund by Mr. Wm. Hayward.

Madam by Ann Phillipson. Board of Stewards by Major T. H. Timms.

The following new members were appointed to the Board of Stewards for three years: Kaye Hansen, Keir Duzgan, Jock Hopkirk, Beecher Best, Emor Bowness, Allen Jenkins. And for one year, Mr. Frank Gerbnie.

After the regular business meeting a highly enjoyable program was presented consisting of a piano and vocal solo by Mrs. A. S. MacKay. Three films were shown by Mr. A. G. Rogers through the courtesy of the W. Men's Club after which refreshments were served.

Alberton Notes

Mr. Ralph T. Larkin spent the weekend with his family. Miss Gladys Hayes, Charlottetown, is visiting her home for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Matthews entertained a number of friends at a dancing party Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. John Oliver, Messrs. Vernon and Frank Matthews motored to Summerside on Thursday.

Mrs. W. C. Lawson entertained at a prettily arranged tea Thursday afternoon. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. L. B. Leard.

Messrs. Herbert Matthews, Winston Currie, John Moran and John Bonnyman have been nominated as councillors. The election will take place in February.

Mr. Herbert Matthews motored to Charlottetown Tuesday and was accompanied home by his wife, who was a patient in the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

The Thursday night dancing party in the Institute Hall, under the auspices of the Badminton Club, was very enjoyable, although a small crowd attended.

Mrs. Fred North of Miami, Florida, Miss Petrona Fitzgerald and Miss Eva Fitzgerald of Charlottetown, arrived home on Friday evening to attend the funeral of their brother, Mr. John Fitzgerald, who passed away suddenly at his home in Montreal.

Mr. James Pike received the sad news Tuesday that his mother, Mrs. Fudge, had passed away. Mr. Pike left for New Brunswick by plane to be present at the funeral. It will be remembered that Mrs. Fudge visited her son last summer and made many new friends while here.

Tignish

Mr. Patrick Hogan, Christopher's Cross, was a business visitor to Summerside on last Saturday.

Miss Mary Gillis, teacher at Kildare South, spent the past week-end in Tignish, the guest of the Misses Kathleen, Clare and Doreen MacDonald.

Mrs. Donald Davies and son Leonard of Summerside, spent the past week-end in Tignish, the guests of Mrs. Davies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Burke.

Mr. Frank Ready returned to his home in Christopher's Cross last week after a pleasant month's visit with relatives and friends in Massachusetts and Connecticut.

Mr. Peter Perry, Sea Cow Pond, a patient in City Hospital, Charlottetown, is responding to medical treatment and his friends will be pleased to know he will soon be returning home.

Friends are happy to report that Mrs. John R. Gavin of Tignish is improving in health as she receives treatment in the City Hospital, Charlottetown. Mrs. Gavin was a patient at Western Hospital for two weeks before being transferred to Charlottetown.

The second game in the Auction Forty-Five tournament, sponsored by the Tignish Catholic Women's League was held on Wednesday evening, December 12th, in the Legion Home. Winner at cards Gavin was Mr. P. A. Burke and Arnold prize. On the evening of January 5th Mr. John M. Handrahan won the card prize with Mrs. Lester McAlduff receiving the door prize. Refreshments were served each evening, with three more evenings to play in the tournament.

On Wednesday morning, January 12th, the funeral of Mr. Vital Myers was held from his late home at Tignish Village to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, Tignish, where his pastor, Rev. J. A. MacDonald, celebrated a Requiem Mass at nine-thirty. Services at the grave were conducted by Rev. L. B. Dooley. Mr. Myers leaves to mourn, his widow, five sons and two daughters, to whom we offer our sincere sympathy.

The funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Arsenault was held on Tuesday morning, January 11th, from her late residence in Tignish Village to the Church of St. Simon and St. Jude, where a Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. John A. MacDonald, P.P., assisted by the parish choir. Burial was in the cemetery and services at the grave were conducted by Rev. L. B. Dooley. The pallbearers were Messrs. George A. Donicetto, J. McTague, Edward Gaudette, and Peter J. Burke. Mrs. Arsenault's husband predeceased her by a brother, Mr. Edward Clohesiers, Skinner's Pond, Tignish Village and Mrs. William Gaudette, Pleasant View. To the relatives, the sympathy of the community goes out to them in their sorrow.

Augustine Cove

Mrs. Myrtle Peters spent a few days in Charlottetown, the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Johnnie Peters.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Widman are pleased to see her out again after being confined to her home with a cold.

Mrs. Edward MacFadyen has returned home after spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Raymond Hambl, Charlottetown.

On Saturday, Jan. 15th the members of the W.I. assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fidele Peters to offer their congratulations and good wishes to them on their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Although all had assembled, they called on Mr. Donald MacDonald, who made a few brief remarks complimentary to the "guests of honor" and expressed the hope that all might enjoy their hospitality in the future as each one present had done in the past. The Institute members then presented them with a sum of money and a beautifully decorated cake made by Mrs. Elmer Dawson. Mr. Peters graciously thanked the members and thoughtfulness, after which they joined in singing "For They Are Truly Good Fellows." They all departed for home hoping to meet again soon and spend an enjoyable evening as Jan.
