TWENTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Craswell was the scene of a jolly occasion on the evening of January 12th when upwards of eighty friends gathered for the purpose of extending congratulations on their twentieth wedding anniversary. Everyone was called to order by Mr. Earl MacInnis who in his usual capable and witty manner expressed the purpose of the gathering and then called upon Mr. Harold Cudmore who read a very appropriate address as Mr. Albert Younker presented the "bride and groom" with a lovely arm chair. Although taken by surprise Mr. Craswell, on behalf of his wife, thanked the people for their thoughtfulness and invited all to visit them at any time. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess assisted by the ladies present, and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing and social intercourse. Music was furnished by Miss Margaret Craswell and Mr. Walter McClure. At a late hour all departed to their homes after wishing Claude and Ada many more years of happy wedded life.

MacPHEE-BEATON.—A pretty afternoon wedding took place at the bride's home on Saturday, Feb. 17, 1939 when Missa Elanor only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Beaton of Bonshaw was united in marriage with Daniel Louis, older son of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. MacPhee of Clyde River. Rev. D. J. Morrison was the officiating clergyman, and about twenty-five immediate relatives were present to witness the ceremony. The bride was prettily gowned in a dress of Queen Blue and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers. She was graciously attended by a sister of the groom, Miss Florence, who wore a dress of crimson Rose while Mr. Charles Darrach, cousin of the bride done the honors of groomsmen. The living room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells and a background of potted plants. As the bride entered on the arm of her father, the Wedding March was played by Mrs. Hugh MacKenzie the bride's aunt. After the ceremony the usual good wishes were extended and a delicious supper was partaken of. In the evening the customary crowd of neighbors and friends gathered to charivare the newly married couple and after bouncing the groom and two fathers-in-law all received a generous treat and with the singing of "For They're A Jolly Good Couple" and three cheers all departed quietly. The gifts received were many and beautiful, showing the young couple are held by their many friends. The groom's gift to his bride was a gold locket and to the bride a gold penknife while the bridesmaid received a silver compact. Prior to her marriage the bride was tendered a miscellaneous shower and also presented with a beautiful tablecloth from the Lady Arville L.O.B.A. of which she is a member. The young couple will reside at Clyde River P. E. I. where the groom is associated with his father in the quartette business.
