As China's Communists accepted- ing Chiang Kai-shek's invitation to a "peace conference" in Chungking, their troops were reported to have entered Kweisui, whose capture the Chungking government claimed. Reds' war communiques also said they had seized the Weihaiwei naval base on Shantung peninsula, the big rice port of Wuhu and the city of Luhu.

MACDONALD - MACDONALD

An event of interest to their many friends in Eastern Kings P. E. I. took place in Montreal, July 14th, when Mary D., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus O. MacDonald, and Daniel A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel E. MacDonald, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony.

The ceremony took place in St. Anthony's Church, the officiating priest being Rev. Norbert Bradley, S.J., assisted by Rev. Hugh L. MacPhee, S.J. The bride, given in marriage by Emile Tardif, was attired in a white floor length sheer dress with satin trimmed ruffle and matching posettes. Her shoulder length bridal veil surmounted a halo effect headdress. She carried a shower bouquet of red roses and maiden halm fern, and was attended by her cousin, Miss Florence MacPherson who also wore a white floor length sheer dress with blue accessories, and carried a bouquet of tulleman roses.

The groom was attended by Mr. Clarence Landry. Immediately after the ceremony breakfast was served in Preston dining hall to about twenty invited guests. The table was tastefully decorated with summer flowers and tall wax tapers and centered with a beautiful three tier wedding cake. The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Rev. Hugh L. MacPhee, to which the groom replied. Speeches expressing sentiments suitable to the occasion were made by Rev. F. Bradley and Chas. Morrison. A few hours of music and dancing followed.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald spent their honeymoon on Prince Edward Island where on the evening of their arrival they motored to the home of the bride's parents, at which a large number of relatives and friends gathered to welcome the happy couple.

The evening was very pleasantly spent in dining and dancing, and at a late hour the guests departed after wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald many years of happy wedded life. The groom's gift to the bride was a gold cross and chain; to the bridesmaid an embossed compact, and to the groomsmen a toolled leather billfold.

Previous to their marriage the bride was tendered a shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Austin MacPhee, West Broadway. She received many useful and beautiful gifts. They were also waited on by their fellow employees, the bride of the Northern Electric Co., being presented with a set of travelling bags, and the groom of the Canada Car and Foundry, with a chest of Rogers silverware.

After their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald returned to Montreal where they will reside. (Patriot please copy)

MacPHEE - MacSWEEN WEDDING

One of the season's prettiest weddings and one of wide interest throughout the Maritimes, was solemnized Wednesday, July 4, 1945, at 2 P.M. in the United Church Mansie, Cornwall, P. E. I., where Emily Alexina, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch MacSween, Brookfield, P.E.I., became the bride of Pte. Parker MacPhee, son of Mr. and Mrs. William MacPhee, New Haven, P. E. I.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. R. Skinner. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a two-piece crepe dress of aqua blue embroidered front and flower hat, silver fox fur cape and black accessories, was attended by her sister-in-law, Pte. Etta MacSween, who was dressed in uniform. The groom was attended by Pte. Ian MacSween, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony the happy young couple left by motor on a short trip to the Maritimes. For travelling the bride wore a printed silk jersey dress, with gold colored tweed coat and brown accessories. On their arrival home they will take up residence in New Haven, P. E. I., where the groom is a prosperous young farmer.

On Wednesday evening following, July 11th, Mr. and Mrs. MacPhee were given a miscellaneous shower at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murdoch MacSween. The living room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers centered with white bells. The bride in a two-piece dress crepe dress was escorted to a decorated chair by Miss Anna Mathewson and the groom by Mr. Lloyd Cruys. A nicely decorated basket full of gifts was then carried to the room. The gifts were opened by Misses Ada Cruys and Dorothy Moore, and the humorous verses were read by Misses Helen MacLeod and Anna Mathewson and arranged on the table by Miss Jean Martin. The large number of beautiful and useful gifts testified to the popularity of the young couple. con-
