STOCK QUOTATIONS

Stock Markets

At A Glance

CHICAGO, Aug. 9 — (AP) — Grain futures were easier in today's trading, reacting fractionally to Russia's entry into the war with Japan and to favorable weather conditions.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9 — (CP) — War developments sent rye futures prices down on the Winnipeg Grain Exchange today in early trading, but in a dull market values recovered from the low points.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9 — (AP) — Wall street interpreted Russia's entry into the war with Japan as bullish for the stock market. Prices rose to more than 4 points higher, about half the sharp gains tacked on in a last minute rally.

Steel and Motors led the advance but sizable plus signs also were added to rails, rubbers, utilities, metals, aircrafts and specialties. Volume picked up totalling 1,400,000 shares against 1,000,000 yesterday and was the heaviest in more than three weeks.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite rose 1.3 points to 65.3.

MONTREAL, Aug. 9 — (CP) — Stock Exchange and Curb Market trading today reflected sentiments that prevailed on the effect of Russia's entry into the Pacific war. Market analysts expressed the opinion that, while the conflict would be shortened, reconversion problems, which make for a decline in prices, would not have to be faced immediately. After a cautious early phase in transactions key issues worked toward higher levels on the strength of this view.

TORONTO, Aug. 9 — (CP) — Chief interest in the trade today on the Toronto Stock Exchange rested in International Uranium and it moved up and down over a wide range. The market as a whole was mildly heavy in the closing period, showing small in-creases for both mining groups and the Western Oil.

Uranium climbed to 3.55, sold back to 2.70 and after moving up to 3.20 settled back to close at 2.80, off 25 cents net. It traded 250,000 shares. Bear Exploration, holding a large block of Uranium shares, again had a large sale, reaching a high mark of 1.90 and closed at 1.75, down 9 cents net.

Mrs. K. L. Dawson Appointed Regional Director of Clothing

MONTREAL, Que., Aug. 9 — Appointment of Mrs. Kenneth L. Dawson, of Halifax, as regional director in the Maritimes for the national clothing collection was announced today by William M. Birks, national chairman. Her territory includes New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island. Organization in the three provinces for the clothing collection scheduled from October 1 to 20 has already been started by Mrs. Dawson, Mr. Birks said. Canadians will be asked to give all serviceable used clothing they can spare without replacement. The clothing will go to war-ravaged Allied countries where distribution will be made free to war victims by UNRRA (United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration). National clothing collection is sponsored by the Canadian United Allied Relief Fund on behalf of UNRRA. Native of Wolfville, N.S., Mrs. Dawson is an arts graduate of Mount Allison University, Sackville. She studied subsequently at Mount Allison Conservatory of music where she won both teacher's and soloist's diplomas in vocal music. She took business and secretarial studies at Mount Allison Academy where she was awarded a diploma. The former Miss Vega Gronlund, daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Oskar Gronlund of Saint John, N.B., and Wolfville, she resided with her parents during her childhood and youth successively at Kamloops, B.C., Calgary, Alta., and Toronto, Ont. Mrs. Dawson is a former Nova Scotia Provincial President of the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, and is now on the national executive of that body, being National Convener of the Ex-Service Personnel Committee. She is a former president of the Nova Scotia Branch, University Women's Club, a member of the Canadian Women's Press Club, and presently secretary of the Nova Scotia Tuberculosis Commission. For the past five years she has been chairman of the Consumer Branch, Wartime Prices and Trade Board, for the Province of Nova Scotia.

When Pierre Laval, testifying in the trial of Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, protested that he was not a Nazi and that he "loved the Republic," the courtroom rocked with laughter. Petain, at right, listens intently to testimony in which Laval admitted he had said, "I desire a German victory," but insisted the statement was made to mislead the Nazis into believing he was on their side. Jurors jeered openly at Laval when he said, "I hate war. I loathe war. War doesn't pay, even when you are victorious."

Here is a study of the swift aging of a man marked by the world as traitor to his country. At top is Pierre Laval, Nazi collaborator and Vichy emissary to Hitler, as he looked about the time of France's fall. Lower picture was made at Paris after his flight from Spain and surrender to the Allies in Austria.

Pierre Laval and his wife arrive at Le Bourget Field, near Paris, after flight from Innsbruck, Austria. The former Vichy government leader looks haggard, his face showing strain of flight which landed him in Spain. He was immediately taken to Fresnes Prison.
