Wiseman Second

(C. P. by Guardian's special Wire) MONTREAL, Jan. 30—One big reason why Toronto Maple Leafs are doing better in the National Hockey League now than they were earlier in the season seems to be that Moncton's Gordie Drillon is off the injury list and back on the ice scoring goals...

Drillon and Syl Apps between them have been accounting for a good proportion of Leafs' goals of late with the result Apps is right up knocking at the door of the N. H. L. scoring leadership...

Drillon has already jumped to the top of the Maritime players further back but both came up from the Int-Am League after the season was well underway.

The six ton figure in reached a new high. Each player plays two "rocks" each weighing between 40 and 45 pounds. He plays them for 12-ends which bring the total number of pounds played to around 1,000...

But wait that isn't all. The sweeping—it's a vital factor in the game—done by each member of each rink had the deliberators puzzled but the masculine viewpoint was that it would be equal to about the daily rounds of a diligent and dutiful wife in a ten room house...

Despite all that has been said to the contrary anyone who had curled will say that it is an ancient sport, a coming sport and a grand game. It has everything. Timing, judgement, accuracy and above all true sportsmanship.

Another former Hawk, Sammy McManus of Hershey Bears, and Crossley Sherwood, who used to play in Saint John and now plays for Providence Reds, are tied for third spot in the standings...

A point behind come Jackie Keating of Saint John and the Reds, who is in turn a single point ahead of his teammate Ron Hudson, former Halifax Wolverines.

Primroses Lead In Midget Loop

Spotting their opponents three goals in the first half of the first period Midget Primroses surged back with a four goal outburst of their own before the game was completed to defeat the Canadiens 4-3 in the third game of the best out of five series...

The elongated Moncton south-paw scored a split decision. Two judges voted for him while the third was for McLellan after Hart opened a rash by air so far. Bill Stewart, sacked as Chicago manager, might have tried a return engagement in his old N. H. L. spot of referee but his doc told him to take a rest to be in shape for umpiring in the National Baseball League.

Bill Daley, manager of Pat Comiskey, the Irish heavyweight from Jersey, says he has had offers of $10,000 for a half interest in Pat. Daley intends to keep Pat for himself. Meaning as Pat's fame grows so does his fan mail, Larry MacPhail, Brooklyn Dodgers' master-mind, figures his boys to enter the world series this year. A few years back Robert Moses Grov jokingly said Boston Red Sox could sign him with no trouble if he could spend one week a year at owner Tom Yawkey's hunting preserve. Yawkey apparently took him at his word. He was while enjoying some hunting at Yawkey's spot that Grov agreed to sign his 1939 papers.

Roger Jenkins, New York Americans' defenceman, got his first assignment in about six games from Red Dutton last night but it was nothing to chortle about. Red only sent Roger in to sit out Neil Stewart's penalty. Jenkins managed one swipe at the bench before he went back to bench warming. Lil Al Murray, his in-laws' alibi, mending well, spikes any reports he'll be back in action this hockey season.

Madison Square Garden will be some dog house come Feb. 13 when the Westmaster Kennel Club show opens. There will be 3,071 pooches and the bench. The old saw about nobody loving an umpire is all wrong. Bill Klein, dear old National League umpire, will be honored with a plaque by baseball writers here next Saturday. Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yankees also sets one for leading his club to three successive world series championships.

Maj. W. A. Smith led the fifteen at the No. 6 Disc. Signaller's shoot, with the high score of 98, closely followed by A. D. McMasers with a 97. Next in order were: A. V. Spillet 96, E. E. Burke 96, D. E. Mayne 96, A. A. Pickard 96, C. D. Ives 92, W. H. Kelly 91, G. A. Mayne 90, C. R. Saunders 87, G. A. Gray 86, G. J. Godfrey 84, H. Jones 84, B. Rogers Jr. 83, R. T. Holman 78, T. S. Edgett 76, W. B. White 76.

Scores for four goals before receiving a reply from their opponents Montague Electric last Monday night defeated the Murray Harbor Silver Wings 4-1 in a times a ragged game of hockey played in the Montague rink.

Two goals by McKenna and one each by Landry and Martin gave the winners their big margin and McLellan in the Montague nets was robbed of his shutout in the first period as Hyde of the Wings fired a sizzling drive into the cords on a penalty shot effort.

Cooper, Silver Wings star goalie turned in an outstanding effort in the nets as he turned aside drives from all angles to hold his opponents to the shut past him.

HALIFAX, Jan. 30—Halifax Canadiens went into a first place tie with New Glasgow in the Nova Scotia Hockey League by a 5-1 victory over Truro Bears here tonight.

S. scored a two-round knockout victory over K'd Savole of Quebec City, who is now fighting out of Moncton.
