FIENDISH ACT OF CRASED TEACHER

MELILLIAUSEN, Sept. 5—A crazed teacher named Wahner murdered his wife and four children and then set the village on fire in four places. In a fusillade on the villagers who tried to capture him, eight persons were killed and ten wounded. He was clubbed and stabbed with pitch forks and will likely die.

ANOTHER OUTBREAK FEARED

NANAIMO, Sept. 5—Nine of the 24 men from the extension charged with the destruction of property in recent strike riots were committed to trial by Magistrate Simpson yesterday. Blood curdling tales by witnesses told of men women and children driven from their homes and their places burned and they themselves shot at by the mob. Strike matters are quiet now but another and worse outbreak is feared.
