THE STORY OF MORNING TIREDNESS.

Is told by impure blood, poor digestion, sluggish liver and tired nerves. It is a warning of very serious trouble ahead, and should prompt sensible people to take a bracing tonic like Ferrozone, an energetic invigorant and restorer. Ferrozone will give you a sharp appetite, promote good digestion and sound sleep; it will feed and energize the enfeebled organs, strengthen the nerve and vital forces and regulate the heart. Ferrozone changes that tired feeling into vigor, strength and ambition, and does it quickly. Remember the name, and insist on having only Ferrozone; it's the best tonic made. Price 50c. per box, or 6 boxes for $2.50, at Druggists, or N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont.

HAMILTON'S PILLS CURE CONSTIPATION.

THE recent hockey match played by the Abegweits and Victorias has been protested by the former on the ground that the game was not played the full length of time specified in the league arrangements. It is probable the matter will be discussed at a meeting of the league clubs tomorrow night at the Davie.

THE Guardian has received one of the handsomest wall calendars of the season from Baird and Peters, the popular proprietors of Vim Tea which is blended and packed by them. This well and favorably known firm is represented by Desse E. Brown who is touring the Island with his usual success at the present time. Vim Tea is only a little over fifteen months old, but already has established itself as the favorite blend with many of the residents of the Province as well as throughout Canada.

PRINCE EDWARD Island people will be pleased to learn of the success of John McRae, a native of Summerside in Everett, Washington Territory. Last week Mr. McRae was elected as alderman for the town. He has already filled several important official positions in his adopted home. Everett is a modern town, the first private residence being erected by Mr. McRae twelve years ago. In the short period of twelve years the town has grown until it has a population of 30,000. Mr. McRae is a brother-in-law of R. P. Morrison, Esq., of the Sydney Manufacturing Co.—Sydney Post.

A FIFTY-FOOT CALENDAR.—N. W. Ayer & Son, the Philadelphia advertising agents, who have a national reputation for "keeping everlastingly at it," believe in sticking to a good thing when they have one. For instance, their calendar for 1903 follows the design used for several years past, but with new coloring. And in truth it would be hard to improve upon their design; the dates are plainly readable at fifty feet, yet the calendar is not unpleasantly conspicuous; it is artistic, simple and useful and it is not surprising that it has become so popular an adjunct to business offices that the supply never equals the demand. While they last, one will be mailed to any address for 25 cents, which barely covers cost and postage.

HALIFAX Chronicle: Some time ago a private of the Royal Canadians was keeping company with a girl employed at one of the hotels. After the regiment disbanded they had a falling out and the girl left her position and went to Boston. She returned unexpectedly on Thursday night and visited her sister who is employed with a family on Morris street. When she entered the house she was surprised to find her former soldier lover seated in the kitchen with her sister. A lively scene followed, the young girl from Boston making it so warm for the man that he has taken legal proceedings against her.

ON the evening of the 14th inst the manse at Orwell was the scene of an interesting event when Roderick MacPherson of Montague and Miss Christina Mac Donald of Dundee were united in marriage by Rev. A. J. MacNeill, Miss Ray McPherson of Whim Road acted as bridesmaid while the groom was supported by Duncan McDonald of Dundee. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the home of the bride's father—Malcolm Mac Donald—where a rich collation was served, after which they repaired to their new home in Montague followed by the best wishes of their many friends. The bride was the recipient of many valuable presents, conspicuous among these was one from Messrs. Poole & Thompson, Montague, for whom the groom is a most popular and efficient salesman.

By the death of James Easton, Georgetown loses one of its oldest and most respected citizens. Mr. Easton had been in ill health for some time, gradually growing weaker until towards the end of December when he became confined to his bed. From the beginning of the year he slowly sank until Saturday afternoon at half past four when he entered into rest. Mr. Easton has been for many years lay reader in the Church of England of which he was the chief bulwark and which suffers an irreparable loss in his demise. Mr. Easton was for years Trustee of the Glebe Day School in connection with St. Alban's Church, and until recently senior partner in the firm of James Easton & Son. He leaves a widow, daughter of the late William Sanderson, Mr. William S. Easton and two daughters at home. Mr. Easton was an upright man of sterling qualities, whose place in the community it will be difficult to fill.

Signed in behalf of Lodge.

Bradbane, Jan. 15, 1903.

THE members of St. Marks Guild, Kensington, repeated their splendid spectacular entertainment in Irishtown Hall on Friday night to a large audience. The different numbers were staged in a manner worthy of performers that boast of a more extensive reputation. Well pleased was the audience with the program: Gramophone Selections—H. A. Leslie. Introductory Remarks—Rev. J. A. Winfield.

Tableau (2 scenes)—A Swell Affair. Recitation—Miss Lottie Sims. Tableau—The Seasons, (a) Spring, (b) Summer, (c) Autumn, (d) Winter. Tableau, (2 scenes)—Huldy and Zekel. Tableau (2 scenes)—"Love looks not with Blind Eyes".

Recitation—Miss Maggie Walker. Tableau (2 scenes)—"Courtship". Tableau (2 scenes)—"Matrimony". Tableau—"The Warrior's Death". Tableau (2 scenes)—"The Jubilee of Peace" by Rev. J. A. Winfield, God Save the King.

The intervals caused by change of scenery were enlivened by gramophone selections by H. A. Leslie who both touched the springs of laughter and the source of tears. Rev. J. A. Winfield in his opening remarks, explained in eloquent terms the origin, operations, and object of the Guild, and won the sympathy of those present in the good work. He is to be highly commended for the excellent work he is performing through the instrumentality of the Guild, and Miss Laura Walker is to be congratulated on the excellent manner in which she managed the entertainment. But the managers of the Irishtown hall would do well to take such measures as would so control the actions of several premature men (?) who frequent their hall, that civilized beings would not be forced to witness actions and hear language, excusable only in savages.
