WHEN NEWS IS NEWS — Esteemed correspondents are reminded that a daily newspaper is not a book of history, and are requested to send in news for publication within at least a week of their happening. The Guardian has unfortunately had to turn down recently several reports especially obituary notices, which have reached us long after the event occurred. "News while it is news" is the slogan.—M.

ACADIA SENDS DELEGATION —Delegates from Acadia University to the National Conference of Canadian University Students to be held in Winnipeg December 27-31 were announced Sunday after final appointments to the delegation had been made. Acadia's representatives will be John Kinley, Fox Hillford, Guysborough county; Charles Hilsley, Somerset, Kings county; Elizabeth Orchard, Yarmouth; Eileen Kinley, Wolfville; James Davison, Moncton, N. B.; Max DeWolfe, Andover, N. B.; Jack Murdoch, Charlottetown, P. E. I., and Gideon Corey, Butter-nut Ridge, N. B.

FAREWELL PARTY — A very enjoyable party was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thomson, Great George St. on Saturday, December 4th, the guest of the evening being Mr. Ernst Leibmann of Denmark, who is returning home Friday, December 20th to spend Christmas with his family. Bridge and supper were enjoyed by all present. Prizes for bridge were: Ladies' prize won by Mrs. R. McLaine. Gents' prize won by Mr. Carl Dinkl. Consolation prize won by Mr. R. Bladt. Mr. E. Leibmann came to Prince Edward Island nine years ago, and was employed by McLure and McKinnon Fox Ranch. All his friends join in wishing him a pleasant trip. Mr. Leibmann received a number of useful presents from his Danish friends in the city.

CREDIT UNION MEETING — A very pleasant meeting was enjoyed by a large audience at Rustloo Hall on the evening of November 30th. Mr. Andrew Gallant acted as Chairman. The principal speakers were Professor Blanchard, Dr. Croteau and Mr. Chandler. Professor Blanchard briefly outlined the history of Rustloo Parish. Dr. Croteau then explained and pointed out the benefits of the Credit Union, setting forth as examples the Holy Redeemer Parish, Mount Stewart and North Rustloo. Mr. Chandler spoke on the value of a good library and emphasized the necessity of reading good books as a great means of improving our minds. Reverend Father Pitre stated that a very enthusiastic interest in Adult Education was noticeable in the parish and that the courage and determination of the early pioneers were still evident. Other speakers expressed their appreciation of the addresses given by the three visiting gentlemen, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to them after which the entire audience sang "God Save the King."
