PRINCETOWN ROAD W. M. S.

The Princetown Road W. M. S. held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Kent. The vice president, Mrs. E. Kent had charge of the meeting which opened with hymn, "O Word of God Incarnate." The theme was "Being the Bible for all the world." Psalm 119 was read responsively followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison and reading by Mrs. Frank Crabbe, "Great is the Company." Hymn, "Break thou the Bread of Life" closed the devotional period. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and roll was answered by ten members and one visitor. Some discussion took place on packing a box for Labrador, but was left until next meeting. Mrs. Frank Crabb kindly invited the members for the next meeting, roll to be answered by a verse of Scripture containing the word "Saviour." The collection amounted to 65c. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction. A dainty lunch was then served by the hostess.

SIGN-OFFS

There is widespread misconception of the meaning and proper use of the term "sign-off" in bridge North in today's deal was one of the many players who go wrong in this field.

North dealer.
East-West vulnerable.

	♠ K 10 ♥ A K 8 7 5 ♦ J 5 4 ♣ 8 3 2
♠ Q 8 7 4 ♥ J 6 ♦ K 9 6 ♣ 3 2 ♣ K 5	N W E S	♠ A 5 3 2 ♥ Q 10 4 ♦ Q 10 ♣ Q J 7 4
	♠ J 9 6 ♥ 9 3 2 ♦ A 8 7 ♣ A 10 9 6

The bidding:

North	East	South	West
1 ♥	Pass	1 N T	Pass
2 ♥ (!)	Pass	2 N T	Pass
Pass	Pass

West opened his fourth-highest diamond, and though declarer played the hand to the best advantage, he could not help going down a trick.

North was loud in his denunciation of South for not observing the "two-heart "sign-off." Ignoring the fact that two hearts would not have been any easier to make than two notrump, North voiced the opinion that the bidding South had done, first one notrump, then two notrump, was illogical, and an evidence of the desire to "take charge."

Actually, there was not a grain of truth or logic in the position North took, and it was he, not South, who should take lessons in bidding! The one-heart opening was irreducibly light, and since North did not have a void or a singleton in his hand, there was no earthly reason or excuse for rebidding in the face of South's one-notrump response.

The fact was that when North did rebid, South had every right to visualize a substantially stronger North hand, and since South's first response of one notrump, though the best bid available at that time, left some values unexpressed, South was perfectly correct in bidding again, and his choice of two notrump was beyond criticism. North's rebid was not a sign off, it was another bid, and even if North did intend it as a sign-off, what right did he have to believe that an eight-trick contract in hearts could be fulfilled?

The only correct or logical sign-off to South's one-notrump was a plain and simple pass by North!

KELLOGG'S ASTHMA RELIEF FOR ASTHMA & HAY FEVER

CORNWALL - YORK POINT W. I.

The regular monthly meeting of the Cornwall-York Point Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Hazen Howard Monday evening, Sept. 1. The meeting opened with the "Ode" followed by the Creed in unison. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted; roll call was answered to by eighteen members.

The reports of the committees were then given. Cornwall school reported cups needed for the school. Cornwall and York Point sick committee were absent.

The correspondence was then read by the secretary.

It was moved and seconded that the Institute buy four dozen cups.

It was decided to have a cooking demonstration at some future date.

It was decided to have an auction sale at the October meeting; all articles are to be hand-made and made out of flour bags. Mrs. Herbert Scott then read an article on "Public Health in Canada Today."

The collection for the evening amounted to $1.11. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Gordon MacMillan, roll call to be answered to with "the most embarrassing moment of my life."

Meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by the Cornwall ladies.
