Interesting Talk At I. O. D. E. Meeting

An interesting talk on the aims and objects of the Dumbarton Oaks Conference was given yesterday afternoon by Lieut. J. E. Burnett, R.O.N.V.R., Charlottetown, at the regular monthly meeting of the Royal Edward Chapter, I.O.D.E.

After the speaker's instructive exposition of many of the Conference's significant features, several questions were asked him by the members which revealed their interest in the current events of world significance. Expressions of appreciation for the informative address given were tendered Lieut. Burnett.

After the special address by Lieut. Burnett, the business of the meeting was mainly of a routine nature. The Regent, Mrs. James A. MacMillan, presided.

Former Ch'town Army Medical Officer Honored

A Charlottetown Army medical officer has been honored by the Government with the award of the Order of the British Empire for his services rendered by his medical unit to the Czechoslovakian Brigade while it was operating in France.

He is Col. John F. Hassard, son of the late Mr. Justice Hassard and Mrs. F. L. Hassard, Charlottetown.

The letter accompanying the decoration was from Major Gen. G. Liska, C.B.E., D.S.O., General Officer Commanding the Czechoslovakian Brigade, and was as follows: "I am pleased to have the pleasure of informing you that the President of the Czechoslovak Republic has awarded you the Order of the White Lion, III Class, in appreciation of all services rendered by you to my Brigade."

Mr. Hassard was a very busy man, Mr. Hanson conceded, but took the time to accept the honor from his colleagues. The doctor from King's County was the dumbest man in Parliament. The only time he was ever heard of was when he was mentioned in someone else's speech.
