The remodeled Baptist church which is now a handsome building was reopened Sunday when the re-dedication and induction services were largely attended. In the morning Rev. Wm. M. Smallman of New Glasgow, N. S., preached ably from Ephs. 2:19-22. In the afternoon the new pastor, Rev. J. E. Whetmore, was inducted. At this service Rev. A. D. McCully gave the opening address. In the evening the church was crowded to the doors; some were obliged to stand, while some could not gain admittance. Rev. D. Hutchinson of Moncton preached an eloquent sermon. The choir, assisted by a number of members of the Methodist choir, rendered some excellent music. Miss Ida Gough and Miss Nellie Andrew each singing solos.

William Easter, "Willow Lane Farm" Kelvin Grove, who was reported several months ago, is the owner of a lamb born with only three legs, has now a other curiosity on his farm. All who know anything about hens are aware that Plymouth Rocks are invariably a sort of dappled grey in color. Mr. Easter has one which has recently turned pure white. The change, he says, came gradually and without any shedding of feathers. Mr. Easter does not know whether or not the coming election has had this effect; but it might be that this remarkable ten is following the course of some of the leading Canadian newspapers in changing their colors on the eve of the political contest. See is probably opposed to the G. T. P.

CONDOLANCE To Donald and Mrs. MacFayden DeSable and family:—As it has pleased Almighty God in His divine wisdom to call from his earthly suffering to his Heavenly kingdom the soul of our departed brother, we the officers and members of Lorne Lodge No. 1492, do extend to you and your family our deepest sympathy in this your sad bereavement. We know that our earthly loss will be his heavenly gain; we miss him from our midst, as he will be missed from your family circle. He was an esteemed member of our Loyal Order and respected by all who knew him, but we know that the day is not far distant when we shall meet him again and the family circle will be complete forever. We see now, as through a glass, darkly; but at that great day we shall see him with our Maker face to face. We trust you will be strengthened and upheld with this thought, and leaning on the arm of our Almighty and Supreme Grand Master Jesus Christ you will be comforted. Signed on behalf of the officers and members of Lorne L. O. L. No. 1492. John Beer, Dugald MacKinnon, Alfred Cameron, Calvin MacDonald, Fraser MacDonald, DeSable, October 20th 1904.

The White Man's Burden

Would be considerably lightened, if his wife would only buy all her own and her daughter's gowns, jackets, hats, furs and dry goods generally from us, as we strive always to give you the best possible materials at the lowest possible prices. Our goods are always priced at a fair living profit only, and—qualities considered—are the most reasonable to be found.

A WOMAN'S DUTY

is—to be as well dressed as her purse and her taste will permit her, without extravagant expenditure. We can help her out in this, with our correct and exclusive designs in

in black, navy, green, browns, greys and flaked effects, made and trimmed in manner to do credit to a first-class dressmaker.

Ready-made Blouses and Shirt Waists

in black, navy, sky, pink, pale green and cardinal silks, some simply tucked, others most elaborately trimmed. Also a nice range in cashmere, lustre, French flannel and flannelette. We also show a superior assortment of

Ladies' Coats and Mantles

in black and all the fashionable shades and mixtures. The styles are all strictly fresh this season, not a "has been" masquerading as new among them, and the stock is very complete as to sizes. Then we have here in abundance the most

both from our own workrooms and in the ready-to-wear felt hats. The appearance of an other wise elegant toilet is often marred by a common place hat. The kind we make have a style, an individuality suited to the wearer, and no woman wearing one of these really artistic hats, can help looking well dressed. Our

are selling fast, and although our assortments are large—first comers always have first choice—so it will be to your advantage to come early. Our range of Fur Jackets are the best we have ever shown, and we will appreciate your interest if you will call and see the display.
