The death occurred Sunday night at New Glasgow, after a lingering illness of Mrs. W. H. Semple, leaving a sorrowing husband to mourn. The deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Willet was a native of Glace Bay C. B. The funeral takes place today at 2 p.m. to New Glasgow cemetery.

Eggs were quoted in Halifax yesterday at 20 cents a dozen, but it is predicted that they will go to 24 before next week, as those coming in from P. E. Island and elsewhere will cost about 23. Strictly fresh eggs are bringing as high as 45 cents. Cheese is unchanged at 14 and 14 1/2 cents. Business is a little quiet.—Chronicle.

Readers of The Guardian will be interested in the letter of H. C. McLeod, General Manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, to the editor of the Toronto Globe, which appears upon the first page of today's issue. It deals with a matter of vital importance, and is additionally interesting because of the fact that Mr. McLeod is a native of Prince Edward Island.

"THE GUARDIAN MAN" will make his second round some evening this week and will distribute three more envelopes. Number one envelopes will contain Mark Wright Furnishing Co's order for $10.00 worth of furniture or carpets. Number two envelope will have MacDonald & MacKinnon's order for $5.00 worth of goods in their line and number three envelope will contain Saunders & Newsom's order for $2.00 worth of meats. As announced in Saturday's issue, "The Guardian Man" is a stranger in the city and no one knows whom he will call on next. Be sure you have the paper ready when he calls and thus not be disappointed.

The Board of directors of the Y.M.C.A. met in the parlour of the Association last evening. The various committees were drafted out for the season's work, and the general business of the Association fully discussed. Over a hundred new members have joined within the last month. Four Bible classes have been organized, and two others will be formed shortly. The gymnasium classes are all well attended, and basket ball contests are growing in interest each afternoon and evening. The Sunday afternoon Men's Meetings are largely attended. The chairman of the educational committee presented a list of 75 new books, which the directors approved of and which will be added to the present library in a short time. In the reading room practically all the periodicals are being renewed for the New Year and several new ones added.

British Cough Cure is an article that every house should have at this time of the year, when coughs and colds are so prevalent. There's nothing like it for children. It cures every time. Prepared and sold at 25c per bottle, by A. W. Reddin, Pharm. B. The Central Drugstore.

In the Christmas number of Bur McInnes's monthly, which is generally regarded as the most artistic exponent of published illustrating art on this continent, there appear two photographs from the camera of Will S. Louson of this City. They are winter scenes, one taken on the St. Peter's Road, and the other depicting the laden branches of undegrowth after a snowstorm.

Messrs Albert Curran and Vernon Gay returned to the City yesterday afternoon from Montague and Georgetown, where they spent Saturday. Before returning they purchased two valuable horses for which they paid a nice figure. They are all pleased with their purchase but report the roads are in very bad condition for travelling which interferes much with the farmers in marketing the fall produce.

There died, suddenly at Hampton, yesterday morning, in the 19th year of his age, Angus McDonald, son of Neil McDonald of that place. His death adds one more to the list of similar visitations borne by his family. Of a number of sons one was drowned some years ago; another, Malcolm went west not very long ago and died there, while still another preceded him but a short time previously. There are left to mourn his fatherhood the following brothers and sisters: Fraser, at home; Calvin, manager of the Hampton Cheese Factory; Maria, at home; Belle, wife of George McFarlane, DeSable; Sarah, in Boston; John, a farmer in Victoria; and the Rev. Luchlin, now in the North West. Angus was formerly in the employ of Wright Bros, Victoria. His death, just at the threshold of manhood, is deeply regretted by all his acquaintances.

The Mock Parliament will be opened with the usual ceremonies, at 8 o'clock tonight. Louis G. Hazard will move the address in reply to the Throne. A lively debate is anticipated. A cordial invitation to attend is extended to the general public.

The dance given last night in honor of Miss Jean McIsaac proved a very enjoyable informal affair. It had been arranged by a number of Miss McIsaac's friends before her departure for Charlottetown and was held in Rennie's academy. The guest of the evening was a dainty lacrimated gown of white organdie, and appropriately for an informal evening the other guests wore pretty frocks of light silk and muslin. There were a large number of guests.—Edmonton Bulletin.
