"Is your commutator?"
"What's your worm-gear is cloged?"
"No—all clear."
"Got any gasoline in your tank?"
"Plenty."
"How about your circulation; cylinder isn't bound, is it?"
"No, sir."
"Tires seem all right?"
"Never better."
"Well, maybe your vibrator isn't adjusted?"
"That's all right."
"Have you looked at your carbur-ator?"
"Yes."
"How about the cam shaft?"
"Grand."
"Have you tightened your connecting rods, examined your clutches, and gone over the differentials?"
"Yes—yes."
The man in the touring car paused a moment and then looking at the stranger by the roadside, said at last:
"Would your mind telling me, sir, just what's the matter with that machine of yours?"
In answer, the man pointed to a large red farmhouse in the distance.
"See that house out there?" he asked.
"Yes, sir."
"Well, sir, there isn't anything the matter with this machine, but since noon my wife has been in that house kissing her sister's first baby goodbye. When she gets through, if you are not over a thousand miles away, and will leave your address, I will telegraph or cable you the glad news at my own expense."

Always have a place for the doctor to wash his hands, and a clean towel for him. Have some sort of pretty shawl, or dressing sack to put on your patient when she sits up in bed to eat, as every additional fluffery, no matter how simple, gives pleasure to the sick.

If you have a standing and folding screen in the room it is always convenient, either to break the breeze from blowing on your patient or to shade the light from her eyes. During the day you might roll the bed near the window, so your patient can look out, and at night roll it back in its place, so as not to get any draught from the window.

Have a small table at the side of the room, with a white cloth on it and have on this table the medicines, spoons, glasses and everything of the kind in use. Don't have them scatterbut keep them all together in one place. Also have on this table paper and pencil, and write down all the doctor tells you to do, and be sure to do it at the right time.

Give your patient a fresh gown in the morning, put on a different one at night. This does not mean two fresh gowns a day, but two gowns for as long as they are clean. Changing night and morning, it is more restful to the patient than to keep on the same gown day and night. No matter how busy you are with other duties and cares, don't neglect to comb and brush the patient's hair daily. Otherwise it will hopelessly tangle. Don't let the sick room get

MAKING THE SICK
COMFORTABLE.
The small things are really the big things in a sick room. Attention to seemingly unimportant details means much in a patient's comfort. If you can have a few fresh flowers or a growing plant in the sick room, it will give a great deal of pleasure, but don't have cut flowers in the room at night. Be sure to put fresh water in the vase each day.

things, keep it tidy and in order, and free from unnecessary things.

Have a comfortable easy chair near the bed when you get your patient up, and don't tire her out by putting on her clothes. Spread a blanket in the chair, put a wrapper and slippers on your patient and let her sit on the blanket, folding it over and around her. This will keep her warm enough and will not be as tiring as to com-

Routine is necessary for sick peo-time for each thing, you will find you do not "forget" anything.

THE BEGINNING OF SILK-
MAKING IN ENGLAND.
The development of the silk manufacture in England began some time in the seventeenth century, but was greatly extended through the enterprise of John Lombe of Derby, who, in 1715, went to Leghorn, Italy, to learn the secret of the Leghorn silk manufacture, a most difficult and dangerous adventure.

Visitors were allowed to pass through the factories and see the machines in motion but could learn nothing of their construction and operation; finally, through the good offices of a priest, Lombe secured employment as a workman, slept in the mill, worked at a spinning machine, and by night made measurements and plans, which were taken out from day to day by the priest. He worked at the mill until an English ship was sent on purpose to take him away; he had scarcely sailed when an armed brig was sent after him, and he barely escaped safely to England. It is said that he died at the age of twenty-nine, pois-oned by the emissaries of his Leghorn employers, but the silk manufacture was securely established, became a great industry in England, and has since been established all over the world.

BREAD FRITTERS.
Cut some stale bread into slices one-fourth of an inch thick. Shape into squares about 1 1/2 inches. Beat the yolks of two eggs in a basin; add half pint of milk and an ounce of sugar. Mix well and soak the bread in this for ten minutes. Fry the pieces of bread in very hot fat until they are a golden brown. Mix together a little powdered sugar and cinnamon and as soon as the fritters are done toss them about in this.

Serve very hot.

ROLLY-POLY.
Roll half a pound of short pastry into a round about a quarter of an inch thick. Spread over it a layer of jam, leaving a margin all around.
Wet this edge slightly and then roll the pudding up. Press the edges tightly. Then place the rolly-polly in a floured baking tin and bake thirty minutes. Serve hot with a hard sauce.

DAILY HINTS FOR THE COOK.
CITRON APPLE PIE.
Line a deep pie plate with puff paste and fill it with tart apples cut into small pieces, sprinkle with one-half cup sugar, one-half cup finely shredded or chopped citron, two tablespoons of currant jelly and small pieces butter rolled in flour.
Cover the top with strips of the paste and bake in a slow oven.

EGGS A LA SUISSE.
Six eggs, dry toast, a quarter pound of Gruyere cheese, one cup of cream, one and a half ounces of butter, salt and pepper. Butter the inside of an earthen ware baking dish; cut the Gruyere cheese in very thin slices and arrange in the bottom of the dish; break the yolks over the cheese, taking care not to break them; season with salt and pepper; pour over the cream. Sprinkle the top with grated Parmesan cheese and put the dish in the oven for ten minutes. When ready to serve garnish around the edge of the dish with slipsops of toast.

JOHN BRIGHT.
(Worcester Post.)
It is one of the grand figures of his age to whom the world owes obeisance today on the centenary of John Bright, the fighter for free food in England, the resolute and most useful friend of the American union in civil war days, while a lover of peace and a hater of injustice—the man who deserved the title of great commoner if ever man did. His courage appeared in his denunciation of the Crimean war, his idealism in his correspondence with Sumner as well as his lifelong work in politics. Only once, on the Irish home rule issue, did he fail to rise to his full stature.

Natural Cure for Catarrh Obviates
Taking Drugs
It Has Superseded the Old-fashioned Stomach-dosing Remedies, and Invariably Cures Quickly.

It was their inability to reach the real source of catarrh and bronchitis that caused the medical profession to rely upon liquid cough medicines and adopt "Catarrhones" instead. Catarrh-hones provides a method of breathing right into the lungs certain rare medicinal vapors which are so healing and comforting as to entirely banish coughs, catarrh and throat trouble in a very short time.

The most wonderful thing about Carrh is hidden, Catarrhones will each and destroy them.
"About five years ago I took a cold in the head and Catarrh set in.
It kept increasing by leaps and bounds. I kept putting off getting anything until at last I found I would have to. After trying several things I heard of your remedy, Catarrhones and procured a bottle and began using it. I was not long in finding out I had struck the right thing. I am recommending Catarrh-hones to all who have catarrh, etc."
"Blair P. O., Queen's Co., N.B."

Catarrhones has made an astonishing record of cures. Its method is light; no drugs; just healing balsamic vapors, that bring instant relief to Catarrh and all throat, bronchial and chest colds. Get the large size, lasts months, is sure to cure you, price $1.00; smaller size 50c.; sample or trial size, 25c. All dealers, or The Catarrhones Company, Buf-

According to Government Estimates $100,000,000.00
was made in Western Town Property during the year 1910

Did you participate in these huge profits or did you "pigeon-hole" the proposition submitted to you by your western friends for future consideration? In short, are you the man who made a profit or the unfortunate one who had the chance but did not possess sufficient judgment to recognize the opportunity or sufficient courage to close a deal? The man or woman entitled to sympathy is the one who says: "Five or ten years ago I had the chance to buy this or that property at $100 or $500, and now it is worth $10,000." The average person sneers at the person who makes such a statement and says: "I would have bought and made that money." Are you going to say five years from now that you had a chance to buy a lot at Poe, Alta., at from $50. to $100. each, or are you going to be the man who will have from $1,000 to $10,000 in cash as a result of having bought property in this town in this year of grace, 1911?

POE A COMING COMMERCIAL CENTRE.
Poe is located on the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway between Edmonton and Saskatoon. It is located in one of the finest farming districts in Western Canada. The surrounding country is settled by a progressive type of farmers and consequently will become the market centre for Northern Alberta. Poe district possesses rich coal mines, is close to river and lakes and large forests are easily accessible from this point. These natural resources insure for the residents of the town, first, low cost of living, and second, great commercial activity, two essentials in the up-building of a large town, thus creating valuable real estate.

POE AS A MANUFACTURING CENTRE
This townsite and contiguous territory has the requirements outlined by large manufacturing concerns for the location of large factories or large enterprises of any kind employing large numbers of people. The rivers and lakes furnish water, the coal fields and forest furnish fuel and cheap building material, the fine farming lands furnish farm products, enabling the residents to live at a low cost.
The town is located on the main line of a transcontinental railway, assuring the necessary transportation facilities. These combined conditions will furnish cheap labor, one of the most important, features of a manufacturing centre.

Poe townsite was recently placed on the market and already over 200 lots have been sold, and many of these lots have already changed hands at a substantial increase in price. Most of these lots were purchased by representative business men throughout Canada, who are now profiting by their foresight.
The townsite is high and dry and very suitable for building purposes.

OPPORTUNITY
is useless unless you possess the courage to act. You might possess great wisdom, you might read a good deal or travel much and thus see all kinds of opportunities to make money, but unless you have the courage to act on your judgment and wisdom all of these desirable qualities are entirely useless.
Lots in Poe are a good investment at present prices. The town is bound to grow rapidly. Owing to the easy terms of payment you have the ability to buy and if you do not buy now it is because you are lacking in courage, and the chances are you will never be like the man you now admire most, rich, courageous and wise.

TORRENS TITLE.
Poe townsite is held by us under the Torrens system of title. Under this system the title is guaranteed by the Government, therefore absolutely safe.

PRICES AND TERMS.
Prices of lots range from $50 to $100 each, and they can be purchased on terms of one-tenth cash, balance in eighteen equal monthly payment; or quarter cash, balance in six, twelve and eighteen months.

INFORMATION.
We have issued an attractive circular giving full information pertaining to the town and its prospects, together with map showing lots for sale. If you wish to receive this attractive circular cut out and fill in the attached coupon and mail it to us today.
