Here is something that will cure your cold in a day and a night. Our laxative cold cure works on a new principle - drives the cold out of the system - doesn't merely smother it temporarily to have it reappear a day or so later.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE

SPEECH FROM THE THRONE

IMPORTANT LEGISLATION FORESHADOWED

The Provincial Legislature met yesterday afternoon with the usual military ceremonies. The Guard of Honour was under command of Captain C. L. McKay with Lieutenant Bayer and Stanley, while the salute was fired under command of Major Darke with whom were Lieutenants Bethune and McQuicker.

The auditorium and galleries were packed to overflowing. Among those occupying seats on the floor of the House were Hon. Senator Murphy, Rev. Dr. Gauthier, Hon. William Richards, Rev. R. P. Dobb, and many other prominent gentlemen from town and country. There was a large number of ladies present.

Promptly at three o'clock His Honor Governor Rogers entered the chamber accompanied by his Aide-de-Camp and military guard, and immediately on taking his seat proceeded to read the following address:

SPEECH

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Legislative Assembly. - It affords me great pleasure to welcome you to the performance of your duties at this the second session of the thirty-seventh General Assembly of this Province.

During the past year, this Province was honored by a visit from Their Royal Highnesses the Duke of Cornwall, Governor General of Canada, the Duchess of Cornwall and Prince Patricia, to whom a hearty welcome was accorded, both as a loyal tribute to the representative of the Crown and as a recognition of the personal services rendered to the Empire by His Royal Highness.

Although conditions last season were unfavorable for harvesting I am pleased to state that an average yield of farm crops was secured and that all agricultural pursuits were attended with a very fair measure of success. In every part of the Province interest is rapidly growing in improved methods of farming. The attendance of upwards of 500 farmers at the Short Course which was held in Charlottetown early in the year, is a striking evidence of the new agricultural life which is manifesting itself in every department.

One important feature of the Short Course was the number of ladies who attended the Domestic Science Department. The grant received from the Federal Government for the past year made possible the purchase and fitting up of the new Agricultural Hall in Charlottetown, which has already been of great service, and promises for the future increasing benefit to the agricultural interests of this Province.

The largely increased agricultural grant from the Dominion Government for the present year will assure much greater progress in Agricultural Education, Nature Study, and Scientific Training than has heretofore been possible. Since last prorogation of this Legislature, extensive surveys have been made of the oyster areas in Richmond Bay, St. Mary's Bay and North River, and upwards of 18,000 acres have been laid out and mapped for leasing. Over 5000 acres have already been applied for. It is a matter of sincere congratulation that such an abundant means of wealth is now being developed after having been in a declining condition for many years.

This must affect beneficially the whole business of the Province, while the revenue which will be derived therefrom together with the increased Federal subsidy already obtained by the Government and the further sums anticipated on claims presented should place this Province upon a permanent solvent and progressive financial basis.

During the past fiscal year, my Government constructed and paid for out of ordinary revenue, permanent steel bridges, more than the total of all former years combined, and under such competent supervision as to assure the best quality of material and workmanship. The Road Act has proved its value in every section of the country where it was fairly tried, and I am confident that with the experience of the past year, its operation will further prove its adaptation to the requirements of this Province. With the expected aid from the Dominion Government, the prospects for good roads are very bright.

As was confidently expected, a gratifying improvement in the work of the Public Schools has resulted from the legislation enacted last session. The encouragement given to the teachers by the increase then made in their salaries and by the assurance of a retiring allowance on the completion of their term of service, has produced better and more vigorous work in the schools throughout the Province. Disregard and retrogression have been checked, and progress has begun. It is evident, however, that if the good work is to continue further attention must be paid to this important branch of the public service. It is necessary that the teachers should be better trained and better paid, and that a more practical trend should be given to the teaching in the common schools of our rural districts. You will be seeking these results, the best means of securing the growth of the black and silver industries has exceeded all expectations, and it has assuredly taken a very prominent place in the development of the material resources of this Province.

I am glad to assure you that satisfactory progress is being made in preparing for the construction of the Car Ferry. The completion of this work, with the widening of the railway gauge will for the first time bring us within the transportation systems of the Mainland, and give us the full benefits thereof and will, I trust, inaugurate an era of unprecedented prosperity to our people.

During recess, a delegation from my Government and from the Provinces of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia joined in preparing and presenting a memorial of the claims of the Maritime Provinces to compensation for our share in the public lands of Canada which have been given to the larger Provinces without allowing us an equivalent therefor. The delegation was exceedingly well received by the Government at Ottawa; the memorial presented, and assurances given that the Government of Canada would accord the earliest and most favorable consideration to the claims presented.

Representatives of my Government have been in conference with representatives of the Governments of New Brunswick and Nova Scotia with a view to making a joint effort to obtain the restoration of representation in the Federal Parliament. There are good reasons to expect that success will crown these efforts. The telegraph service which for many years has been inadequate has been greatly improved during the past year by the introduction of the night letter rate and cable privileges, and negotiations with the Government of Canada for further improvements in telegraph and telephone facilities are now pending.

It is pleasing to be able to inform you that while the Public Services have been efficiently maintained and improved, a substantial decrease has been made in the debt and liabilities of the Province. Amendments to the Public Schools Act, the Road Act, 1912, the Income Tax Act, the Joint Stock Companies Act, an Act respecting Petit Jurors, the Election Act, as well as other important measures will be submitted for your consideration. The Public Accounts for the past fiscal period of fifteen months will be laid before you and the estimates of the current year will be submitted. I am sure that you will find them prepared with due regard to efficiency and economy in the requirements of the Public Service.

ON THE REVISION OF THE JOURNAL

ON THE LEGISLATIVE LIBRARY

Hon. Mr. Mathieson, Mr. McLean, Mr. Fochan, Mr. T. W. McDonald, Mr. Richards, and that the quorum of the said committee do consist of three members.

ON BILLS TO BE ENGROSSED OR THAT HAVE BEEN ENGROSSED

Hon. J. A. McDonald, Mr. Dalton, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Buntain, Mr. Simpson, and that the quorum of the said committee do consist of three members.

The preliminary clash between the two opposing sides took place when Premier Mathieson's motion for the appointment of a Nominating Committee was submitted.

Mr. Richards, Leader of the Opposition, reminded the House that when they met last year he inquired of the Premier whether the rules of parliament died with the parliament and was informed that they did not. The answer of the Premier took the form of a little lecture, a form of reply to which his hon. friend was much addicted. Now, he had no doubt in his own mind that the rules do die with the parliament, and that being so, the new parliament had been carrying on business without any rules. It was customary for the committees appointed to meet as often as necessary that the Public Accounts Committee did not meet at all last session.

At this point the Speaker, having ruled the Hon. member out of order, the routine business was proceeded with.

Mr. Richards (resuming) said he was about to remark, when he was called to order, that the public accounts committee had not met at all last session and the Agricultural Committee met once. He mentioned this because his friends when in opposition were in the habit of taking them to task for not calling the committees together more frequently.

The Premier congratulated the Leader of the Opposition upon losing no time in finding fault with the Government. He reminded the House that the accounts to be investigated were those of the Government of which Mr. Richards was a member, and he assured him that the House would have every opportunity, at an early date, of investigating and discussing them. The Government had nothing to conceal but, unlike their predecessors, courted the fullest publicity and investigation, and he hoped their policy in this respect would be the means of effecting a change of heart in the leader of the opposition (laughter). Should the hon. member at any time desire a meeting of the committee he had but to make his request known and it would be complied with. Something next.

I have full confidence that you will devote yourselves with earnestness and zeal to the various matters of public importance which will be brought before you.

I now invoke upon your labors the blessing of Divine Providence, convinced that the result of your deliberations will greatly benefit our people.

The speech from the throne concluded. His Honor left the chamber after which Mr. Speaker Wyatt took the chair.

Premier Mathieson asked for and was granted the usual privilege of "introducing a Bill," which was ordered to be read a first time, and the work of the session was begun.

Mr. Speaker, "in accordance with ancient usage and in order to prevent any misunderstanding" read the speech from the throne.

On motion of Premier Mathieson a Committee was appointed to nominate Select Standing Committees for the present session and the motion being agreed to, the Committee reported as follows:

SUMMERSIDE ICE RACES

(Special by Phone) SUMMERSIDE, March 12. - The second of the series of ice races was held on the harbor at Summerside this afternoon.

The day was an ideal one for the sport and a large crowd was present to witness the event.

The first race called was the 240 paces in which Car Ferry, owned by Louis Leard, won first money; Douglas, 2nd and Minnie Mac 3rd. Four horses started in this race and each heat was sharply contested.

The second race called was the three minute trot won in three straight heats by Kaiser D. with Mystery 2nd and Brazilian, Jr. 3rd. This race, also, was hotly contested.

The second heat for Jack drove the day in which Dr. Jack drove the winner to his limit. It is only in justice to say that had Dr. Jack not met with an accident in the first and third heats the result might have been different but in each of these he tore off a boot and had to be jugged to the finish.

The green race was won by Dot, Thomas D. 2nd and Happy Jack, 3rd. This was a good race taking five heats to decide the winner.

QUIT THE ARMY FOR VAUDEVILLE.

LONDON, March 12. - Billed as "Two Captains - Musical and Humorous Entertainers," Captain Arthur Wood, son of Sir Evelyn Wood, field marshal of the British army, and Captain Henry Green, D. S. O., took up the variety stage as a profession last night at the Alderhot Hippodrome.

The men were educated at Beaumont College and were commissioned in the Scottish Rifles, and served in the South African campaign, participating in the relief of Ladysmith and the fight on Spion Kop. They assign as the reason for their change of vocation "simply to earn a living." They possess fine tenor voices and their turn consists of songs, mainly on military and political subjects.

CRIPPEN'S FORMER LAWYER HELD AS A SWINDLER.

LONDON, March 8. - Arthur Newton, the lawyer who came into so much prominence during the trial of Dr. Crippen for murder, in connection with which he was subsequently suspended from practice, was today brought up at Bow street police court on the charge of conspiracy to defraud Dr. Hans Thorsch, a wealthy young citizen of Vienna, Austria. The magistrate in remanding the accused described the case as a "regular swindle" and imposed a heavy bail of $90,000. Alongside Arthur Newton in the prisoner's enclosure stood Berley Bennett, a land agent, for whom the magistrate refused to take bail, while a warrant was issued for a third party to the alleged conspiracy who calls himself Count Andor Festeles, who says he is a Hungarian nobleman.

Dr. Thorsch, according to his evidence today, was induced by the conspirators to part with his fortune on the pretense that it was to be invested for him. The investments chosen were "wildcat" schemes, some of which had ceased to exist. The accused man Bennett, said Dr. Thorsch had posed as "Gordon Bennett, and had induced him to advance $67,500 for a pretended deal in Canadian timber lands, "to provide paper for American newspapers." Later, according to Dr. Thorsch, Bennett, acting danger, had told him he was a nephew of the newspaper proprietor to whom he referred to as "Dear Old Uncle Gordon."

WOMAN WRITES GRAFT CHAPTER

NEW YORK, March 10. - A book of graft history, covering a period of thirty years, was opened for District Attorney Whitman to-day by Rosie Fertz, one of the most wealthy and notorious keepers of disorderly resorts in this city. This woman, sentenced last week to one year's imprisonment for running a house for immoral purposes, made a complete confession. She disappointed the system, which had hoped she would serve her time without telling what she knew, and has paved the way, it is said, for prosecutions not only of several high police officials but for a number of politicians, alleged to be allied with the "system." Many subpoenas were issued as soon as the woman completed her disclosures and Mr. Whitman will be busy during the next few days examining witnesses who are expected to corroborate her story.

Mrs. Hertz and other witnesses will testify before the grand jury. According to the district attorney, their stories will be supplemented by evidence in the form of checks and account books which these women preserved. Mrs. Hertz's business as the proprietor of a string of resorts was conducted systematically, making it possible now for documentary evidence of graft she paid to be produced, it is declared. In another week, he declares, those who have benefited by the woman's payment will be hounded down, Mr. Whitman hopes.
