SYNOPSIS OF CANADIAN NORTH WEST LAND REGULATIONS.

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old, may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta. The applicant must appear in person at the Dominion Lands Agency or Sub Agency for the district. Entry by proxy may be made at any agency, on certain conditions, by father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of intending homesteader.

Duties.—Six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each of three years. A homesteader may live within nine miles of his homestead on a farm of at least 30 acres solely owned and occupied by him or by his father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

In certain districts a homesteader in good standing may pre-empt a quarter-section alongside his homestead. Price $100 per acre.

Duties.—Must reside upon the homestead or pre-emption six months in each of three years from date of homestead entry (including the time required to start homestead patent) and cultivate fifty acres extra.

A homesteader who has exhausted his homestead right and cannot obtain a pre-emption may enter for a purchase homestead in certain districts. Price $500 per acre.—Duties.—Must reside six months in each of three years, cultivate fifty acres and erect a house worth $500.

A pretty home wedding took place at the residence of J. C. and Mrs. Kitchen, Woodstock Road, says a recent Fredericton, N. B., paper, when their daughter, Miss Margaret L. Kitchen, was united in marriage to G. E. Heber Smith, of Edmonton, Alberta. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. MacDonald, in the presence of the immediate friends of the happy couple. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was becomingly attired in a gown of cream satin, trimmed with applique and all-over lace, and carried a bouquet of cream roses. She was attended by Miss Jennie McNally, who wore a costume of cream cashmere trimmed with old gold and insertion, and carried a bouquet of white and pink carnations. Arthur Kitchen performed the duties of best man. Miss Olive Kelley presided at the organ and as the bride entered the drawing room, played an appropriate wedding march. At the conclusion of the ceremony luncheon was served. The drawing and dining rooms were appropriately decorated for the occasion by Miss Ada Schelyer, florist. The newly married couple left by the C. P. R. express last evening on a wedding tour embracing leading United States cities, before taking up their residence in Edmonton. The presents were handsome and costly. The groom's present to the bride was a sunburst of diamonds, to the bridesmaid a handsome brooch and to the best man a scarf pin. The bride received also a purse of gold from her brothers and another from her parents. The bride is popular with a large circle of friends, and the bridegroom, who is a native of Roseneath, Prince Edward Island, is a school teacher in Edmonton. Since coming west five years ago has acquired large real estate interests.
