Conn stands Up Cupid PITTSBURGH, June 20 (AP)—Billy Conn kept a date with the sandman today and stood up cupid. Billy and Mary Louise Smith had told friends they'd be married today but at the appointed hour there was only a crowd of curious waiting at St. Philomena's Church. No bride and no bridegroom. The ex-light heavyweight champion was home in a sound sleep the first since Joe Louis knocked him out in the 13th Wednesday night. There was no explanation of the delay in the wedding plans from Conn or the Smith family.

Bombers capture Ninth straight

They were at it hammer and tongs at Glencoe, Ontario, June 4th. Beatrix Lee, four-year-old by Corporal Lee, won the 2:18 pace, best time 2:13 1-2. Irene Harvester won the split up 2:20 trot, best time 2:15. Canton, Ohio, has one of the fastest tracks in the United States but rain slowed it up very considerably for their June meeting. However, some very good miles were trotted or paced. Henry Miller was trotted or paced by Gallant Heart, four-year-old owned by Hedley T. Fulton, Upper Steiwacke, N.S. trotted in 2:09 1-4. The Free For All Pace was a corker. Miss Budlong 2:00 by Calumet, Budlong 2:02 3-4 won the first heat in 2:07 1-4, the fastest mile of the meeting, but Fearless Peter 2:00, winner of 14 races last season won the next heat in 2:09 3-4.

No less than 49 owners paid $100 each into the Fox Pacing Stable No. 15, the world's largest pacing stable. It will be raced at the Indiana State Fair in September and has now a value of $1,385, with the starting fees to be added to it. The Horsemen's Stake No. 4 for two-year-old trotters has 33 remaining eligibles following the June 1st payment and has an accumulated value of $13,975. Now you will see why owners pay such high prices for well-bred yearlings at the auctions.

Entries closed yesterday for promoter Clifford McDonald's four-event card of races that will be held at Northam, July 23rd. Great interest is being taken in the Free For All Trot and Pace which is a handicap affair and many will be watching for the entry list today.
