From that pair of silver pups, we have raised seven litters, we have without a cross, and without losing one. The first five years, four each year, the following two years five each year, making a total of 30. The mother has a letter now arrived on the third litter, so counted, which we figure to be another five. This we hope to be the grand total of 35, all raised in a molasses punch-bowl.

ENJOYABLE CONCERT—The concert and basket social held in Heintz's Hall, East Royalty, Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the East Royalty Ladies' Auxiliary, was a splendid success in every way. Although the roads were bad the large commodious hall was crowded and everyone seemed to enjoy themselves. Favorable comment was heard on all sides on the very excellent programme that was carried out. It consisted of Scotch songs and readings, recitations, light dances, readings, recitations, songs and a flag drill of sixteen children. Sweet music on violins, cornet and banjo, accompanied by the organ, made it one of the best programmes ever held in Heintz's Hall. Mr. G. D. Wright acted as Chairman. He presided over the "right" man in the right place. Mr. Benj. Carter auctioneered the baskets in his usual capable manner and kept the fun going. The sum of $123 was realized for the new orphanage.

FISHERMAN'S LUCK.—The Newton Dramatic Club staged in St. Malachi's Hall, Kinkora, on Feb. 29th, a comedy, "A Fisherman's Luck". The characters, in their different roles, played their parts well, and though only amateur performers, showed historic talent. Volin selections, by Miss Rita Greenan, and vocal solos by Mrs. Selma McKernan, received hearty applause. The accompaniment was Mrs. Walter Smith. Following is a cast of characters: Squire Hammond (his son); Joan R. McSmith; Tom Manly; Alden Carr; Miss Rose Prescott (Squire's wife); Miss Mary E. COMPLIMENTING ST. JAMES' LADIES—At the close of a very pleasant reception to the Rev. Wm. Orr Mulligan in St. James Hall on Tuesday evening, His Honor, Lieut. Governor MacKinnon, in moving a vote of thanks, paid a high tribute to the ladies of the congregation. The long and successful ministry of the late Rev. Dr. Fullerton, he said, was made possible in no small part by the loyalty and devotion of the ladies to their church and pastor. He did not know of any church blessed with such a body of willing and faithful workers, ever ready to give their services in the church's cause or any good cause which their pastor espoused. He felt sure that the Rev. Dr. Fullerton would not have a very present help in the time of need and a constant encouragement in all his labours, so would the new minister, who had been called with such unanimity and inducted with such solemnity that evening. The large attendance of the enthusiastic evening augured well for the success of Mr. Mulligan's pastorate in St. James'.

"Off Souris, P.E.I."

THE NIGHT SOL JACOBS DIED

The wind is not so east tonight and a blowing half a gale; The sea outside the Point is streaked with white; And a tall-sparred Yankee beauty is a lugging over the sea; A trifle down the lee of Souris Light.

She's a phantom out of Gloucester—this tall-sparred, white-winged gull; Ascending high in mouth, up through the swell; And Sol Jacobs, King of Fisher men, stands at the wheel—unseen.

He's making Souris port to-day; Farwell.

Though he cleared tonight from Gloucester, for grounds he's your life's man; Left seine-boats back ashore—up high and dry; Yet he shoots his phantom flyer in to well-known haunts again; To look around and shout a last Good-bye.

And the spirit of Old Souris answers Sol across the swell; "Farwell King Sol, Brave Heart, Farwell again.

May the golden lack of dear, dead days and old-time cry, "All's Well!"

Be yours ere down beyond life's troubled main."

THE SEA GULL.

AMAZING SPECTACLE IN JOHANNESBURG CITY

LONDON, March 8.—A Reuter's correspondent by Johannesburg cables the centre of city presents an amazing spectacle. The streets and market square are constantly filled by moving squadrons of mounted police carrying rifles and commands of strikers carrying red flags and banners and armed with formidable looking bludgeons like pickhangers. The whole aspect of the city is reminiscent of preparations from battle and getting in position behind the front line.

"I'm So Tired"

Miss Amy L. Metcalf, R. No. 3, Arthur, Ont., writes:

"I have used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food with the most favorable results. One spring I was very weak and run-down, and did not sleep well. I was very nervous and would cry for any little thing. My heart was weak and my head ached almost constantly. The doctor's medicine did me no good, and finally I began to take Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. After using six boxes of this medicine I felt fine. I have never used anything which has done me as much good as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and I have also found Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills an excellent remedy.

"This is to certify that I know Miss Amy Metcalf, and believe her statement with regard to Dr. Chase's medicines to be truthful and correct."—A. R. Springfield, Methodist Minister, Arthur, Ont.
