ACTIVE CHARLOTTETOWN SCOUTS GO ON HIKE

Twenty Charlottetown Scouts of Trinity, Basilica and Holy Redeemer Troops on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 2, set out under sealed orders for a real Scout hike. All met in the Market Square, were separated into the Red, White, Blue and Black Patrols under Patrol Leaders, were given each a set of seven sealed envelopes containing instructions, map etc., and left the Square at five minute intervals. Very little difficulty was experienced by all in following the messages, except one Patrol of Patrol Leaders of long standing and much Scouting experience which had to stop a prominent business man on the street for aid in reading a map of the City. On arriving at their destination, the Scouts had supper and then decided to do a bit of exploring. While this was in progress the Rev. S. J. Davies, The Chief, Timber and Mowgli arrived with seven Milton Scouts. Soon after our District President, Mr. W. J. Dixon and Brulin made their appearance. The Chief took over, games were played on the beach, and then the treat of the evening commenced - - the Camp Fire. Many of the well known Camp Songs were enjoyed and the Fire concluded with the investiture of five Charlottetown recruits - - Frank Zakem, A. Zakem and Ted Mullins of the Basilica Troop and Jack McLellan and Emile Arsenault of the Redeemer. Bruin, at the conclusion of the Investiture Ceremony treated all to apples which were very much appreciated. A truck supplied by our District Commissioner, Mr. V. A. Ainsworth, transported the Scouts to Charlottetown.

It is hoped that another activity such as this will take place in the near future.

THINGS WE WOULD LIKE TO KNOW

A few weeks ago we asked through this column that Scouts who attended this years Camp send in questions about certain things which happened during our stay at Buchan. Since that time we have received only one letter from an interested party who signs his letter "Resident of Charlottetown". Here are his queries:— Was it because of Stitti's good looks or because of his money that Cha... was so willing to help him with his Q. M. chores? - - How many instructions did Mowgli (The Instructor) give? - - Did Matheson receive his second (censored) letter from Paula yet? - - Does D. R. Morr ... know how to wash dishes? - - Can Frenchy fight without a club? Is that queer structure by the swimming hole a diving stand or a discarded pile of wood... We are still open for inquiries fellows, so send 'em in.

NEWS OF TROOP AND PACK ACTIVITIES

We are anxious to keep "News of Troop and Pack Activities" in print in this column, and without such news it will soon become impossible to find material to make "Scout News" worth while. So Scouts, Scouters and interested parties are asked to send in reports of their activities, meetings, hikes, badge work, tests and badges passed etc., Remember Scouts, this is mainly your column, and if you wish it to continue as such send in material. If, within the next month or two we do not hear from you in sufficient numbers we will have to discontinue the "Scout News". Address your letters to "Scout News" care of Provincial Headquarters, 101 Queen St. Charlottetown.

Freetown Troop

A very fine troop is now in operation in the District of Freetown and Bedeque, under the Leadership of Rev. James Cross as S. M. and Mr. George Lewis as A. S. M. Some twenty four boys are enrolled and also connected with the Group is a Wolf Cub Pack. Eleven of these fellows attended this years Camp and we look with interest for plenty of "News" from this Group. Mr. Cross informed us that he expected to have the most of the Troop present at our last Camp - fire but at the last moment found it impossible to procure transportation. This was very regrettable, as the Freetown Fellows were anxious to be with us, and we were looking forward to meeting our friends again after leaving them when the camp ended. However, perhaps another opportunity will present itself for this meeting at a later date at a point nearer Freetown.

TROOPS 'AND PACKS' FALL OPENINGS

It is felt now the Schools are in operation that most Troops and Packs will soon begin their fall meetings. The First Charlottetown, Basilica, Cub Pack expects to open within a week or two and the Sixth Troop, Holy Redeemer, will get away to their usual early start.

The weather just now is excellent for outdoor activities, and hikes should be the order of the day. Milton Troop, newly organized under S. M. S. J. Davies, has been running now since the completion of Camp and as yet, have only had one indoor meeting. Of course the Chief must keep his fellows out a lot now after issuing the challenge to the Charlottetown Scouts that he would have more Second Class Scouts in his Troop than any Charlottetown Troop by the time next year's Camp rolls around. What do you say fellows - - are you going to let Milton get the lead on you... I guess NOT!
