Plattsville Gentleman who had Little Hope of a Cure is now Well.

PLATTSVILLE, Ont. Dec. 9 (Special)—Thomas Lake an aged and highly respected gentleman of this place gives Dodd's Kidney Pills the credit for curing him of a very bad case of Kidney Trouble and Lame Back. His back ached so that he could hardly sit up and his Kidney gave him much trouble. Mr. Lake is ever seventy six years of age, and he thought he was too old to be cured. However, he saw an advertisement telling how a man older than he was had found a relief and a cure by using Dodd's Kidney Pills, so he determined to test them. The first box proved to his satisfaction that a cure was possible and now he is well and hearty.

ONE year ago to-day the Northumberland made her last trip of the season to Point Du Chese. She returned as far as the mouth of the harbor on Dec. 11th, but the ice was too heavy and she proceeded to Charlottetown for the winter. The Stanley arrived in Summerside Harbor on Dec. 23rd after several hours' battling with the ice, and made her first trip to Cape Tormentine on Xmas day.

THE Town Council met last night, the Mayor, Councillors Morris, Dickleson, Waugh and Gess being present. A resolution was adopted that when the schools reassemble January 6th no pupils be admitted without a certificate of vaccination, and that teachers notify the scholars before Christmas. It was decided to get 3,000 forms of certificates of vaccination for the use of the doctors. The use of Market Hall was voted for an educational meeting, and for an entertainment by No 3 Co. 2nd Batt. Coun. Morris reported the hospital in good condition.

THE funeral of the late Mr. David Montgomery took place yesterday afternoon, and was largely attended. H. Smith, assisted by the Rev. D. B. McLeod, Ch'town, and at the grave by the Masons. The pall-bearers were Hon. Jas. W. Richards, Hon. R. C. McLeod, Messrs. Alex. H. Allen, Neil Sinclair, R. Mc C. Stavert, J. A. Braze. The remains were interred in the People's Cemetery.

You don't need to apologize for making a small purchase at Mr. Thomas Wilkinson's store, Alberton. The value of your patronage is not gauged there by the size of the purchase but by the measure of satisfaction you feel with the merchandise and the treatment accorded. Mr. Wilkinson believes that a satisfied customer helps in a myriad of ways. One good word spoken has a cumulative effect that will reach far into the future and preserve for his store that permanent significance of reliability that is to-day associated with his name. For the Xmas trade Mr. Wilkinson is offering selections in furs and clothing, the value of which is easily determined by examination.
