WORLD SERVICE COMMITTEE ENLARGED AT LOCAL Y.M.C.A. —The enlargement of a standing committee on World Service was announced at a meeting of the Y.M.C.A. board of directors last evening. It will be the function of the World Service Committee to interest all Y.M.C.A. groups and friends of the Association in the work of the movement throughout the world. Information just received from the Y.M.C.A. World's Alliance at Geneva, Switzerland indicated that ninety-seven Y. M. C. A. buildings were completely destroyed and many others were badly damaged in war-torn countries. It has been found that six hundred and six Y.M.C.A. Secretaries have lost their homes and all of their possessions during the conflict. Many of these men were interned in Japan and throughout Europe. A considerable number lost their lives. Members of the local World Service Committee are: T. Roy Cummore and Walter J. Cox, co-chairmen; Ralph J. Rupert; John McNair; E. E. Clawson; Lloyd Williams; Harold Forsythe; John McInnis; Lorne W. Storey.

COLES-DUNNING WEDDING

A quiet wedding took place at the Margate Parsonage on Wednesday, Nov. 27 at 4 o'clock when Rev. Gordon Stevens united in marriage, Velda Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Dunning, Clinton and Earl, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Coles of New London. The bride looked charming in a rose crepe with sequins trimming and navy accessories and was attended by her girl friend Eileen Andrews, who wore a dress of navy with accessories to match.

The groom was ably supported by Ivan Somers.

After the wedding ceremony the bridal party, together with friends motored to Charlottetown where supper was waiting them in the Blue Room of Old Spain. Later in the evening they returned to the groom's home where an enjoyable evening was spent and a buffet lunch and ice cream was served to aunts and uncles and grandparents of bride and groom. Later in the evening a jolly group of serenaders arrived to extend best wishes to the happy young couple.

Previous to the wedding a miscellaneous shower was given to the bride at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunning, Clinton. The room was tastefully decorated with yellow and white streamers.

The bride was escorted to chair under a decorated arch, by her friend Eileen Andrews, to the strains of "Here comes the bride" played by her aunt, Mrs. Lorne Dunning.

The gifts were carried in by Louise and Ann Carr, and Valerie Woodside, while Gladys Glover and Irene Pickering opened the gifts. Verses were read by Ena McKay and Mrs Chas. Woodside arranged gifts on table. The bride to be thanked one and all for their kindness and gifts, which included a nice sum of money.

After singing for "She's a jolly good fellow," lunch was served and remainder of evening was sociably spent.
