COLUMBIA PICTURES PRESENTS RITA HAYWORTH at Gilda with GLENN FORD

GEORGE MACREARY - JOSEPH CALCIA Directed by Norman Krasna Produced by Norman Krasna VIRGINIA VAN DYKE CHARLES VOGEL

Matinee Tuesday at 2.30 ALSO SHORT SUBJECT SHOWS 7.15 - 9.15

HAYWORTH SCORES AS 'GILDA' IN DRAMATIC FILM

When a movie role comes along that's just about made to order for a screen star's personality, the resulting film is sure to be a hit. Visible evidence of this can be seen in the picture "Gilda," in Columbia Pictures' thrilling romantic drama, with Rita Hayworth, George Macreary, Joseph Calcia and Steven Geray.

There never was a woman like Gilda and Miss Hayworth really goes to town in her first important dramatic role. She sings and dances too! Stunningly gowned, swaying to throbbing Latin rhythms and softly rendering a torchy "Gilda," she brings down the house.

The taut and unusual love story of the tough and bitter Johnny Farrell (Glenn Ford), brawling along a South American waterfront, is adopted by the suave and Ballin Munday (George Macreary), saddle owner of a gambling casino.

Johnny, thigh-slipped about his past, trying hard to forget a love which haunts him, rises to become Munday's trusted lieutenant and best friend. But, when Munday turns from a trip with a bride, Gilda (Rita Hayworth), the air is swept with tension as Johnny sees the woman in his life!

For a period of silent prayer and redemption of life to the Masters of the program committee, Mrs. Toombs and Mrs. Ramsey, then took charge and called on several members who gave items concerning men and women in all walks of life, who had been good stewards of their God-given talents, such as well known names as Frita Kreisler, the great violinist, Dr. Grenfell of Labrador fame, Martha Carver the famous Negro scientist and Kagawa who is still living and being used of God, bringing the light of the Gospel to his native land, these and many other cases were cited, of men and women in humbler walks of life who had been good stewards of the abilities entrusted to them. The hymn "Lord Speak to Me that I May Speak" was sung and the meeting closed with prayer after which refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed by all.
