CHARLOTTETOWN and QUEEN'S COUNTY

It pays to buy in this Province.

All interested in The Guardian contest should read the Tour Article and standing of candidates on page 14.

G. Elmer Ritchie will sing Blumenthal's lovely song "The Message" in St. James' Hall next Monday.

All should help a good cause by buying tickets for the lecture on Dec. 15 at Columbus Hall, Queen St.

The many friends of Mrs. John F. Hodgson of this city who has undergone an operation in the P. E. I. Hospital, will be pleased to learn that she is doing nicely and will hope to hear of her speedy recovery.

The Bonavista left here at 4 a. m. yesterday for St. John's, Nfld., with 7500 bags oats, 2800 bales hay, 215 bags vegetables, 48 packages butter, 50 cases eggs, 97 head of cattle, 280 sheep, 4 carcasses beef, and sundries. This was the last sailing of the Black Diamond boats from here this season.

The death of the late Charles Boiesner of North River, which occurred at his home there on Dec. 1st, removes one of the old land marks of that section of the country. Mr. Boiesner was a farmer, of quiet and unobtrusive disposition and was highly thought of by everybody. He was the last of this family of that name. Mr. Boiesner leaves to mourn a widow, a grand-daughter and a grandson.

Miss Nora Ferguson, of Prince Edward Island, is visiting friends in this city, after some stay in Winnipeg with her brother, Colin Ferguson, who is chief actuary of the Great West Life Assurance company. Miss Ferguson is a daughter of the late Senator Donald Ferguson, who was for a long time a provincial minister and afterward a member of the Bowell and Tupper administration at Ottawa. Vancouver News advertiser, Nov. 29th.

The new firm of Kelly, Taylor Co., Ltd., with James Kelly, as manager, are opening up a select stock of first class groceries and as usual will give their customers every attention in this line. Their goods are priced to satisfy all and a large range of complaints of every variety. Household goods should watch for their ad which will appear Monday, as there will be an interesting announcement made. The provisional directors of the company are Jas. W. Taylor, Dan L. Taylor, John McMillan, John L. Bradley and Patrick J. Kelly. These men are all well known throughout the city and country and the firm will no doubt receive a large patronage.

The services at the S. A. Citadel, since Ensign and Mrs Hargrove took command continue to increase in interest and attendance. Last Sunday night, Mrs Hargrove dealt with the subject "The Invalid's March" and it is quite safe to say such an address was never heard from that platform before. Next Sunday night at 7.30 Ensign Hargrove will speak, taking for his subject, "Weights and measures." Both the Ensign and his wife, are able speakers, and certainly are whole hearted in their efforts to bless and love the people. The Guardian extends its warmest sympathies, and predicts for Ensign and Mrs Hargrove a successful term in this City.

The first opportunity the men have had to hear Rev Z.L. Fash, the pastor of the Baptist church, speak to men only will be at the Y. M. C. A. Men's meeting on Sunday at 4 o'clock. A program of special interest to men is being arranged free to every man in the city.

Last evening in the school room of the First Methodist Church in this City Dr Stephenson and Rev E. Hartwell from China delivered excellent addresses on Mission work. The meeting was fairly well attended and much interest was evidenced by the audience which was composed of members of the congregations of First and Grace Methodist Churches.

The committee on bowling at the Y.M.C.A. are trying to arrange a plan whereby all the many different classes of membership have an equal fair chance to use the alleys. Many complaints have been made by men that the alleys are noisy when the boys are present and so hours have been arranged for both. Also a number of ladies have been anxious to learn the game and they will also be accommodated. Beginning next Monday a new schedule will go into effect. On Tuesday and Friday afternoon from three to six one alley will be at the service of the ladies or contributors and their wives. Business men will also find this a pleasant time to visit the alleys. Business men will also be given special attention on each day from twelve to two except on Saturday. On Tuesday and Friday the boys will not be permitted to use the alleys at all and on Monday will begin to use the alleys at four thirty p.m. On Thursday and Saturday they will be given special opportunities. Ladies will also be allowed the use of this privilege on Wednesday evening from 7 to 9 p.m. A tournament will be started in the near future.
