LOCAL BRIEFS.

A PARTY left the city for Georgetown yesterday morning comprising Hon. B. Davies, Supt Sharp and Trackmaster Houle. A number of carpenters from the Railway also went down to make repairs on the town hall.

MESSEURS. J. H. MYRICK & Co., writes THE GUARDIAN stating that their schooner "Charlie" was not struck by lightning as stated in our columns some days ago, but that the crew discovered fire in the traffrail and they could not account for it. The vessel was in no way injured.

At Chambers yesterday Judge Hodgson after consultation with the Chief Justice and Judge Fitzgerald, decided that a plea need not be served on the plaintiff's attorney in order to save judgment being marked by default, and he therefore ordered a default which had been marked after a plea was filed but had not been served to be removed.

MISS BOYVER, of San Francisco, Cal., leaves this morning by rail for Boston, where she will enter the New England Conservatory of Music. She will probably visit the Island again next summer before leaving for her own home.

TRYON NOTES.—Miss Gladys Lord, of Charlottetown, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Bedouque, returned home last Saturday.—Mr. Charles Lord of Bedouque, who has been recuperating in Tryon, from the effects of a fall off a load of hay, left for home on Saturday last.—The white frost on Thursday night did considerable injury to the potato crops. Since then the frost has entirely disappeared, having gone into their winter quarters.—This season has been exceedingly good for milk, and the prices for butter have advanced considerably.—The grain crops, with the exception of the wheat crop, which have been somewhat blighted in some localities, are very luxuriant and of a superior quality. The outlook this fall is very encouraging to farmers, having abundant crops, and looking forward in hopeful anticipation of good prices.—The Tryon creamery, owned and run by A. E. Venning, possesses perhaps the best country refrigerator on the Island, the thermometer, for the last week, ranging down to 32 and 35 degrees. It is built in every respect, after the government plan.—On Saturday last baseball club was organized in North Tryon, Charles Dawson was appointed Captain and J. W. Robinson, Sec. Treasurer.—Mr. Solomon Bell of Victoria, has recently purchased the farm of Mr. William Lowther of South Shore, Bedouque, and purposes moving thereto in a few weeks.
