Galvanizing after weaving gives Frost Chain Link Fabric far greater resistance to rust. Every part of every wire is covered by a heavy, smooth coat of tight-adhering zinc that positively prevents attack by rust-forming moisture.

That is why it makes truly economical enclosures for fox ranches. Frost Chain Link is stronger, too, than ordinary wire. The design and weave gives it greater flexibility. Made in widths from 18 in. to 12 ft. . . several gauges. Write for free samples.

Sea View and Vicinity

The recent storm has been a great set back to the fishermen and the net of their fishing gear was inside near the shore. This was considerably damaged by the exceedingly high tide and the net was destroyed. This is deeply deplored as none of the fishermen have been able to proceed herring for bait owing to the scarcity of them for this season. They have been obliged to purchase their supply wherever available, all sincerely trust the remainder of the fishing season will be more encouraging than the first part has been.

The many friends of Mr. David Adams sincerely trust that his treatment in Prince County Hospital will be beneficial and that he may speedily regain his health.

The May meeting of the Sea View W.I. was held in the Institute room on Wednesday evening. There was a good attendance of members and two visitors present. President presided and the meeting was held with the Ode and repeating trees in unison. Roll call was answered with the name of a Canadian author. After the minutes the usual discussion followed. It was unanimously decided to send $25.00 to the Provincial Sanatorium. It was also decided to invite the National Dramatic Players early in June. The retiring sick and school committees reported and new ones were appointed. Sick members were read by Margaret Blakney and an interesting balloon contest was put on which created much enjoyment. Margaret Blakney being the winner in this contest. The National Anthem brought this meeting to a close after which a delicious and beautiful lunch was served by Mrs. James Duggan, Mrs. Corne Campbell and Mrs. Gladys Adams.

A number from this community attended the sale at Mr. George Davison's, Burlington. There was a large crowd there and under the capable management of Mr. Morrison, auctioneer, everything was disposed of at a high figure.

The Traveller's Rest Dramatic Players presented their 3-act play "Who Said Quit", in Darnley Hall on Wednesday evening. There was a good gathering, but owing to several other social functions in the near by communities the hall was not as well filled as it otherwise would have been, but all who were present greatly enjoyed the play and all taking part deserve special mention. There were several pleasing specialties between the acts. This gathering was under the auspices of the Darnley W.I. A neat sum was realized. The following are the cast of characters: John Woodford—Roland McDonald, Caroline Woodford, his aunt—Evelyn Ramsay, Henry Mason—neighbor—Edwin McNeill, Kate Brennan—neighbor—Jean MacDonald, Mrs. Elizabeth Rossiter.
