Offices in Summerside J. Frank Lafferty, Manager; and in Alberton Herbert Clark, Manager.

Miss Annie Spencer is visiting at Montague. Mrs. Dr. John F. McNeill, has returned from a visit to Boston. Miss Emma Rogers is visiting her parents Joseph and Mrs. Rogers, Kensington. There were 90 passengers going and 155 returning by the Empress to Summerside yesterday. John L. McKinnon, Summerside, returned last night from a visit to Montreal and Toronto. The date of the Kensington Sunday School picnic is Friday Aug. 7 instead of Thursday the 6th. Misses Irene Duncan and Hazel Murley are visiting at Clermont the guest of Frank and Mrs. Mill. Miss Carrie Grady, Summerside, and Miss Daisy Harvey, Boston, are visiting in Charlottetown. George and Mrs. Walker, have returned to Summerside, after visiting Mrs. Walker's home in Bay Fortune. Miss May Gallant, Summerside, who has spent the past winter in New York returned home last night. Dr. Edwin Tanton, Summerside, who graduated last June from McGill Medical College, has opened an office in Summerside. Mrs. W. D. Lockett and two children of Bridgetown, N. S., are visiting in Alberton the guests of Mrs. Lockett's brother W. C. Lawson. Mrs. W. S. Ferguson accompanied by her two children who have been visiting her parents J. H. and Mrs. Locke, Summerside, returned last night to Sydney. W. E. Callbeck, North Tryon, will sell by public auction on his premises on Saturday next at one o'clock his stock consisting of two horses, seven head of cattle, three sheep, one litter of nine, thirteen sheep and lambs, fifty hens, ten cords of wood, and a number of farm implements. Terms made known at sale. 8-5212p. The marriage takes place at 8 o'clock this morning at the home of the bride's parents W. A. and Mrs. Cunningham Central Street, Summerside of their daughter Lillian to Clement Carruthers of North Bedouque. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. R. G. Strathie in the presence of only a few invited relatives and friends. After which the happy couple leave by the Empress on a short wedding tour in the other provinces. On their return they will take up their residence in North Bedouque. The Guardian join in extending congratulations.

Hugh McInnis, says the Halifax Chronicle, who now occupies the editorial chair of the Summerside Journal, and has been at P. E. Island since July 1st, returned to the City on Thursday last and on Saturday he and Mrs. McInnis left for Summerside to take up their residence there. Seven years ago Mr. McInnis, who had been in newspaper work at Charlottetown all his life, came to Halifax and joined the Morning Herald staff. Later he branched out in the real estate business for them. Mr. McInnis made many friends in business circles here and both he and Mrs. McInnis became popular in social circles, so that their departure from Halifax is learned with regret.

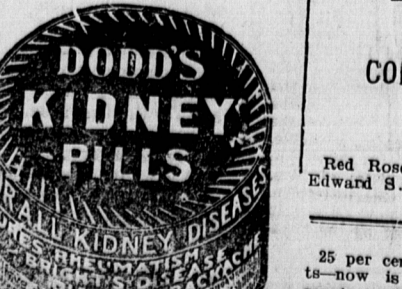

Frank Larkin, Tignish, who has spent the past in Calgary returned by the Empress last night to Summerside. Miss McArthur, St. John, was a passenger by the Empress last night on a visit to Mrs. Charles Meikle, Summerside. William Heckbert of Commercial Cross, has sold his farm at Milltown Cross to Nathaniel McKinnon, and has purchased a farm of fifty acres at Commercial Cross from Miss Della Gordon of Ashmont, Mass. Dr. Smith, Proprietor of the Royal Hotel, Montague, has recently been awarded the mail contract to Valleyfield West. The mail courier, Raymond Dowar, delivers the mail there while on the Montague-Alliston route. The death occurred at Bay Fortune, July 23rd, after a lingering illness which she bore with marked submission to the Divine Will, of Francis Melvina, beloved wife of Cameron Coffin and daughter of Charles Kieff, Little River, aged thirty-six years. The death occurred at his home in Tignish Monday morning, of Patrick Hogan, one of the best known farmers of West Prince. Deceased was 74 years of age and had been in failing health for some time. He leaves to mourn a large family consisting of six daughters and five sons. Among the latter are Rev. Father Hogan, former parish priest at Tracadie, P. E. Island, Dr. S. P. Hogan of Teasdale, Sask., and Frank Hogan, a popular lumber merchant of the same place. Among the former Summerside people who are now residing in Fernie the district in which the reported fire is raging are Wm. and Colin Muirhead who are in the mercantile business there, much anxiety is felt by the relatives and friends in Summerside as to the safety of both themselves and their property.
