LAI D TO REST.—The funeral of the late Martin Walsh, who died largely from his late residence at Upper Queen Street, St. Nicholas Cathedral, when service was conducted by Rev. Maurice...

With the Christian fortitude and faith which had characterized his whole life he awaited the end with a calm and loved one known to his eternal rest on the evening of New Year's Day in the 78th year of his age. He leaves to mourn and to cherish the memory of a devoted husband and father, his wife, formerly Miss Annie MacSwain, two daughters, Miss Jean and Miss Beatrice and one son, Robert.

ISLANDER DEAD.—Word has been received by Thomas Stewart of Kensington of the death of his brother, Mr. James C. Walker of Broadview, Sask., which occurred at Regina on Jan. 1st.

PAINFUL INJURY.—Mr. Alex G. Campbell, Section Foreman of Wellington, met with a painful accident on Christmas Eve. Walking near the south end of Central Street, Summerside, he slipped on the icy sidewalk, where water had dripped from the roof and frozen, and so badly sprained his leg that he will be confined to his home at Summerside for some time.

WEDDING BELLS.—One of the more than ordinarily pleasant events of the Christmas season was the wedding of Mr. Arthur J. Coffin of M. Stewart and Miss Susie MacEachern, of the same place. The ceremony took place on Wednesday evening, December 30th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. MacEachern, and was officiated by the Rev. Harold T. Roe, of the Oxford Street United Church, officiating. Only the immediate relatives were present. The bride wore her wedding gown of golden brown satin. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was a simple one, and the guests were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas at a turkey supper. Later the bride and groom left for their home at 320 Euston Street, where they will be at home to their many friends.

RENEWING FRIENDSHIP.—Hon. J. H. Myers, Minister of Agriculture, who spoke after Mr. Power, was given a splendid hearing. He replied effectively to the arguments put forth by the preceding speaker, and later in the meeting completely reversed some of the points that the other opposition speakers tried to make. From the time of the Monday night's meeting it is quite evident that the electors of Baldwin Road will give a good account of themselves on the fourteenth.

ACCIDENTALLY INJURED.—Mrs. Geo. J. McCormac, Tuesday received painful burns on her face when a kettle of boiling water she was removing from the stove slipped over her face. Although her injuries are not serious they are painful and will confine her to her home for some days.

SUSTAINS INJURIES.—The many friends of Rev. George C. Taylor will regret to learn that he has sustained injuries by slipping and falling on one of the sidewalks in Montreal recently. He was conveyed to Royal Victoria Hospital where it was ascertained that he had broken his hip and one of his legs injured. He is sufficiently recovered however to be taken back to his rooms in the Y. M. C. A. and under the care of Dr. MacKenzie is expected to make a speedy recovery.

MEDAL FOR BRAVERY.—Mr. McKinnon, K. C., has received the Royal Canadian Humane Association's bronze medal, awarded for bravery, and to be presented to Private Jack Donovan, for the rescue of Rev. A. P. C. Croft from drowning in Georgetown Harbor when he was overcome and almost lost his life. Indeed would have done so had it not been for the promptness and bravery of Mr. Donovan, who listened to his rescue and took him ashore. Under a doctor's treatment he was restored to consciousness. The presentation will be made at Natick, Mass., in a very short time.
