SUFFERED DAY AND NIGHT

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Relieved by "Fruit-a-lives"

Lerna Bess D'os, C. B.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-lives'. In a week, the Constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous".

Why A Farm Needs Milwaukee Air Power Water System

Combined in a few words the answer is: Because it is the best investment a farmer can make. Time spent in carrying water, in pumping water and in taking the stock to the watering trough is time that can be used to better advantage at other work.

The matter of home comfort also is important. Isn't the wife of the farmer just as good as the city woman?

What about the children? Is there any reason why they should not have a home equipped with a bath room and inside toilet just like their city relations?

And to think what it means in case of fire to have a hose handy and eighty pounds water pressure to fight it with.

characterized by sincerity and earnestness but enlivened through out by dashes of the keenest humor. This was followed by speeches from James M. MacLeod, Edward Williams, P. L. Cash, Thomas Wigmore, Jas. A. Campbell, all replete with words of appreciation and many reminiscences of the good old days. In the "When you and I were young Maggie" times, Mr. and Mrs. MacKay made suitable replies to the kind words spoken. The speeches were interspersed with many old time songs, in which all joined with a fervor equal to the occasion.

GOLDEN WEDDING AT GRAHAM'S ROAD

The community of Graham's Road has been singularly blessed with weddings and "showers" this summer, but probably for the older folk at least, the most enjoyable social event of the season was Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacKay's Golden Wedding on the evening of August 2nd, 1920. The weather was very unfavorable for the rain fell in torrents, but that did not prevent the forty couples invited from gathering and having a right good time with their old friends who in the goodness of a mild Providence, have journeyed along life's pathway together for the past fifty years.

The extra amount of work and the expense entailed in giving such a "celebration" as this, at a busy time of the year, only gives evidence of the goodness of heart characteristic of the MacKay family and also speaks of the affection of the family for the devoted parents who cared for and trained them in their youth. The affair was a decided success from every point of view and the only regret felt was the absence of two members of the family, namely, James, who is in Colorado and Albert, who is in California. But we felt that though many miles distant, they were present in spirit and regretted that they were not able to share in the merriment and "felicitations of the evening."

After the usual congratulatory greetings were extended to the "bride" and "groom" the Rev. George Miller took the chair and called the assemblage to order and delivered an excellent address perpetrated such a ceremony upon him.

One of the amusing features of the evening's pleasure was the visit of the charivari party, each bedecked in a motley array—all harking back to the happy event fifty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. MacKay were the recipients of many gifts as a token of the high esteem in which they are held in the neighborhood, among them being two valuable and beautiful leather upholstered chairs, from the family.

The following members of the family were present: Alva, (Mrs. George McKay) Graham's Road; Mary Jane (Mrs. Andrew G. MacKay) Graham's Road; Emmeline, (Mrs. D. Gething, Boston, Mass.; Archibald, Lynn, Mass.; William R. Clifton; Bert, Graham's Road.

The evening's good time was fittingly concluded by the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," followed by the National Anthem and all retired to their homes, thanking Mr. and Mrs. MacKay for such an enjoyable time and wishing them many continued years of happy wedded life.
