Sea View and Vicinity

Wheels and autos are again on the highways as the only means of traffic as the recent rain and windstorm took the snow away.

The Christmas concert of Sea View School, which was postponed on account of the storm, was held on Friday evening in the hall. There was a large attendance. The hall was handsomely decorated with Christmas trimmings. A Christmas tree adorned with tinsel and tastefully trimmed was laden with parcels. Mr. Arthur Stewart presided and after a few introductory remarks the following program was well carried out by the different pupils—Chorus—O Sing Me A Song. Welcome—Marie Adams. Exercise—Merry Christmas. Recitation—Leroy Adams. Dialogue—Zachew's Hired Man. Upside Down Drill—Music of Jingle Bells. Dialogue—Uncle Joe's Will. Exercise—Christmas Symbols. Recitation—Violet Bassett. Pan-tomime—Christmas Lullaby. Instrumental—Christmas Drill—Christmas Boxes. Dialogue—The Lost Key. Reading—Leigh Donald. Step Dancing. Motion Song—Old Black Joe. Recitation—Love and Doughnuts. Drill—March of Christmas Trees. Solo—Wallace Murphy. Chorus—Rig-a-gig-gig. Recitation—Lee Stewart. Santa Claus later appeared and in his usual jolly way wished all a Merry Christmas and presented each pupil with a nice gift from the love of Christmas trees and a treat from the teachers. Each child in the community was also remembered with a bag of candy. The teachers were also remembered by the pupils in both departments. The singing of the National Anthem brought this splendid gathering to a close. A creditable sum was realized from the proceeds of this concert.

Address And Presentation

Once again the Yule-tide season is here, but it has not passed in a way that is unbefitting to the parishioners of Lot 65.

During this holy season it is the custom to show gratitude, in some special way, to those whom we love and respect.

The people of St. Anne's church proved themselves not to be negligent in this regard by the generosity and good will which they displayed in donating gifts to the one whom they considered their most respected and best friend, Rev. Leo Herrell.

On Dec. 18th the Holy Name Society, on behalf of the men of the parish, presented a purse to the priest which was received in a most acceptable manner. Accompanying the gift presented by the Secretary, Maurice McKay, was the address read by the Vice President, Walter Coady. In a few appropriate words, the pastor showed his appreciation by stating that he cherished above many things of much more value, the purse which he just received.

On Christmas Day, after the celebration of Holy Mass, the Catholic Women's League donated the pastor with a very suitable gift which was presented by the President, Mrs. Joseph Duffy, accompanied by a few well chosen words. In like manner, Rev. Leo Herrell extended his thanks to the League for their generosity.

Below is the address which was read and presented with the purse donated by the Holy Name Society on Dec. 18th.

Rev. A. L. Herrell, P.P.
St. Anne's Church, Lot 65.
Reverend and Dear Father—
The festive season of Christmas, with its joys and happiness, is foremost in the hearts of all who pay homage to the "Divine Babe" whose birth is now being celebrated throughout the Christian world.

May this spirit increase the fervour and add to the spiritual welfare of the parishioners of Lot 65. We, the Holy Name Men, feel that you, as pastor and spiritual director, foster this spirit throughout the year and we wish to show you, in some small way, our appreciation of your tireless labors among us.

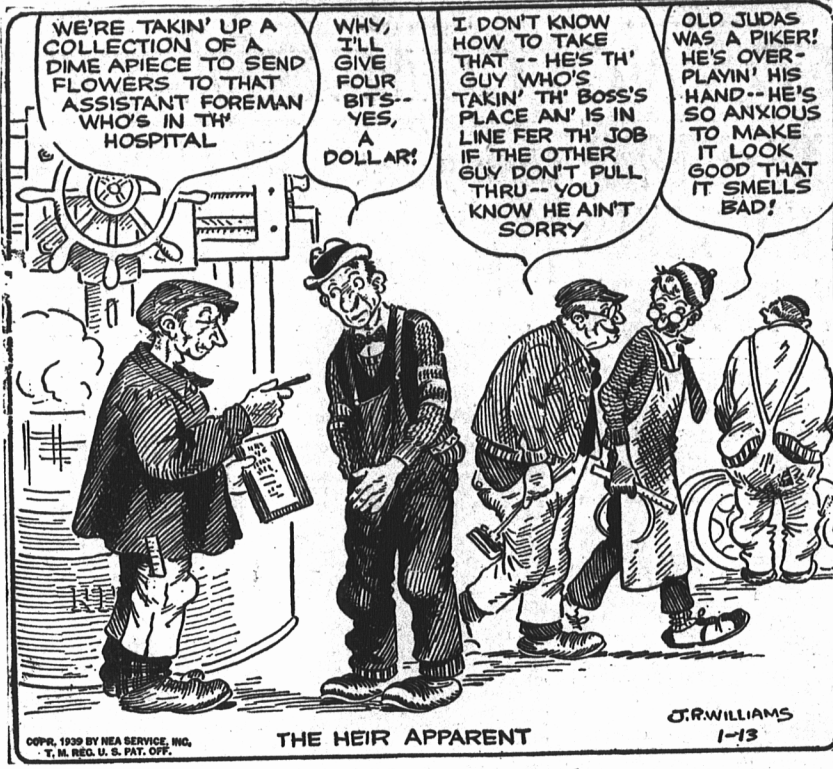

Your efforts to increase our sanctity will not go unrewarded before the great throne, and we hope you will have ample reason to rejoice over the fruits of your labors.

At this holy season, therefore, when good-will towards men is emphasized, we wish you to share ours in our humble way, and we ask you to accept this little gift which we give with hearts that are filled with gratitude and esteem for our beloved pastor.

That God may spare you for many years, to direct us in the spiritual light of which all mankind is in need, and that He may, in a special way, shower His blessings on you at this season of Christmas, is the sincere hope and fervent prayer of your parishioners and Holy Name Men, as we wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Why is a railway time-table like life?—Because it is full of ups and downs.
