SILVER FOX SKINS

DEAR SIR,

Owing to the large number of SILVER FOX SKINS now coming forward from Canada and the United States of America for inclusion in our Public Fur Sales, we have found it necessary to make certain rules under which only are we willing to accept consignments.

We have found by experience that except in the case of the very finest specimens higher prices are as a rule realised for lots containing a considerable number of Skins: this is especially noticeable in the case of the cheaper grades.

The buyers attending the Sales have only a limited time at their disposal and it is obvious that they are better able to examine a large offering if the number of lots catalogued is kept within reasonable bounds.

It is also clear that to enable us to make large lots we must be permitted to put the Skins belonging to different owners together, and, further, that Skins so lotted cannot be offered subject to a reserve price.

We therefore wish to give you notice that we are only willing to accept your shipments on the following conditions:—

(1) We are to be at liberty to offer your Skins or any part of them, lotted with similar Skins belonging to other Owners.
(2) We cannot include in our Sales Skins on which a reserve price has been placed.
(3) Unless we hear to the contrary, we will assume that you desire to offer and sell all Skins consigned to us at the next Public Sale after their arrival in London: if, however, you should wish any of your Skins held for a later Sale, it will be necessary for you to inform us of this fact at the time of shipment.
(4) It is understood that any Skins consigned to us by you, after the receipt of this circular, are subject to the above conditions, and that, in making your shipments to us, you agree to them.

We need hardly say that in lotting together Skins belonging to different Owners the greatest care is taken to ensure that only those of exactly similar character, quality and value are offered in the same lot.

DIRECTIONS AS TO SHIPMENT.

PARCEL POST

Under the Post Office Regulations, packages to be sent by Parcel Post must not exceed 11 lbs. in weight.

PACKING

Skins should be carefully packed in parcels, the outer covering of which should be of canvas, unbleached muslin, cheese cloth, or some similar fabric.

SHIPPING

Each package must be clearly addressed to:—

C. M. LAMPSON & CO.,
64, Queen Street,
London, E. C. 4,
England.

It is essential for the identification of shipments on arrival in London that each parcel should be distinctly marked on the OUTSIDE with the name and address of the Shipper.

It will also be found convenient to mark the first parcel No. 1, the second No. 2, and so continue with each succeeding parcel until the end of the Season.

These two points are of great importance, as large numbers of parcels are frequently delivered together, and without the name of the shipper and number on the wrapping it is extremely difficult for us to trace the ownership of the parcels.

INVOICE

At the time that the shipment is despatched an invoice MUST ALWAYS BE MAILED UNDER SEPARATE COVER to us at this address.

This invoice should state:—

(1) The number of parcels sent forward.
(2) The number marked on each parcel.
(3) The quantity of skins in each parcel.
(4) Amount of Marine Insurance required.

Below we give an example of how the Invoice should be made out by you.

MARINE INSURANCE

UNLESS ADVISED TO THE CONTRARY, we will insure all shipments whilst in transit under our Open Policies, for invoice value plus 10 per cent. These policies give full protection from the time that the goods leave your possession until delivered to us in London, and the rate of premium is most reasonable.

As stated above, we should in every case be advised at the time the shipment goes forward of the amount of insurance required.

If it is not desired that we should arrange Marine Insurance this fact should be clearly stated on the invoice referred to above.

SHIPMENT BY EXPRESS

Skins may also be forwarded to London through any of the Express Companies.

Shipments by Express should be made in exactly the same way as by Parcel Post, except that there is no limit to the weight of packages and wooden cases may be used.

It is not necessary so far as the Marine Insurance is concerned to declare a value of more than $50 per package to the Express Companies, as if full value is declared the Express Company will charge their rate based on the valuation.

NEW YORK

Information as to shipments of furs to London can be obtained from our New York Representative:—

Mr. ALFRED FRASER,
212, Fifth Avenue,
New York City.

It is, however, unnecessary for you to advise Mr. Fraser of shipments made direct to us in London.

PAYMENT

Payment will, as a rule, be made by Dollar Cheque from our New York Office.

Should you prefer to be paid by Sterling Draft on London you should inform us of the fact when forwarding your invoice.

Bedeque Notes

His friends are sorry to learn of the illness of Mr. Harry Sobey, Searletown and hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Bernice Affleck, Chelton is visiting in Belmont the guest of Miss Mabel Best.

A bean supper was held in the new hall, Searletown on Friday evening prepared by the Women's Institute of that district. A goodly sum was realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Heber E. Myers paid a flying visit to Summerside on Wednesday last.

Miss Selina Myers has returned to her home in North Carleton after being in Tryon for a few days assisting Mrs. Sterling Lord at her At Home.

Mr. Simpson Affleck has returned to Belmont after visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sinclair Affleck, Chelton.

Dr. J. J. Sidey, pastor Central Bedeque Church is away on evangelistic work, he intends being absent for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Affleck, Chelton were visitors to Summerside on Saturday.

Mr. W. F. MacFarlane, Lower Bedeque is in O'Leary on business.

Mrs. William Cairns, Freetown is visiting in Chelton, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Earle Pearson.

Mr. Jesse Bradshaw and sister Miss Sadie were recent visitors to North Bedeque.

Miss Ruth Sobey, Searletown has been visiting her friend Miss Sue Affleck, Lower Bedeque.

Miss Annie Bradshaw, Middleton has returned to her home after visiting her cousin, Miss Catherine Dobson, Tryon.

Once, after the "Olympic" had slowed down to take the paravanes in and then had resumed full speed, one of the soldiers said to the officer of the watch:

"Did the ship stop then, boss?"

"Yes."

"What for, boss—was it to take breff?"

A LAUGH IN CHURCH

She sat on the sliding cushion,
The dear wee woman of four;
Her feet in their shiny slippers,
Hung dangling over the floor,
She meant to be good; she had promised,
And so, with her big, brown eyes,
She stared at the meeting house windows
And counted the crawling flies,

She looked far up at the preacher
But she thought of the honey bees
Droning away at the blossoms,
That whitened the cherry trees.
She thought of a broken basket,
Where, curled in a dusky heap,
Three sleek, round puppies, with fringy ears,
Lay snuggled and fast asleep.

Such soft, warm bodies to cuddle,
Such queer little hearts to beat,
Such swift, round tongues to kiss,
Such sprawling, cushiony feet;
She could feel in her clasping fingers
The touch of the satiny skin,
And a cold, wet nose exploring
The dimples under her chin.

Then a sudden ripple of laughter
Ran over the parted lips,
So quick that she could not touch it
With her rosy finger-tips.
The people whispered, "Bless the child,"
As each one waked from a nap,
But the dear, wee woman hid her face
For shame in her mother's lap.

NO CHILD NEED DIE OF DIPHTHERIA

In Canada, during the year 1926, there occurred 922 deaths from Diphtheria. This represents a tremendous amount of suffering, both bodily and mental, the loss of precious lives, and the physical damaging of many that recovered; in addition, the resultant expense might be mentioned.

This is a deplorable condition when it is realized that we know as much, if not more about Diphtheria than we do of any other disease. The germ that causes it is known, its method of spread is understood, there is a specific cure for it and, best of all, there is a satisfactory and effective means of prevention.

The question that naturally arises is that if such be the case, why do so many cases and deaths continue to occur? The answer to this question is that whilst we have a cure and a preventive, they are not being used by everyone, and until they are, cases and deaths will continue to occur.

Diphtheria antitoxin is a specific cure if given, in sufficient amount, on the first day of the disease. Deaths occur when this is not done. Cure depends upon securing prompt treatment. The usual reason for delay is that parents wait until tomorrow to see if the child is better before calling the doctor.

Injections of diphtheria toxoid (Anatoxine-Ramon) or of toxin-antitoxin will develop, in the individual injected, a resistance to Diphtheria (immunity), similar to the resistance developed amongst those who recover from an attack of the disease. As Diphtheria deaths occur chiefly amongst children of preschool age, these children should be immunized or protected against Diphtheria. Diphtheria can be stamped out by immunization. No cases or deaths occur amongst those immunized.

Questions concerning Health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184 College Street, Toronto, will be answered.

Questions as to diagnosis and treatment will not be answered.

Helpful Hints And Recipes

(FOR UUARDIAN READERS)

Save your baking powder tins and bake your sandwich bread in them.

Tea or coffee keep the flavor better if kept in a china or earthenware dish.

To keep cookies nice and crisp keep them in a tin box, and if you like them just the opposite, place them in a stone jar.

French Mustard—Slice an onion into a bowl and cover with vinegar. After two days pour off vinegar and add to it 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon sugar, 1 egg and mustard enough to thicken. Set it on stove and stir until it boils. When cold it is ready for use.

Cream Salad Dressing.—Rub yolks of 2 eggs smooth with 1 teaspoon each of made mustard and salt, 1-4 teaspoon each of pepper and sugar, 1 tablespoon melted butter and vinegar and 1-2 cup sweet cream. Beat well with egg-beater.

Mince Meat.—2 lb. sugar, 2 lb. fine chopped meat, 2 lbs. chopped apples, 3 lb. raisins, (stoned), 2 lb. currants, 1 3-4 lb. suet chopped fine, 1-2 lb. lemon peel, 1-2 citron peel, one pint cider, the juice of four lemons and grated rind of 2, 1 tablespoon cinnamon, 3 nutmegs, 1 teaspoon cloves, (ground), salt and pepper to taste. Cook together and place in jars until ready to use.

Suet Pudding.—1 cup (fine chopped) suet, 1 cup chopped raisins, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup sweet milk, 3 teaspoons Baking Powder in 4 cups flour, spices to taste. Steam 1 1-2 hours.

Ginger Bread—1-4 cup shortening, 1-2 cup brown sugar, 1 egg, 3-4 cup molasses, 2 1-4 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon ginger, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon nutmeg, 1-2 cup boiling water. Cream fat and sugar together, add the egg and molasses and beat well. Mix and sift the dry ingredients and add to first mixture. Add boiling w last, and pour at once into well-greased pan or muffin tins. Bake in moderate oven for 1 hr. if loaf, or 45 minutes if muffin tins are used.

Custard Pie—2 cups milk, 2 eggs, 4 tablespoons sugar, 1-8 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon nutmeg. Stir eggs and sugar until well mixed. Add milk, salt and nutmeg and stir again. Pour into pie pan, lined with crust and bake in moderate oven for 50 minutes.

Chocolate Pie—3 tablespoons corn starch, 1 ounce chocolate, 3 egg yolks, 1 1-2 cups hot milk, 1 cup sugar. Mix chocolate, sugar, corn starch and hot milk and cook in double boiler 45 minutes. Add the beaten egg yolks. Fill into baked pie shell, and cover with beaten egg whites. Brown in oven.

When cutting a pie with meringue on it, first wet knife blade in water, and you will have a nice clean cut.

Have a stone or steel handy for sharpening knives. Sharp tools mean time saved.

Your white clothes will be much whiter if a teaspoon of powdered borax is added to the rinse water.

Colds

When the air passages of the Throat and Nose are inflamed from a Cold, the inflammation will remain until the Cold is gone. To work off the Cold and to fortify the system against Influenza,

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine tablets

It is easy to get rid of a Cold if you don't neglect it too long. Get a box of BROMO QUININE. 30c.

KING'S SPEECH

Sir,—The people of this Province would like to have seen something a little more definite about the needs and claims of the Maritimes than appears in the Governor General's speech. What about the broadening of the gauge to Murray Harbor? What about the carrying into effect of all the suggestions of the Duncan Commission? What about the payment of the losses on account of Fraser Mitchell? I hope that our representatives in the House of Commons and the Senate will do their best towards righting the wrongs of the political situation down here.

ECONOMY NECESSARY

Sir,—I am glad to see, by your excellent paper, that there will be a good strong Opposition to the Government at Ottawa. The tendency of that Government is evidently towards extravagance. Great care should be taken until the billions of our national debt are considerably reduced. But the Government is about to spend millions of borrowed money on the Hudson Bay Railway for which there is no present necessity,—and which, if found to be at all useful—is certain to draw freight away from the Canadian National Railway and so postpone the day, when that great property will pay interest on the money that it has cost. If, at the same time, railway work for which there is really need—such for instance, as the standardization of the Murray Harbor Railway—is proceeded with the expenditure and debt of the government will be still further increased. The Prime Minister and Minister of Railways are bonussing the great West in the interests of their Party, rather than of those of the country a large. A curb ought to be put upon the Government; and it is hoped that the Hon. Mr. Bennett with his 91 supporters in the House of Commons, and with the aid of the Independent Laborties and others, will be able to apply it.

"I REMEMBER"

Sir,—"How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood" were the words that rose to my lips," after the repetition last evening of the "high old time" at West River, in the good old days. They certainly were big and lively men who lived at West River and Belfast when I was a boy. And the step dancing, and the Highland Fling and Gillie Callum, and the fairy loveliness of the young dancing lady—oh it was all good—very good. The singing and the fiddling, too, not to speak of the pipes, stirred the blood in my old veins. I never heard better.

Well, we must be thankful to the Caledonian Club for honouring the memory of Burns and giving us, every year, reminescences of the good times when I was young. I had an idea that the young people of these latter days were not quite equal to the youngsters of my young days. But I must admit that the singers and players, and dancers at the Burns' entertainment were quite equal in ability to those of sixty and seventy years ago, as I recollect them—and perhaps a little more finished in point of style! What pretty girls and what handsome young men there are in these days. I hope that they'll all do well in this world—then they'll be sure of a reward hereafter.

THE VOICE OF CONFUCIUS

(British United Press)

LONDON, Jan. 27.—A gramophone record of the alleged voice of Confucius reciting from the Book of Odes was played at a South Kensington meeting under the auspices of the National Laboratory of Psychical Research.

The record was one which had been taken at a seance held at the London flat of Lord Charles Hope. The medium on that occasion was the well-known Valiantine.

Dr. Neville Whymant, the Oriental scholar, said the voice was undoubtedly Chinese, but the record was so foggy that he himself would not like to say much about it, but he gave an account of some remarkable seances he had attended at which the same medium was present.

A voice came through and talked what was undoubtedly an antique dialect of Chinese. It claimed to be Confucius.

Dr. Whymant said he was at first frankly sceptical, but later had less cause to be so. He immediately asked questions. He asked by what name Confucius was known when he was 14, and other details of his life, known to very few people. Correct answers were given and the voice went on and showed that it knew more Chinese literature of the time of Confucius than Dr. Whymant did himself.

For instance, he said, he completed a quotation, and it gave a rare text of one of the works of Confucius, known only to a handful of scholars in the world.

WHEN FAMOUS MEN MARRY

(British United Press)

LONDON, Jan. 27.— Have the majority of famous men of our time married early or late in life?

General Sir Webb Gillman raised the question by recommending cadets at the Royal Military College, Camberley the other day, to avoid matrimony until they are at least thirty.

"I know it is sometimes very hard," the General added, amid laughter, "but if you enter into matrimony you will find that your freedom of manoeuvre is cramped."

Certainly famous leaders of our fighting forces appear to marry late. For example:

Earl Haig, 44, Gen. Sir G. Milne 39, Sir Ian Hamilton 34, Earl Beatty 30, Earl Jellicoe 43.

Air Vice-Marshal Sir Sefton Brancker 30, Air Vice-Marshal Sir G. Salmond 32.

Politicians and lawyers, on the other hand marry young:

Mr. Baldwin 25, Mr. Lloyd George 25, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald 30, Lord Chief Justice 22, Lord Chancellor 29, Lord Merrivale 21.

IN MEMORIAM

MRS. RICHARD STEAD

On December 19, 1927, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Henry MacQuarrie, there passed peacefully away Mrs. Richard Stead of Winsloe North, at the age of 74. Mrs. Stead was a daughter of the late George Coles of Fredericton, afterwards of Milton. For some time before her death Mrs. Stead was not at all well, and the trouble reached a climax early in December, when those near and dear to her noticed that she was gradually sinking. All that could be done for her by loving hands was done, but without avail.

Besides the sorrowing husband, there are left to mourn their loss, five daughters, and one son: Mrs. Herbert Negus, of New Bedford, Mass., U. S. A. Mrs. Ida Hume of Bedford, Mass. Mrs. Claude Lutes, of Winnipeg, Man; Mrs. Robert Roberts of Winsloe North; and Mrs. Henry MacQuarrie, of Winsloe North, also Mr. John Stead of Saskatoon, Sask.

Mrs. Stead was a loving wife and mother, and a kind neighbor and friend. She was a lover of nature, very fond of flowers, and very much interested in her garden; and no doubt, when in later years she was unable to attend the services of the Lord's house, nature often directed her thoughts to nature's God.

The interment took place at Wheatley River where Mrs. Stead and her family attended the Methodist Church, and Sunday School, before removing to Winsloe North. Rev. W. H. Palmer, conducted the services both at the home of Mrs. Henry MacQuarrie, and at the grave.

The sympathy of the whole community is extended to those who have been so sorely bereaved.

TRYON TID-BITS

Mr. Charles Pooley, one of our enterprising farmers, recently purchased from "Dick" Cahill, Victoria, a beautiful pure bred guernsey cow, which I am informed, formerly came from the herd of Lewis Roper.

On Tuesday morning residents of Tryon were surprised to hear an aeroplane, and about 10:40 the mail 'plane passed over, enroute to the Magdalen Islands. It was somewhat of a surprise, for the 'plane was not expected until Wednesday. About 2 p. m. it again passed over on the return trip. Just think, dear reader! one mail a week in winter, and that is a blessing never received until this year. After all, we who live on "Old Spud Isle" have little cause for complaint.

Once more we have a mild spell —how long it will last I do not know, but it is certainly playing havoc with the roads, and I keeps on, pity help the open air rinks of this vicinity.

Mr. John A. Lyman of Albany, paid a visit to his old home in Tryon on Monday.

Every day now, we see the "spuds" going to the market, and, although the price is not very high, let us hope that quantity will make up the diff'!

Mr. Reg. Thomas, Albany, was a visitor to North Tryon on Tuesday evening. —Eismac of —Z—"
