THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown.

The latest news, first of all.

Attention is drawn to the ad of the Summer School of Science which appears in this issue.

Miss Maggie McKay, who has been spending the winter on P. E. Island, returns to Dorchester next week.

Any city girl with a fair education, who desires to learn type setting, should call at the Guardian office between eight and ten this morning.

The young girls' branch of the W. A. are having an afternoon tea and sale of fancy work and candy in St. Paul's schoolroom, Friday, April 8.

Frank Cobb, of Crapaud; Alfred Simmons and Cleon Rogerson, Gamble's Corner, and Gavin Walker, Crapaud, leave on Monday for the Canadian Northwest.

The Harland will go to Victoria Wednesday morning at 6 o'clock remaining over night, and coming to Charlottetown Thursday morning. She will return to Victoria in the afternoon.

The death took place at Crapaud on Friday, April 1st, of Mrs. George Nicholson. The deceased, who had been in ill health for some time, leaves to mourn one daughter, Mrs. Joseph Macdonald, of Seattle, Wash., and two sons, Edgar, of Albany, and George, of Crapaud. The funeral took place Sunday.

The choir of Hampton, Pres. church long noted for its excellent music has recently held a service of song on Sunday evenings at the close of the regular church services. Many persons drop in to enjoy and participate in singing evangelistic hymns. R. A. March, the well known commercial traveller is the efficient leader.

It is necessary that all news, letters to Editor, etc., sent to The Guardian for publication, be accompanied by a signature and address, the handwriting of which some member of the writing staff is familiar, as well as sufficient postage for a reply or the return of the manuscript if not published, should this be desired. The Guardian takes no responsibility whatever for the publication or return of any matter forwarded to individual members of its staff.

The Earl Grey crossed to this port Saturday from Pictou arriving at ten o'clock and making her last trip of the season. She brought over eighty-six passengers, one hundred bags of mail, one car corn, one car seed, two cars egg cases, one car flour and nine cars mixed freight. The Minto left Saturday for the Magdalen Islands. On Thursday of last week the Minto crossed to Pictou from this port, a fact which was omitted from The Guardian of next day.

The dainty Easter menu of The Dufferin Hotel, St. John, N. B., is certainly a handsome one. It is an artistic effort in green and white, the cover being decorated by the Dufferin coat of arms in embossed silver. The pages and cover are tied together by a dainty green silk cord. The items on the menu could not be surpassed for excellence in cooking as the chef is a first-class cook, with an able staff of assistants, who always give their guests the richest delicacies as the seasons come round.

On Saturday Beer & Weeks closed a contract for one of the large power vacuum cleaners such as is used in all large cities. This machine is mounted on wheels and is hauled to the street or yard near a residence, and from this a large hose is conducted into the building to be cleaned. The machine can be operated day or night as it does not depend on electricity to run it. This machine is guaranteed to thoroughly clean carpets, etc., by suction. This method does not in the least injure the carpet as the carpet does not require to be removed from the floor or beaten. The machine will arrive here in the course of a week or ten days, and should prove a great boon to housekeepers, etc.

His many friends will be glad to see H. J. Cundall, City, around again after his recent illness.

All readers when writing to advertisers in this or any other issue of this paper, are requested to mention The Guardian.

Rev C. H. Huestis, M. A., well known in this Province, preached in Robie Street, Church, most acceptably on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. George Wright, Montague, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. D. H. Murchison, York Point, returned home yesterday.

Rev B. J. Porter, Lockeport, N.S., who has many Methodist friends in this province, is holding special services in Little Harbor assisting Rev W. B. Parker.

The firemen were called out at 12.30 this afternoon for a slight blaze in the yard of the Methodist parsonage. It was not necessary to turn the hose on.

The Star Steam Laundry wants every housewife to send them a trial order in window curtains. They claim to be able to do them better and cheaper than any woman can do them. See ad on page 4.

The ladies of the W. M. S. of Crapaud held a very successful "at home" for their friends on Tuesday evening at the home of one of the members, Mrs. (Dr.) Houston, Crapaud. The program was given by the members of the Mission Band, interspersed with vocal and instrumental music by some of their elders. Cake and coffee were served, also home-made candy. Quite a large number were present who showed their appreciation of the pleasant evening spent by a liberal collection in aid of missions.

It was not made clear to readers in yesterday's issue that the continuation of the winter C. P. R. schedule throughout the summer season will no doubt mean that all mails for this Province via Pt Du Chene will be scheduled to arrive here one half hour later than last year. The result will be watched with interest as everybody is looking for an improved rather than a retrograde service. Under these circumstances it will be advisable that all possible mail matter for this city from all outside points especially from Nova Scotia and New Brunswick arrive here regularly every evening by S. S. Northumberland.

Besides several fine selections by the chorus choir, the following popular favorites will take part at Thursday night's Sacred Concert in Grace Church—Miss Amy Barle, Miss Nicholson, Mrs. Ritchie, Messrs. Elmer Ritchie, Parker Hooper and Berrie. A fine aggregation truly. Come.
